

NEWS FROM IRELAND

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What is Being Done by the People at Home - Gossip From All the Counties of the Emerald Isle.

Ulster

ANTRIM.—Most Rev. Dr. Henry, bishop of Down and Connor, July 25, distributed the prizes won by the pupils of the convent of the Sacred Heart, Lisburn.

Cardinal Vannutelli on July 29 visited Belfast. He was welcomed by Rev. Dr. Henry, bishop of Down and Connor, a great number of the clergy, citizens and Catholic members of the corporation.

ARMAGH.—The Orange ruffians who created a disturbance in Armagh during the consecration of the Cathedral of St. Patrick, July 24, stabbed James Casey, a Catholic workman who was walking peacefully along the public street.

Cavan.—The month's mind of Peter Reynolds was celebrated in Killybegs church on July 11. A large congregation was present.

The reunion of County Cavan Total Abstinence societies was held at Cullin College on July 18. Most Rev. Dr. McGinnis having invited the members to hold their congress there this year.

Catherine street, Newry, took place July 20. Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, bishop of Drogheda, presiding.

FERMANAGH.—At a meeting of the tenantry on the Eglantine estate, Magheraboy, held July 25, the Rev. Dr. McGrath presiding.

MONAGHAN.—Edward Murray, Corkebegs, Newbliss, died July 17, aged seventy-two, deeply regretted.

The funeral of the late Patrick McGuire, Mid street, Monaghan, took place July 22, to Tydavnet cemetery, after requiem services in St. Joseph's church.

TYRONE.—Mrs. Annie Gillespie of Newtown Stewart, died July 13, deeply regretted.

The death of Thomas Bird, Keenoghs House, Fralky, occurred July 23, aged thirty-eight years.

George Woods of Donaghmelbow, Eglantine, died suddenly on July 23. He was in usual health the previous night when he died.

Rev. J. A. Finlay of the Society of Jesus delivered a lecture on "The Science of the Industrial Revolution" at the Industrial Hall, Drogheda.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Michael's church, Drogheda, on July 27, of Thomas Lawlor, son of Michael O'Halloran, lawyer, Richmond street, Drogheda.

TIPPERARY.—The death of Mrs. Matthew Moran of Sineadh, Tipperary, occurred July 25, at an advanced age.

The tenants on the Toler estate, near Sineadh, have purchased the landlord's interest thereon, terms twenty-four and one-half years.

WATERFORD.—John Congreve of Mount Congreve, near the city of Waterford, died recently.

Rev. F. C. Prendergast of Dungarvan celebrated his silver jubilee recently. He was ordained twenty-five years ago and has spent seventeen years in Dungarvan.

The great Gaelic festival Na-Na-Derse was held in Dungarvan July 24. Special trains brought large numbers of visitors from Waterford, Limerick, Clonmel, Carrick, Lismore, New Ross and other places.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, wife of P. O'Sullivan, Durmanway, had business in a barn to the rear of the premises and was standing in the open door which looks out on the river when she fell to the ground.

July 25, Margaret O'Sullivan—O'LEARY on July 25, at Clonmoye, Aghabullogue, Denis O'Leary—TYT GELLY on July 25, at Church street, Kanturk.

O'CALLAGHAN on July 14, Eugene Owen O'Callaghan, of 74 Prosperity square—LARKIN on July 15, at 27 Pope's quay, Cork.

MURPHY on July 14, at Mourne Abbey, Mullow, Annie Murphy—BYRNE on July 14, at Mourne Abbey, Mullow, Annie Murphy.

KERRY.—Patrick O'Donoghue of College street, Killarney, died July 29, causing deep and widespread regret.

At the Kilmallock sports, July 24, Michael Murphy, well known local cyclist, met with a severe accident while competing in the mile race.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Michael's church, Thomondgate, on July 27, of Thomas Lawlor, son of Michael O'Halloran, lawyer, Richmond street, Drogheda.

TIPPERARY.—The death of Mrs. Matthew Moran of Sineadh, Tipperary, occurred July 25, at an advanced age.

The tenants on the Toler estate, near Sineadh, have purchased the landlord's interest thereon, terms twenty-four and one-half years.

WATERFORD.—John Congreve of Mount Congreve, near the city of Waterford, died recently.

Rev. F. C. Prendergast of Dungarvan celebrated his silver jubilee recently. He was ordained twenty-five years ago and has spent seventeen years in Dungarvan.

The great Gaelic festival Na-Na-Derse was held in Dungarvan July 24. Special trains brought large numbers of visitors from Waterford, Limerick, Clonmel, Carrick, Lismore, New Ross and other places.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, wife of P. O'Sullivan, Durmanway, had business in a barn to the rear of the premises and was standing in the open door which looks out on the river when she fell to the ground.

DUBLIN.—Rev. Father Nicoll, superior of the Oblates, died Aug. 2 in the Convent Inchicore, Dublin, deeply regretted.

Patrick Byrne, native of Kingstown, porter on the railway in Bray, was killed at that place by an engine July 25.

Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, has appointed the Very Rev. Canon O'Donnell, D. P. P., Fairview, to be parish priest of Roosterstown.

was general and a proof that the language is really being revived.

Recent Deaths in Dublin.—CRANNY on July 27, at 17 Merrion square, Dublin, John Joseph Cranny, M. D., eldest son of the late Patrick Cranny of Muckross Park, aged fifty-nine years.

FALLON on July 27, at 80 Aughlin street, Rachel Fallon—PENN on July 28, at 41 Marlborough street, William Penn—MURPHY on July 24, at the Mater hospital, Dublin, Agnes Murphy, Stevedorer, Rathfriland, County Wicklow, in religion Sister Mary Sophia of the Convent of the Mother of Mercy, Blackrocks.

LIMERICK.—Dr. Reardon of Brufl died in Dublin July 22. The deceased a comparatively young man, was medical officer of the Brufl Dispensary district for years.

At the Kilmallock sports, July 24, Michael Murphy, well known local cyclist, met with a severe accident while competing in the mile race.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Michael's church, Thomondgate, on July 27, of Thomas Lawlor, son of Michael O'Halloran, lawyer, Richmond street, Drogheda.

TIPPERARY.—The death of Mrs. Matthew Moran of Sineadh, Tipperary, occurred July 25, at an advanced age.

The tenants on the Toler estate, near Sineadh, have purchased the landlord's interest thereon, terms twenty-four and one-half years.

WATERFORD.—John Congreve of Mount Congreve, near the city of Waterford, died recently.

Rev. F. C. Prendergast of Dungarvan celebrated his silver jubilee recently. He was ordained twenty-five years ago and has spent seventeen years in Dungarvan.

The great Gaelic festival Na-Na-Derse was held in Dungarvan July 24. Special trains brought large numbers of visitors from Waterford, Limerick, Clonmel, Carrick, Lismore, New Ross and other places.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, wife of P. O'Sullivan, Durmanway, had business in a barn to the rear of the premises and was standing in the open door which looks out on the river when she fell to the ground.

DUBLIN.—Rev. Father Nicoll, superior of the Oblates, died Aug. 2 in the Convent Inchicore, Dublin, deeply regretted.

Patrick Byrne, native of Kingstown, porter on the railway in Bray, was killed at that place by an engine July 25.

Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, has appointed the Very Rev. Canon O'Donnell, D. P. P., Fairview, to be parish priest of Roosterstown.

WEXFORD.—The marriage of Anthony Loftus Cliffe of Belleview, Wexford, and Lady Talbot Power, widow of Sir John Talbot Power, took place in London July 23.

Rev. John Corish, parish priest of Ballymore, died suddenly while saying 10 o'clock mass in his parish church on July 24.

The marriage of Michael Joseph Byrne, only son of the late Thaddeus Byrne, Castle town, to Miss Catherine Mary Redmond, daughter of Mogue Redmond, Ballywaterbeg, was performed in the chapel Star of the Sea, Liverpool, on July 25.

An accident of a serious nature occurred to James Stacey, Moneyross, near Gore, on July 21.

The anniversary of St. Moling, or In Anchtelagh from the pattern of St. Malinus, was celebrated at that his home and attractive center on July 24 under the auspices of the Gaelic League.

The anniversary of St. Moling, or In Anchtelagh from the pattern of St. Malinus, was celebrated at that his home and attractive center on July 24 under the auspices of the Gaelic League.

WICKLOW.—John O'Neill, fisherman, of Arklow, died in Jersey street hospital, Dublin, July 23.

GALWAY.—The death of John Adams, Raheribrog, took place on July 22. Mr. Adams was widely known and respected, and his unexpected demise is deeply regretted.

The sale of the estate commissioners of the estates belonging to the nuns at Loughrea has been concluded.

When the Rev. W. Murray was promoted from the administrators of Longford to be pastor of Rathlone the people of Longford decided to present him with an address and testimonial.

On July 21, at St. Patrick's cathedral, Dundalk, by the Rev. M. J. Quinn, M. A., D. D., assisted by Rev. J. Donnell, M. A., D. D., and Rev. P. Lyons, M. A., D. D., Richard Lynch, poet, wine and spirit merchant, St. Johnston, Donegal, was married to Margaret, daughter of James O'Hare, Ravensdale, County Louth.

On July 25 an accident of a very serious nature occurred at the Navan sawmills, Athlumney, near Navan on a factory.

Mrs. P. McKenna, Mullagh, wife of T. P. McKenna, chairman Cavan county council, died recently, deeply regretted.

QUEENS.—On July 24, at St. Paul's convent, Selly Park, Birmingham, England, died Margaret, in religion Sister Mary Xavier, daughter of the late Michael Moore of Killyblinn House, Queens county, in the twentieth year of her religious profession.

WESTMEATH.—Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney, bishop of Meath, has made the following appointments: Rev. Joseph Fagan, C. C., Mullingar, to be C. C., Tang; Rev. Peter Farrell, St. Finian's seminary, to be C. C., Moyalty; Rev. J. Kelly, C. C., Navan, to be C. C., Mullingar; Rev. E. Gibbons, late of Maynooth college, to be professor St. Finian's seminary.

gule, Edward Durcan, Eddie Connolly, James Connolly, P. J. Fergus, Joseph Gallagher, Killasnee branch, Patrick Mitchell, P. McManus, John Feehey, James Connolly, Patrick Rooney, Terence Rooney, Kilmoghlan branch, Bernard Connolly, Bryan Connolly, James McBride, P. Gallagher, Bartley McGowan, D. Gilroy, Killarney branch, Charles McMoran, Thomas Harte, Laurence McGowan, Andrew Teaney, John McLoughlin, M. Clancy, Killybegher branch, Denis Mc Morrow, Peter Gallagher, secretary; B. McGourty, T. Kenny, Charles Maguire, B. Rooney, John Meehan, Fr. Burke, P. McDermott; Brunkera branch, Philip Dolan, John Flynn, T. McNulty, J. Mc Morrow; Cloonlara branch, John Cullen, John McLoughlin, M. McDermott, M. Mc Morrow, Bryan McQuerry, J. Travers, was re-elected president, B. Johnston on the national directory, B. Connolly vice president, John G. Kearney treasurer and John P. McNiffe secretary.

MAYO.—Right Rev. Dr. Conry, bishop of Killala, attended the consecration of St. Patrick's cathedral, Armagh, July 24, and had a conversation with Cardinal Vannutelli.

The dead body of Timothy O'Rourke of Armagh, Ballyhamnis, was found in the river Liffey, Dublin, July 22. On July 16 he left home on the way to Scotland, and had not been heard of from that time until his remains were found in the Liffey.

The ordination of the Rev. Joseph Gibbons, Ballinrobe, took place at the cathedral of St. Nicholas, Galway city, lately. The Bishop of Galway, Most Rev. Dr. MacDonnack, officiated, assisted by the Very Rev. P. Hickey and the Rev. A. J. Connelley, Very Rev. L. Ansbu, Anaradown, and Very Rev. Father Stephens, Rockwell college, Cashel, were also present.

ROSCOMMON.—Right Rev. Dr. Clancy, bishop of Elphin, when at the consecration of St. Patrick's cathedral, Armagh, July 24, had an interesting interview with the papal legate, Cardinal Vannutelli.

The death of Mrs. L. Leetch, Miltown, Castlerea, occurred on July 23, at an advanced age, furnished by the rites of the holy Catholic church.

It has been rumored that John Fitzgibbon, Castlebar, has purchased the Ballyglass farm and intends to sell it to the estate commissioners or congested district board to apportion it among the tenants who reside near the lands.

The death of Owen Moraghan of Foxhill took place on July 11.

SLIGO.—An instructive and eloquent lecture was delivered at a special meeting of the Sligo branch of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, held recently, by the Rev. Father Conroy, Sligo, on "How O'Connell Gained Catholic Emancipation."

The death of Mrs. Bridget Fallon, St. James' Well, Geesagh, happened July 18 at the extraordinary age of ninety years.

The following resolutions were adopted by the undersigned managers of national schools of the diocese of Elphin, at the college, Sligo, on July 8. Resolved, That we consider that it is the duty of the national board to provide at once an organizer and instructor for the schoolteachers of this diocese, to enable them to carry out the programme for teaching the Irish language;

The funeral of the late Michael Frizzell, Templehouse, took place to Killybegs cemetery lately and was very numerous attended.

LEITRIM.—The annual meeting of the North Leitrim executive of the United Irish League was held in the parochial hall, Rosniver, lately.

An agreement for purchase has been arrived at between P. Metge, landlord, and the tenants of his estate, situate in Dardistown, Luncastown, near Del-

Munster

CLARE.—Thomas O'Callaghan, farmer, at Ayscough, died July 23, aged 73, at his residence, Ayscough, where he had resided for many years.

The death of a respected inhabitant of Kildare, in the person of Mrs. Mary Murray, occurred July 27.

The annual meeting of the members of the Carrobery branch of the United Irish League was held lately when the following were elected: President, Rev. M. J. O'Donnell, vice president, John Keane, deputy vice president, Dan Hannon, treasurer, P. M. Malon, secretary, Jerome O'Brien, committee, M. Lator, J. O'Brien, M. Hinchy, J. McMahon, T. Murphy, P. Greene, P. Hannon, M. Hayes, J. Ryan, P. Moraney, J. Laffin, M. Cullen, D. Sheehan and J. McMahon.

CORK.—The town of Ballinaspital was very much as it is on July 24, when an Irish open air concert was held there. The town is in the midst of a most extensive Irish speaking district and contains a little population Irish in language and character.

A deputation representing the districts of the parish of Inishcarrig waited on the Rev. E. Canon Neville on July 24 for the purpose of presenting him with a beautifully illuminated address of welcome, a splendid outside car and a set of harness.

Colonel McCarty of Carrignavar, through his agents, Messrs. Huxsey & Townsend, has sold to the tenants the Knockbroughmore portion of his estate. The terms are twenty and three-quarter years purchase all arrears forgiven, extra rights and fishing rights given over to the tenants.

Thomas Lunham died July 23 at his home, Lottamore, Cork. He was the head of the well known firm of bacon curers and butter exporters bearing his name.

Mrs. O'Sullivan, wife of P. O'Sullivan, Durmanway, had business in a barn to the rear of the premises and was standing in the open door which looks out on the river when she fell to the ground.

Recent Deaths in Cork.—KEANE—On July 20, at Clondulane, Fermanagh, Julia Keane, Bellmount, Crookstown.—LUNHAM—On July 23, at Lottamore, Thomas Lunham, aged sixty-five years.—MURPHY on July 23, at 19 Fair Hill, Denny Murphy, painter, late corset-maker, John Street Distillery.—DUNN—At Hollybank, St. Luke's, Anastasia Mary, relict of the late Patrick Francis Dunn.—MAHER on July 23, at 20 Mount Vincent Cottages, Limerick, the residue of her brother-in-law, Alice Maher, Millstreet, County Cork.—O'SULLIVAN—On July 24, at Burton-on-Trent, England, Edith Sullivan.—KIBBELY—On July 25, at Killynear, Newcestown, Matthew Kehely, aged twenty years.—O'SULLIVAN—On

Leinster

DUBLIN.—Rev. Father Nicoll, superior of the Oblates, died Aug. 2 in the Convent Inchicore, Dublin, deeply regretted.

Patrick Byrne, native of Kingstown, porter on the railway in Bray, was killed at that place by an engine July 25.

Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, archbishop of Dublin, has appointed the Very Rev. Canon O'Donnell, D. P. P., Fairview, to be parish priest of Roosterstown.

Connaught

GALWAY.—The death of John Adams, Raheribrog, took place on July 22. Mr. Adams was widely known and respected, and his unexpected demise is deeply regretted.

The sale of the estate commissioners of the estates belonging to the nuns at Loughrea has been concluded.

When the Rev. W. Murray was promoted from the administrators of Longford to be pastor of Rathlone the people of Longford decided to present him with an address and testimonial.

On July 21, at St. Patrick's cathedral, Dundalk, by the Rev. M. J. Quinn, M. A., D. D., assisted by Rev. J. Donnell, M. A., D. D., and Rev. P. Lyons, M. A., D. D., Richard Lynch, poet, wine and spirit merchant, St. Johnston, Donegal, was married to Margaret, daughter of James O'Hare, Ravensdale, County Louth.

On July 25 an accident of a very serious nature occurred at the Navan sawmills, Athlumney, near Navan on a factory.

Mrs. P. McKenna, Mullagh, wife of T. P. McKenna, chairman Cavan county council, died recently, deeply regretted.

QUEENS.—On July 24, at St. Paul's convent, Selly Park, Birmingham, England, died Margaret, in religion Sister Mary Xavier, daughter of the late Michael Moore of Killyblinn House, Queens county, in the twentieth year of her religious profession.

WESTMEATH.—Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney, bishop of Meath, has made the following appointments: Rev. Joseph Fagan, C. C., Mullingar, to be C. C., Tang; Rev. Peter Farrell, St. Finian's seminary, to be C. C., Moyalty; Rev. J. Kelly, C. C., Navan, to be C. C., Mullingar; Rev. E. Gibbons, late of Maynooth college, to be professor St. Finian's seminary.