Correspondence

AUBURN.

Mrs. Catherine Ryan of No. 37 Lansing Street, wife of William Ryan, died last Friday. Tuesday morning, the funeral was held from the Holy Family Church at 9:30 o'clock.

The funeral of Edward Seals was held Tuesday at St. Mary's Church in this city. A requiem high mass was celebrated by the Rev. John Doran. Solos were sung by W. J. Bennett and Mrs. William Meagher.

Joseph Harmon of this city and Miss Julia Sullivan of Skaneateles were married at St. Mary's church in the latter place by the Rev. Father Purcell on last Wednesday. Miss Anna Coleman was bridesmaid and Edward Harmon, a brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Patrick Coleman, Joseph Harmon, James Gilbert and Herbert Simpson of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon will make their home in Cayuga street, this city.

At St. Mary's Church occurred the marriage of Frank L. Hopper and Miss Helen Shea, the Rev. William Mulhern officiating. Miss Elizabeth Shea was bridesmaid and Joseph Youngs was best man.

Denais D. Lundy and Delia Parsons were married at St. Mary's church by the Rev. John B. Doran.

The fair that was to be held by the Church of St. Mary's next week has been postponed on account of the numerous events that are being held for different organizations. It is the wish of the committee that nothing shall interfere with this good work, and it is now planned to hold the fair in the autumn time and by that time it is expected that there will be no opposition. The committee in the meantime will keep on hustling so as to keep up the interest that is manifested so far.

St. Mary's Church will discontinue celebrating High Mass on Sundays after next Sunday for the summer months.

On next Sunday at St. Mary's church the newly ordained Rev. J. J. O'Donohue will celebrate his first public mass. On the same day the Rev. James Clark and Rev. Edward Dwyer will say their first mass at the Holy Family church.

CLIFTON SPRINGS

James Green, an old resident of this village, died Thursday morning, June 9th, after a long illness, aged 57 years. Mr. Green was a native of Ireland and came to America fifty eight years ago, having all of this time resided in Clifton. He was widely known in this vicinity, and was loved and respected by all. He was a pleasant, genial man, whose presence always brought sunshine to the circle in which he moved.

There are many who will miss the pleasant smile and kindly greeting of Mr. Green. He possessed that rare gift of making friends and keeping them, and was charitable in thought and in deed, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. He was a public spirited citizen, taking much interest in public affairs, and he was a staunch democrat, having cast his first vote for that party. The funeral took place from St. Felix's church Saturday morning at 9:30. The bearers were Messrs. John Sheehan, Edward Dalton, Danie. Summers, Patrick Farley, William Tobin and Thomas Joyce. Mr. Green is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. John E. Sharpe and Mrs. M. J. Meade, both of Rochester, and one son, Thomas.

GENEVA

Among the graduates of Geneva High School are Maria Sweeney, Martha G. McCready, and Lawrence E. Tyndall. Miss Sweeney will pursue a course of study in a business school after graduation.

As a result of the March Regents' examinations, two honor certificates were issued. Both were preliminaries received by Maria A. Althoff and Margaret A. Murphy, pupils of St. Francis De Sales' parochial school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donahoe, Bernard Doran, James Toney, James R. Hanlon, Mrs. Lyndon and Miss Elizabeth Lyndon, Mrs. Daniel Kane and Miss Josephine Kane attended the ordination ceremonies in Rochester on Saturday last.

A large class of boys and girls received First Holy Communion at 7:30 o'clock mass on Sunday, June 12.

Much interest was shown among the parishioners of St. Francis De Sales church on the announcement that the church on South Main street would soon be opened with Rev. Father McPadden as pastor. Repairs will be in operation immediately. It is to be designated as St. Stephen's church.

PENN YAN

The family of Amos Bassage have the sympathy of the entire community in the loss of their dear boy, the third in nine weeks—passing away with dread consumption. Chester was a bright, promising, young man, and will be missed by his many friends. His funeral was held from St. Michael's church at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, and was very largely attended. The Sheldon Hose attended in a body, of which he was a member.

The Children of Mary are making arrangements for an Ice Cream Social to be held on the Convent grounds in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. James Townsend left for Auburn Monday night, where they will make their future home.

BATH

Village taxes are ripe. So are June weddings. Deputy County Clerk James A. Conroy was in Buffalo last week, attending the graduation of his daughter, Miss Ellen Conroy, at Mount St. Joseph's Academy. Miss Conroy achieved the rare distinction of winning two gold medals, all that were given, one of which was awarded by Right Rev. Bishop Colton.

William Fogarty, who went to New York last week to take a position with a big contracting firm, has been promoted to be superintendent in charge of the building of a new Catholic church on Long Island.

Mr. George J. O'Connor of Corning, Superintendent of Agencies for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, was in town last week, looking after his company's interests here. Mr. O'Connor is one of the best insurance men it has ever been our lot to meet, and it is a pleasure to note his success in his enlarged field since leaving Bath. The celebrated "Mac" orchestra of Corning will furnish music at Kenka Hotel this summer.

Rev. Father Griffin, Chaplain Farrell and the surgical staff of the Soldiers' Home, were entertained by Col. Frank Downing, at the Pixley Cottage, Lake Salubria, on Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Bowes spent last week in Rochester visiting friends.

Patrick Kilmurray, Co. E., New York State Soldiers' Home, has had his pension increased from ten to twelve dollars per month.

Postmaster John S. Corning was in town the other day getting a line on the coming republican county convention, which will be held here June 21st.

Miss Mary Donovan, of Campbell, has closed her school at Thurston. Her administration has given excellent satisfaction.

The bans of marriage were published for the first time, last Sunday, between John Sullivan, of New York city, and Miss Anna Beecher, a popular school teacher of this village. Also between James Beatty and Mary Convery, both of Bath. That sunshine and happiness may be their portion to the wish of their many friends, the contracting parties, Frank McGuire of Bath, and W. H. Brace of Avon, will open an hotel on the Hamlet-Edinport road near Cold Springs.

In Surrogate's Court last week, Mrs. Mary E. Hastings was appointed guardian of her son, Thomas Moran. Mary and Mattie McCracken, of West 1st st., were appointed executors of the estate of Ann Maxwell of the same place, and Nellie L. Henry was appointed administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Hennessy, of Hornellsville.

The Steuben County Agricultural Society will build a $7,000 grand stand in time for the county fair this fall. Mr. Thomas Fugarty will be the architect.

There is a beautiful muddle over the excise question in this village. Last fall the voters declared license. This spring the liquor dealers petitioned the Supreme Court for a new election on the grounds of irregularities, and Judge Davy of Rochester granted the petition. The day that the decision was filed in the county clerk's office, eleven dealers presented themselves to the county treasurer, tendered sums of money aggregating over $3,000, accompanied by bonds, and demanded license certificates. The wires between this village and the State Excise department at Albany were kept hot nearly all day. Finally the county treasurer to refuse all the applications, because the excise department had appealed from Justice Davy's decision. On Friday the notice of appeal was served on Hon. Charles McMaster, counsel for the applicants. He declined to receive it, on the ground that the department had no right to appeal, and thus the matter stands.

There were a few quiet smiles and some blushes on the faces of the congregation, Sunday morning, when the pastor, at the close of the mass, duly congratulated a large number of the congregation upon arriving in time for the last gospel.

Mr. William H. Grogan, a popular and rising young attorney, of this village, is prominently mentioned for the nomination for district attorney at the coming democratic county convention.

Mrs. Joseph Malloy of Mount Morris is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Collins of West Morris street.

John Powers, son of Thomas Powers, of East Morris street, who recently lost four fingers from one hand while coupling cars on the New York Central Railroad, is rapidly improving at Saint Mary's Hospital in Syracuse.

Rev. A. A. Hughes officiates at the County Home this month. Services are at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoons.

A class of children will receive their first communion at St. Mary's church on Sunday at 9 o'clock mass.

Miss Mary J. Biggins, of this village, will leave New York city, on Wednesday, July 6th, for a two months visit with relatives in Ireland. Her niece, Miss Winifred Curran of Avon, will accompany her. Their many friends here wish them bon voyage.

At a meeting of the parishioners of St. Mary's church held last week, it was voted to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the church, 1854-1904. A committee was appointed to solicit funds to be used in the decoration of the church.

Miss Kathryn Reagan, who is spending her vacation with her parents, expects to go to Boston, and take up a course in oratory.

Commencement exercises will be held at the Normal School on Tuesday next at 10 o'clock a. m.

The field day of the Intermediate and Primary departments of the Normal was held in the Kelsey field on Monday last. George Hahn, Jr., had his right wrist broken, and Edward Donohue his right wrist sprained, while taking parts in the jumping events.

Miss Grace Hughes of Rochester was the guest of friends here this week.

WILLARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McKittick spent last week at the home of Mrs. McKittick's mother, Mrs. Mary Ryan. Miss Mary E. Rielly, of Edgemoor Cottage, spent a few days last week with relatives in Seneca Falls and Penn Yan.

Miss Letitia Feehan, matron at the immigrant station at Ellis Island, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Feehan.

Miss Mary Gavin of the Pine Cottage, who was ill, has recovered, and has resumed her duties.

Mr. Dennis Mahoney is visiting at his home at Holcoma, N. Y.

Mr. James and Miss Sadie Ready were called to Lodi last week by the death of their grandfather, Mr. John Ready.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watts are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl at their home.

If you contemplate a trip to any part of the West, full information as to rates, service, etc., will be cheerfully furnished on application to R. E. Payne, General Agent, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.
