NEWS FROM IRELAND

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What Is Being Done by the People at Home — Gossip From All the Counties of the Emerald Isle.

Ulster

ANTRIM.—Robert Burns, formerly organist of St. Joseph's church, Belfast, died Oct. 11 at 29 Arnica street, after a long period of sickness, deeply and widely mourned.

On Oct. 6 Dr. Mussen, coroner, held an inquest in the courthouse, Lisburn, on the body of William McKeown, Belfast, blacksmith, found in the canal at Quay street dock. The jury found that death came by accident.

ARMAGH.—An inquest was held Oct 7 on Mary Hearty, wife of a blind man named Michael Hearty, Cregagunliff, near Crossmaglenn, whose dead body was found in bed in her husband's house night before with a fearful gash in the head. The evidence showed that Hearty was heard to say "She's done for now." A verdict in accordance with the evidence was found. The husband is under arrest.

The most important cases at the Armagh revision sessions were those in which Michael Carragy, C. M., president, Rev. Thomas Gavan, C. M., Rev. James Downey, C. M., and Rev. John O'Connell, C. M., were objected to as inhabitant householders in St. Patrick's college, Armagh, and Rev. Michael Quinn, administrator, Rev. Peter Sheerin, Rev. Joseph Dunne and Rev. J. W. Brady were objected to as inhabitant householders at 32 Abbey street, Armagh. After a long hearing the names of both the secular and regular clergymen were struck off the list by the revising barrister, P. D. Fleming, who consented on the application of counsel for the Nationalists to state a case.

CAVAN.—As Henry Jordan, creamery manager, Violet Hill, Drumcree, was driving to Coothill his horse jumped over the embankment into a field a fall of fifteen feet. The car was smashed. Mr. Jordan had miraculous escape. The horse was injured.

Andrew Sullivan, Denbawn, Carrickaboy, and Hugh O'Reilly, Drumgole, Belturbet, have won the Ardee Urban scholarships in Montgomery Agricultural college.

Robert Graham, son of James Graham, owner of the Scotch Hall, Killenaule, was accidentally killed at the mill on Oct. 10. He was caught in the machinery.

DONEGAL.—The sessions for revising the lists for parliamentary votes have been held at Dunfanaghy, Milford, Newtowncunningham, Glenties, Donegal, Ballyshannon, Stranorlar and Letterkenny. The result of the sessions, which commenced at Stranorlar on Sept. 12 and ended at Newtowncunningham on Oct. 1, is a gain of 294 votes on the register. The registrar, Justice Shiel, sat with the local gentry and solicitors.

On Oct. 11 a great demonstration under the auspices of the Donegal Industrial league took place at Letterkenny. Bands headed the Derry Ballymacool, Blanket Factory, Letterkenny, Milford and other places in Donegal, the latter contingent being met at Newtowncunningham with a band and escort. The ranks were swelled at Kilmacrennan, Churchill and Gweedore, and after the Derry and Letterkenny contingents joined at Portsalon, Scott, MacNeill, M. P., Joseph Devlin, M. P., and T. J. Donegan, Belfast, proceeded to Carrowkeel, many large assemblages, and all proceeded to mass, which was celebrated by Rev. J. Maguire. The meeting was held in the Market square, there being an enormous concourse present. On the motion of Mr. Gallagher, Moville, seconded by Mr. McLaughlin, the chair was taken by Rev. James Maguire. Patriotic addresses were delivered by Swift MacNeill and Joseph Devlin, members of parliament, Rev. James Maguire, Clonmany, and others.

DOWN.—A meeting of the Annaclone branch of the Gaelic league was held lately, Father Greenan presiding. The business was the presentation of a farewell address to Hugh Graham, N. T., the teacher of the class, on his leaving for Ballynahinch.

On Oct. 5 the remains of Thomas Carey, solicitor, Newry, were removed for interment in the old chapel burying ground, Newry. The funeral was large and representative. The colleagues of the deceased walked in processional order, as did the members of the urban council, for whom deceased was legal adviser during thirty years.

FERMANAGH.—At the last meeting of the bishops in Maynooth college Rev. Patrick McKenna, formerly president of the Lough Erne branch of the Gaelic league, Enniskillen, was appointed to the chair of theology in Maynooth, made vacant by the appointment of Dr. Mannix as president of the college.

Irvine Brown, a guard on the Sligo, Leitrim and Northern Counties railway, was killed on Oct. 10 at Enniskillen station while shunting.

Father McMahon's concert at Arney lately was a great success. The schoolroom was crowded. The spirited traditional singing of J. Owens, a stalwart Gael, was admired. Many of the songs were Irish in sentiment, like J. Maguire's singing of "A Nation Once Again." The two boys, J. Cleary and T. Murphy, who danced the Irish reel acquitted themselves in fine style. "God Save Ireland" brought the concert to a close.

Most Rev. Dr. Owens, bishop of Clogher, on Oct. 6, after celebrating mass in the Convent of Mercy, Enniskillen, proceeded to bless and place in position the foundation stone of the new chapel in connection with the convent. Wearing cope and miter and carrying his pastoral staff, he stood where the altar will be and in front of a cross erected read the prayers and blessings prescribed. The priests attending were the venerable the archdeacon of Clogher, Rev. J. E. McKenna, Rev. J. Tierney and E. J. Quigley.

MONAGHAN.—John McCann, aged twenty two years, watchman at the railway station at Clones, was killed there accidentally by a train on Oct. 6.

TYRONE. — Owing to the violent storm on Oct. 5 in Omagh the scaffolding of a house in Canowenna was loosened. John McPolland and James O'Kane mounted it on the following morning, when it collapsed. They fell to the ground a distance of twelve feet and were buried in the debris. McPolland was badly cut about the head and legs, while O'Kane had ribs broken and his legs injured.

At the annual meeting of the Registration association held in the Parochial hall, Omagh, Rev. D. [illegible] C.C., presiding, it was reported that as a result of three years' steady work in the revision courts the majority which the Unionists possessed for the county council division of Omagh had disappeared and a third of the Nationalists have a substantial majority. A resolution was adopted thanking J. J. O'Connor, solicitor, Omagh, for his services rendered the Nationalists in the revision courts during the past three years, which were given free of charge. Votes of thanks were also passed to George Moss, J. P., and McLaughlin, for services rendered.

Rev. Michael Hughes of Beragh died [illegible] a brief [illegible].

Munster

CLARE. — Right Rev. Dr. Fogarty, bishop of Killaloe, has been elected chairman of the Clare Agricultural and Technical committee.

The Manchester martyrs memorial in Kilrush, [illegible] was unveiled [illegible] Sept. 25 at 3 o'clock. [illegible] presided over a large gathering. [illegible] Mr. Bennett, Kilrush, [illegible] Mr. Hegarty, Kilrush, [illegible] Henry Street, [illegible] to be set on a pedestal [illegible] have been [illegible] Brackin.

At a recent meeting of the Mallow [illegible]

On Oct. 5 at [illegible]

[illegible] Oct. 11 [illegible] Mary [illegible] Wilson [illegible] Oct. 11 [illegible] Sept. [illegible] Oct. 11 [illegible] Sept. [illegible] Oct. 11 [illegible] Sept.