BURKE, FITZ SIMONS, HONE & CO.

Many New Designs Brought Forth In Carpets and Rugs

A rule here at "Burke's" is to sell only goods that we can conscientiously and fully recommend. Strict observance of this rule has been especially instrumental in building up the reputation and increasing the output of our Carpet Department. The many lines of Carpets and Rugs we handle are makes of demonstrated, and undoubted merit. It is well to stop and think of the economy and long lasting satisfaction effected through buying such qualities. Then, too, our fall assortments reflect the best accomplishments of many different designers, making it an easy matter to secure colorings and patterns wholly unlike any shown before.

Ingrain Carpets—all-wool qualities from the acknowledged best makers—almost numberless patterns—50c to 75c a yard.

Tapestry Carpets—designs especially adaptable for parlors, libraries, halls and stairs—50c to 90c a yard.

Body Brussels Carpets—the standard make for satisfactory all-over-the-house service—floral and conventional designs in shades of green, olive, brown and blue—$1 to $1.35 a yard.

Minister Carpets—including mottled grounds with floral borders—two-toned effects in olives, greens, etc.—especially worthy for parlors and reception rooms—$1 to $1.60 a yard.

Wilton Carpets—plain and mottled grounds in red, blue, olive and green shades—some with borders and stairs carpets to match—rich and fascinating effects—$2 to $2.75 a yard.

Rugs—in all sizes, from small mats to large carpet measurements—all kinds that are good—at right prices.
