Our school will reopen for the fall semester Monday morning, Sept. 12. It is important that all pupils should be present for the first sessions, when the grading and classification is done. Our best wishes for a successful year attend teachers and children.

On last Sunday Father O'Neil made the announcement concerning the jubilee indulgence granted this year by our Holy Father in honor of the Immaculate Conception. Special services will be held during one week of the jubilee period, at this church, giving the people an opportunity to enter more fully into the spirit of the celebration. The parishioners of the Immaculate naturally feel an added interest in this jubilee, since Mary Immaculate is the patron of our church and it is to her, undoubtedly, that we owe many of the special blessings that have always attended our priests and people in their work with church and school. It is interesting to note that our church was built and dedicated during the time of the discussion concerning the definition of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception.

During the past week three young ladies from the parish, all graduates of our school, left home to enter the religious life. On Thursday, Sept. 8, Miss May Nell of the class of 1900 and Miss Rhea Fredmore of the class of 1902, entered at Nazareth Convent. On Tuesday Miss Zita Klubertanz of the class of '09 left for Baltimore, where she intends entering the order of the Sisters of Charity. Miss Klubertanz will spend some months as a postulant first at Mt. Hope retreat later at Emmitsburg. It is the earnest prayer of their many friends at the Immaculate that success, happiness and peace may attend these young ladies in the noble life which they have chosen.

Mrs. Mary Conlon, who died in this city on Saturday last at her home on Manhattan street, was one of the best known members of St. Mary's church and in her death the parish loses a devoted daughter of the church. The deceased was born in Ireland but removed to this country when quite young. Her parents settled in Le-Roy and it was there she met and married her husband. Theirs was a happy wedded life and a large family of children were born to them. Fifteen years ago she removed to Rochester and has since lived here with her family. While Mrs. Conlon was a great sufferer during the last few years of her life she bore her afflictions with Christian fortitude and when she passed away she was well fortified by the rites of the church. Her death was peaceful—a falling off to sleep. The funeral took place Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock. A solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Gleason assisted by Rev. Father Rawlinson, deacon, and Rev. Father Conway, subdeacon. The remains were taken to the family burying ground in Le-Roy for interment. Her surviving children, Nellie M., Elizabeth F., Anna L. Conlon and Mrs. M. Cole have the sympathy of many acquaintances who manifested their friendship by many and beautiful floral tributes.
