Last Tuesday evening, June 21st the annual commencement of St. Joseph's school was held in our school hall on Franklin St. After the entertainment given by the children Rev. Wm. Kessel presented the diplomas and medals to the graduates. The class which is one of the largest ever graduated from this school is made up of the following: Raymond Serou, Taylor Martin, Florian Pierce, Joseph Kuriz, Edward Waigel, Joseph Ernst, Frank Niederer, Frank Kiew, Wm. Brel, Charles Otto, Wm. Lohfunk, Harry Miller, Raymond Fitz Martin, Florence Schueler, Irene Mura, Margaret Heinzer, Josephine Koesteren, Teresa Young, Irene Koesteren and Eleanor Migueur.

On Thursday evening the members of this congregation tendered a reception to Father Kessel, rector of this parish. The occasion of the festivity which was a complete surprise, was the recent reappointment of Father Kessel to be rector of this church and to fittingly celebrate his namesday. The ladies auxiliary entertained those present by giving the beautiful cantata "The Wise and Foolish Virgins." They were followed by four members of the C. Y. M. A. who produced the farce "The Frightened Lodger" which greatly amused the audience. Then Father Kessel was presented with a purse. He thanked the congregation in a few words for their kindness and liberality.

Railroad Notes.

Sunday, June 26th, the New York Central offer rate of one dollar for the round trip to Niagara Falls by the way of their R. W. & O. Division. This is the route on which the scenery is so beautiful, in fact the trip ascending the mountain after passing Lewiston is one of the most fascinating in the world. When the atmosphere is clear the spires of Toronto, 40 miles away, can be plainly seen. The train moves slowly up the mountain grade in order to give the passengers an opportunity to view the grand scenery to the best advantage. The excursion train will leave State St. Station at 8:10 a. m. and from Brinker Place three minutes later. Returning train will leave Niagara Falls at 6:40 p. m. and from Suspension Bridge at 6:50 p. m. arriving in Rochester at 9:47 p. m.

In Memoriam.

Students Attention.

Pleasant and very appropriate summer work for seminarians and students is found in enlarging the subscription lists of Catholic papers. There is a good thirty or sixty days work of this kind in the vicinity of your homes or in other localities if you prefer. We make liberal terms for this work. Write us and tell us whether you have done any canvassing, or if you like to try it, where you think you can work to the best advantage. Write us fully.

Two former seminarians—now very efficient priests—who spent several of their student vacations in canvassing for The Catholic Journal tell us that it was one of the best experiences they ever had. It made them better acquainted with the people and the knowledge of parish conditions that they there acquired often serve them most usefully in their higher mission.
