THIS is the day of the natural waisted woman. The W. B. Erect Form has changed the American figure. It has supplanted discomfort with ease—it has banished the impossible and exaggerated figure produced by the old corset idea. It removes the strain of lacing from the sensitive parts of the body and it allows all pressure upon the bust and the strong back muscles, supporting the stomach within the corset and not forcing it below the garment. The Erect Form is made in more models than ever before. There are forty distinct styles of this popular make, each meant for a distinct type of woman. Dealers mail sized towns and cities and send over the Erect Form. Prices range upward from $1.

THE Ingersoll GUARANTEE

Have you ever seen a watch guarantee? You hear much of watches being guaranteed, but how do you find a watch that is guaranteed to be accurate and to give you the best service for the longest time?

Here is one plain as to me, for a hand liberal and signed by a recognized authority. It is a circular and only guarantee (except for some very recent makers).

Only 100,000 Ingersolls have gone out with this guarantee in the past and every one returned to us has been made good. $1.00, $1.50, $1.75.

Be sure and get "Ingersoll" on the Dial.
Sold by 50,000 Dealers everywhere.

WOMEN WHO WASTE TIME.

A Time and Place for Everything is Needed.
Much friction between women is caused by their utter disregard of the value of time. Professional women everywhere complain of the inconsiderate friends who drop in "just for a minute," and stay hours, which time must be made up by redoubled exertions or she must run the risk of giving lasting offense by telling the caller frankly that the call is inopportune and asking to be excused. Women so quick to grasp a point in all else never seem to understand this particular subject as men do. This is due, in a measure, to lack of business training, and yet consideration for others is one of the most charming qualities of the well-bred woman, and one which may be cultivated by every one.

The housekeeper deserves the greatest amount of sympathy, for she is at the mercy of every thoughtless person of her acquaintance, unless she has the courage to take a firm stand and insist upon her rights, as an individual, to her own time and pleasure in receiving her friends. Those who offend most frequently are the women who have no special occupation or aim in life except to have a good time. Those who have accomplished anything have long since discovered that life must be conducted in an orderly manner, if the tasks of the day are to be completed. The woman who has a time and place for everything may be a terror to the friends who do not, but to the trained worker, whether at home or abroad, she is a joy, for she values the passing hours; consequently will not waste those of other people.

Dressy Gown of Striped Silk.
The above gown is made from brown and white striped silk, and a new idea in shirring is introduced on bodice and sleeves. The stock and small yoke are formed of white gold embroidered silk and outlined with brown velvet ribbon. The deep girle is brown panne velvet.

With this striking costume is worn a turban of white roses with a large bow of brown velvet ribbon on the left side.

Suggestions for the Housewife.
A good polish for stoves is made of one teaspoonful of powdered alum mixed with the stove polish. The brilliance that this polish will give to a stove will last for a long time.

To test the heat of frying fat put in a piece of bread, and if it browns while you count forty, it is right for food prepared from cooked meat or fish, such as croquettes. Use plenty fat, and always strain it before putting it away.

When boiling cabbage take a large saucepan and nearly fill it. When the water boils fast throw in a handful of salt and a piece of soda the size of a pea. Throw in the cabbage and let the water boil fast till the cabbage is soft, keeping the lid off and constantly putting the cabbage under the water. Cabbage cooked fast in this way does not smell offensive and is a good color.

The fashionable flower for table decoration is the camellia. The pure white flower is the most beautiful, and nesting in its dark green leaves makes a picture of purity and coolness. The scarlet and white and faintly tinted camellias are very beautiful also. One of the advantages of this flower for table use is the absence of fragrance. Another is that it lies flat on the table and does not obscure the view across.

Washing Mattings.
Clean the straw matting with warm water in which oxalic acid has been dissolved, applying it with a scrubbing brush; then rinse carefully with clean water, using a soft old cloth, and wipe dry. Clean but a small space at a time.

Souvenirs of the King.
King Edward recently left some cherry stones on his plate at a public function. The moment he left a crowd of American ladies scrambled for them, with the object, it is said, of handing them down to their descendants as family heirlooms.

A Changing Fashion.
After long centuries the fashion in ladies' riding skirts is changing. The old form of side-saddle skirt is giving way to the new style of ride-astirde skirt. Orders are coming in for divided skirts in increasing numbers.

FORTUNES ON FINGER TIPS.

Thousands of Dollars Spent on the Purchase of Thumbles.
The costliest thimble in the world is undoubtedly one possessed by the Queen of Siam. It was presented to her by her husband, the king, who had it made at a cost of rather more than $75,000. This thimble is quite an exquisite work of art. It is made of pure gold, in the fashion or shape of a half opened lotus flower, the floral emblem of the royal house of Siam.

It is thickly studded with the most beautiful diamonds and other precious stones, which are so arranged as to form the name of the queen, together with the date of her marriage. She regards this thimble as one of her most precious possessions.

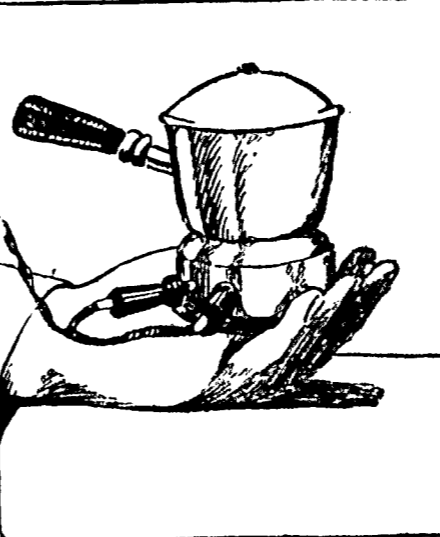

The late Shah of Persia presented a thimble to a lady whose guest he was for a few hours. In the words of the delighted recipient, it looked like a cluster of glittering gems, which in reality it was, save for the gold in which they were set. An expert in precious stones valued this thimble at $7,500.—London Answers.

The Japanese Girl.
The life of a Japanese girl, in spite of the self-subordination that is demanded of her, is full of delicate interests. It is true, she does not get any of the uproarious fun that the English young ladies delight in. It is very doubtful whether she would enjoy boisterous merrymaking if she could get it. But she has pleasures of her own, and she asks for no more. She is often a poet, and nearly always takes a keen delight in the poetry of others. English girls have been known to declare that they "can't poetry." A Japanese girl adores it, and this is all the more curious as until quite recently there was no real love poetry in Japanese literature.

To Freshen the Atmosphere.
A few drops of old lavender in a silver bowl or ornamental dish of some kind, half filled with very hot water and set in the dining room just before dinner is served, gives a delightful and intangible freshness to the atmosphere of the apartment. Hostesses often put a small vessel in the parlor and dressing rooms when arranging the house for a festivity. The suggestion is especially valuable to the hostess in a small apartment, which sometimes, in the bustle of preparation, becomes stuffy.—Chicago News.

The Modern Wizard.
The up-to-date housewife deals with no ordinary fire, but the flameless and wireless heat of electricity do her bidding by the merest wave of her hand. The illustration shows how she cooks a sauce while holding stove, pan and all in her dainty hand without the slightest inconvenience.

In many residences in New York there are complete electric cooking equipments where matches, gas, wood and coal are unknown, and it is only necessary to press a button or turn a switch in order to have instantly a hot, clean and invisible fireless heat.

Veranda Chairs.
The freshening process of your veranda chairs is not so hard if you go at it in the right way. Into a large tub empty several gallons of hot water, in which is turned a solution of a teaspoon of potash with water. Set the chair in the tub, give it a thorough scrubbing, and after rinsing in clean water set it in the sun to dry. When dry it is ready for paint. Any color can be used. Cherry red stands well. But the color of the porch furniture may be made to harmonize with the porch rugs and porch cushions, keeping a harmony of colors.

Amethysts Much Worn.
The amethyst is a very beautiful stone in itself, like the opal, but because of its small value has been hitherto neglected. Now, however, the fashion of wearing stones beautifully set and mounted artistically is driving out the mere display of expensive jewelry and bringing ornaments within the reach of narrow purses. The peridot, the topaz, the amethyst and the turquoise are all decorative, and in the hands of a clever jeweler can be made effective and pretty.

Mme. Melba's Birthday.
Mme. Melba celebrated her 40th birthday quite recently and bravely accepted congratulations and some superb presents in token of the anniversary. She says it is no use trying to conceal her age, since her father has always given it away, and she means to add a few more years to the number before she makes believe she's "young." A rather neat way of putting off the hateful inevitable.—Boston Herald.

BRUSH YOUR HAIR.

It Will Keep the Scalp in Good Condition.
The hair should be brushed regularly to keep it from falling out and to keep the scalp in good condition. The hair itself is easily cleansed with a good toilet water, but the scalp itself is too often neglected. A man generally has a pair of brushes, or at least one good one, but women's brushes are apt to be very beautiful but soft and of little use. It is all very well to have a fancy brush on the dressing table, but in a drawer out of sight keep a plain one for general utility, with good stiff bristles. A fine hairbrush really should never be put in water, as it loosens the bristles. When traveling the hair gets dusty and soon soils the brushes, which should be well looked after. Dip the bristles in alcohol, ammonia, or bathing whisky, shake dry and leave in the open air. Water sometimes cleans shell or rubber comb, but it is just as apt to spoil them. It is better to use an old brush to clean the teeth, or to pass a ribbon or piece of twine between them. The best for this purpose, however, is a piece of blotting paper. After this treatment polish the comb with a piece of flannel or chamolis skin.

Black and white check traveling suit, with inserted bands of black chiffon.—La Nouvelle Mode.

The Princess of Wales.
One of the favorite colors of the Princess of Wales is a delicate mauve, which she wears very often, both for daytime and evening functions. The princess is celebrated among the Austrians both for her taste in dress and for her dancing. This is quite a compliment to the English princesses, as the Austrians themselves are renowned for their superiority in both these lines. Her royal highness wore recently a ball gown which created quite a sensation. It was of a pale lilac liberty gauze, elaborately decorated with rare lace and flowers.

Vaccination Before Marriage.
In Norway and Sweden before a couple can be legally married they must be vaccinated, and accordingly before the nuptial rites are performed it is the duty of the minister to inspect the vaccination certificates of both bride and bridegroom. Vaccination and love-making are closely connected in Brazil. There parents and guardians, before giving their consent to the marriage of their charges, demand a certificate from a medical man, testifying that the would-be bride and bridegroom has been vaccinated.

The Home Doctor.
Palpitation of the heart may be arrested by bending down so as to allow the blood to run to the head.

It is said that a muskrat skin worn the fur side next to the lungs will bring certain relief to asthma sufferers.

Poultices of hot baked onions will not only relieve earache, but will sometimes cure the deafness that results from earache and hard colds.

Blisters which form after burns or scalds should be pricked immediately the water squeezed out and pressed down gently with cotton wool.

The skin of a boiled egg is the most efficacious remedy that can be applied to a boil. Peel it carefully, wet and apply to the part affected. It will draw off the matter and relieve the soreness in a few hours.

For a Smoky Fire.
A little salt sprinkled on a smoky fire will clear it. The same method on a fire prepared for broiling will give the blue flame so much desired.

To Keep Away Insects.
Sponging woodwork with water in which a generous quantity of alum has been boiled is said to be an excellent method of keeping away obnoxious insects.

Care of Knives and Forks.
Knives and forks not in general use will keep bright and rust free if lightly rubbed with olive oil before they are put away.

More than 10,000 Japanese women have already volunteered to go to the front to act as nurses.

Gentle, thorough hair-brushing should be indulged in twice a day.

Don't bathe when very tired.
