COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Next week the Cook Opera House Stock Company will present Joseph Arthur's well known comedy drama, "Blue Jeans." This is one of the brightest of this author's products, and in brightness of dialogue, continuity and speed of action and in the well told and deeply interesting plot. The important scene occurs in the third act where a real saw mill is in operation, and a bus saw runs several boards in two. The thrilling rescue of the hero that has made the play famous occurs here. "Blue Jeans" will be given every evening next week, with matinees Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Souvenirs at Monday matinee.

National Theatre.

The present engagement of Miss Jessie Bonstelle, the popular Rochester actress, at the National Theatre, at the head of the stock company, has been pronounced by her admirers the most successful of any played by her in this city. Already it has been extended to more than twice the length originally planned, and yet there is no falling off in interest. The attraction selected for next week is that well known drama of English life, "Woman Against Woman." There will be matinees Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

RECITAL BY PUPILS

A large audience in Powers Hall Thursday evening listened to a recital by the pupils of Miss Elizabeth McCarthy, assisted by Miss Helen Thomas. The programme, which was an excellent one, every number being heartily applauded, was presented by Miss Estelle Schanz, Vincent Hickey, Miss Ruth Ryan, Miss Florence Jennings, Miss Edith Jennings, Homer Hughes, Miss Ellen Dalton, Miss Victoria Muscat, Miss Mary Morris and Mrs. H. Dunn. Special mention should be made of the violin solos by Miss Estelle Schanz.

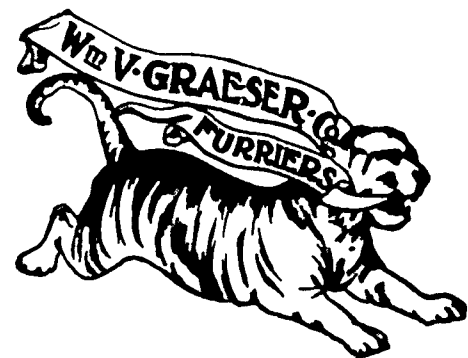

Our collectors will call on city subscribers next week. Kindly be prepared to pay them when they call.

Burke's Annual Sale of Fast Black Hosiery.

According to our mid-summer custom, we have made great preparations for our Annual Black Hosiery Sale to continue all next week. We have had no end of heart-to-heart talks with our co-operation to that end. As a result, 19,000 pairs of their Fast Black Stockings and Socks will be sold during this annual sale at less than regular prices. Other makers' surplus quantities have been secured so we can sell them for much less than value. Almost numberless lots of goods and ends from our wholesale department will go at the same time at under prices. It is apparent at a glance that this is an occasion for the enjoyment of exceptional economies. These few items are typical examples of the entire bargain list of this annual sale:
