NEWS FROM IRELAND

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What Is Being Done by the People at Home — Gossip From All the Counties of the Emerald Isle.

Ulster

ANTRIM.—Miss Ellen Connolly, sister of Bernard Connolly 42 Hillview street, Belfast, died Sept. 26, deeply regretted.

Belfast witnessed on Oct. 1 the first convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians ever held in Ireland As regards the foundation of the order accounts differ However, it may be assumed that the formation in 1565 of the Defenders by Rory Og O'More was the initiation of the Hibernians On Oct. 1 over 500 delegates, representing 50,000 members in Ireland England and Scotland, assembled in the Avenue hall, Garfield street, Belfast The rules of the order preclude the publication of a report of the proceedings The question of registration occupied the attention of the meeting, and the matter was postponed till next convention One of the principal speakers at the convention was A Madden, No 1 division, Dublin It was on his motion that the question of registration was postponed J Devlin, M P, as a Hibernian, addressed the gathering and was well received The next convention will be held in Dublin In the evening the various delegates remaining in Belfast were entertained to a conversazione in the National club, Berry street, by the local divisions

ARMAGH.—A great demonstration of Nationalists was held in Lurgan Oct 2. At 2 o'clock a procession was formed in Edward street and when the crowd had passed the borough boundary the bands struck up national airs The route was through the Long Plains and Silverwoods and all along the line of march enthusiastic crowds assembled Joseph Devlin M P, drove in a wagonette accompanied by prominent clergymen and local Nationalists, and he was vigorously cheered The meeting was addressed from a brake in an open plain situate in the heart of a beautiful country The speakers were cheered vigorously Father McCartan of Derrynoosh presided Resolutions covering all questions of national importance were adopted Mr Devlin delivered an address full of convincing argument and was supported by Richard McGahey M P, John J Donovan, John Taggart V Scullion, Matthew Keating, London Andrew Donnelly and Father Brook O'Hare There were present Rev John McCartan, Newtownhamilton, Rev D McAllister Lurgan, Rev G McGarvey Lurgan, Rev M McGlory Magheralin Rev P Fegan Seagoe, Rev F J O'Hare Derrynoosh, Andrew Donnelly Lurgan, Mr. Burke Lurgan, P J McAllinden, Lurgan, Andrew Donnelly, Lurgan and others

CAVAN.—Thomas O'Reilly of Rassan, Ballyconnell, died on Oct 5 deeply regretted

DERRY.—Died, Oct 5, at 2 Derryview terrace, Waterside Derry Samuel Forrest station officer, coastguard, Oct 6 Columba Dolan, Waterside, Derry Neal Carlin, aged one year Oct 6 at 220 Mount street Belfast, Cecilia Maria McGowan, 608 Dumbarton road

DONEGAL.—Rev. Bernard Kelly, C. C., Buncrana, has been appointed curate in Newtowncunningham Father Kelly is an ardent Irish Irelander and enthusiastic Gaelic student He takes deep interest in the Gaelic league which he will carry to his new parish Right Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, bishop of Raphoe, has made the following changes Rev John McNulty, C C Ballyshannon, to be C C Killaghtee, Rev. P. A. Dunleavy, C C Killaghtee, to be C. C. Ballyshannon, Rev Joseph F. Rodgers, C C Kilcar, to be C C Ballyshannon; Rev Bernard Kelly, C C Ballyshannon, to be C C Newtowncunningham, Rev Alphonsus C Ward, C C, Newtowncunningham, to be administrator Carrick, Rev James McShane, administrator Carrick, to be C C Glenties; Rev P J Brennan, C C Lower Rosses, to be C C Ballintra, Rev Daniel E. Coyle, C C Ballintra, to be C C Lower Rosses, Rev. James Burns, C C Glencolumbkille, to be C C Glenfin; Rev Arthur Friel lately ordained to be C C Glencolumbkille; Rev. Michael McHugh, St. Peter's, Patrick, Glasgow, to be C C Churchhill; Rev. Hugh O'Boyle lately ordained to be C C Gortahork.

Rev. J. Murray of Gortahork left recently for New York He sailed from Moville in the steamship Columbia.

DOWN.—Master M. J. McKeon, son of Mrs. McKeon, Newry, and nephew of John Cawley, Ballymote, educated at the Christian schools, Newry, won a valuable prize in the preparatory grade of the intermediate education examinations.

Thomas Carey, solicitor, of Newry died lately at his residence, St. Leonard's, Warrenpoint, aged ninety years.

An interesting function took place at Ballycruttle, near Downpatrick, recently, when John Breen, principal teacher of the national school, was made the recipient of an address and purse of sovereigns on his leaving to take up the principalship of Tullyree national school.

FERMANAGH. — Rev. Patrick McKenna, formerly president of the Lough Erne branch of the Gaelic league, spent a few holidays in Enniskillen lately. Father McKenna is a candidate for the chair of theology in Maynooth, vacant by the appointment of Dr. Mannix as president of the college.

The revision of the voters' lists for the polling districts of Kesh and Lack has been c[illegible] The Sessions were rep[illegible] Magauran solicitor, [illegible] as instructed by James McGuigan assisted by P McCabe, J. Gallagher J Maguire and others, and the claimants by C F Falls, solicitor [illegible] sisted by J Crozier, G Walmsley and others During the proceedings Rev Father McNulty was in court. The result of a keenly contested struggle terminated satisfactorily to the Nationalists, who have scored a gain of six votes, which makes a National gain during four years of fifty-nine parliamentary votes in Kesh and Lack polling districts. This gratifying result is mainly due to the energy of the Ederney Nationalist Registration association and especially to Rev T McNulty.

On Sept. 29 the marriage of John McAnespy, auctioneer, Kilskeery, and Miss Alice Kelly, daughter of the late James Kelly, Drumsonnis House, took place at Kilskeery church The ceremony was performed by the Rev P McGinty, Kilskeery, assisted by the Rev. J Tierney, Enniskillen

MONAGHAN.—An inquest was held recently in Carrickmacross by Thomas Dignam, coroner for South Monaghan regarding the circumstances of the death of a respectable farmer and dealer named James Martin, Mullaghroghery. A verdict of death through heart failure was returned

TYRONE. — The death took place lately of John McCartney the eldest of seven sons of Patrick McCartney caretaker Omagh convent grounds

At the meeting of the County Tyrone agricultural committee the sub-committee appointed to deal with the Rex scheme reported that the total amount allocated for it was £1040 Five prizes would be offered to switch mill owners, switchers and other employees in flax mills in each district For the purposes of the scheme the county would be divided into a northern and southern portion Surprise visits would be arranged for each week J W Stewart of Coleraine would be judge The scheme was adopted with the addition of a rider recommending the Judge to issue certificates to the successful ladies The Department of Agriculture approved

Munster

CLARE —Mr. Foley, postmaster of Sixmilebridge, died Sept 28 deeply regretted

Mrs. Hayes of Cloncolman died Sept. 27, aged [illegible] years

CORK —Oct 2 being the Feast of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary under whose special patronage the Forces of Malachi was placed by Pope Leo XIII the patron day of the parish was befittingly celebrated on the occasion of the new Church of the Holy Rosary The ceremonies were impressive and devotional Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Rev C S O'Connor Midleton with Rev Francis Murphy Midleton deacon Rev C Cotter Holy Mildleton sub-deacon and the Very Rev Archdeacon Harris D D Midleton as master of ceremonies

The numerous friends of Michael Dowdy Youghal and Midleton and of Miss Dowdy Worcester, Miss [illegible] Midleton town [illegible] were pained to learn of their [illegible] Dowdy was [illegible] Youghal 2 weeks [illegible] Worcester [illegible] Midleton [illegible] Gaelic athletic [illegible] sport Dog

A Gaelic aeridheacht was held lately in Glenville [illegible] Speeches were delivered by Messrs Murphy Lane and Cahill Sports were held and were followed by a ceilidhe and dance The proceeds were devoted to the Gaelic league

Michael Sugrue of West New street, Cahirciveen, died Sept 24

LIMERICK - The Limerick Leader in issue of Oct 7 contains an account of the progress made by the Gaelic league in the county which was as follows It is satisfactory to note the wonderful progress the Gaelic league is making in County Limerick Branches are being started in the towns and villages, and there is every indication that the language, which had well nigh vanished until the revival movement was started, will be generally spoken in the county in a few years"

The quarterly meeting of the Newcastle West Coisde Ceanntair of the Gaelic league was held Oct 2 at the Courtenay schools, Newcastle West. Right Rev Mgr Hallinan D D, presided Present Rev J Reeves treasurer; M Nunan, vice president, R. Foley, secretary, and the following delegates. Ardagh Rev. Father Hallinan, Rev. Father O'Connor, Messrs. O'Connell, Drew and Doody. Broadford Mr Jones. Castlemahon Rev. Father Liston, Messrs Normille and O'Connor. Drumcollogher Rev. Father O'Shea. Newcastle West Miss Dore, Messrs Corbett, Harnett, McDonnell, Musgrave, O'Shea and Phelan

The foundation stone of the new parochial church at Murroe was laid on Oct. 2 by the archbishop of Cashel and Emly, Most Rev. Dr. Fennelly. The building will be of the Romanesque style, commodious and architecturally elegant. The site and use of quarries were given by Sir Charles Barrington, Bart. The cost of the new edifice will be $35,000.

TIPPERARY.—Miss Kathleen Cooney, Ballyveelish, died Oct. 6, deeply regretted.

William G. Mulcahy, Ballyglass House, Tipperary, has been sworn in a justice of the peace for the county of Tipperary.

On Oct. 2 a farmer named John Dwyer, residing at Ballygurtin, three miles from Bansha, at the Kilmoyler side, when returning from a funeral, fell from a side car and was killed.

WATERFORD.—The annual meeting of the Waterford branch of the Gaelic league was held at the courthouse, Waterford city, on Oct. 6. The outgoing president, Rev. T. F. Furlong, administrator, presided. Rev. Dr. Hennebry delivered an address. Father Furlong was re-elected president. Rev Dr Henebry and W C Foley N T, Ferrybank, vice presidents; Mr Sheehan honorable secretary, and Mr Ward honorable treasurer. Great regret was expressed at the announcement of the reverend president that the late efficient secretary, John Bonfield, had had to resign that position, owing to his being transferred from Waterford

An open air Gaelic entertainment was held at Kill on Oct 2 Irish singers dancers and musicians came from Dungarvan, Waterford, Kilmacthomas and some local artists also gave items A splendid platform was erected in a field given by Mr Morrissey, M Flynn, Dungarvan and W Meehan, along with Mr Power vice presidgnt of the local branch and Mr Cunnane took charge of the gate The rosary was recited in Irish in the chapel close by by the Rev J O'Donnell, and the volume of responses that went up from the congregation gladdened the hearts of all All then removed to the field in which the platform had been erected There were 700 people present.

Leinster

CARLOW.—Mrs. Mary Ellen Slater of the north Carlow died Oct 2 deeply and widely regretted The funeral was numerously attended

On Oct. 4, while out driving, Very Rev Mgr Burke Barnadstown was thrown from his trap through the pony being startled by a train. He sustained serious wounds

DUBLIN.—One of the best known and most extensive farmers in County Dublin John Mooney of Palmerstown passed away Oct 6

The death of the Very Rev. Father Davis O C D prior of the Carmelite convent, Whitefriar street, Dublin occurred Oct 4 Father Davis had been in indifferent health, though he continued to perform his duties Father Davis passed peacefully to his reward surrounded by the community who carried out with impressive solemnity the Carmelite ceremonial

On Oct 1 the remains of William Healy late of the Times department Dublin castle were interred in Glasnevin

The thirteenth anniversary of the death of M Parnell was observed on Oct 9 Floral Specimens [illegible] from various parts of the country brought to Dublin The streets were [illegible] to the cross [illegible] west side [illegible] Parnell [illegible] Patrick's [illegible] Sackville street Rutland square Cavendish row O'Connell street [illegible] Parnell [illegible] Dublin [illegible] Parnell [illegible] Dublin [illegible] Parnell [illegible] Dublin