THE HOLY SACRIFICE

VISIBLE RITES EMPLOYED IN AND ABOUT THE MASS.

Significance of the Altar and its Ornaments and Vessels and of the Garments With Which the Priest is Invested During the Ceremony.

All the visible rites employed in and about the sacrifice of the Mass tend to instruction and to the commemoration of the death and passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, in compliance with His own command, "Do this in remembrance of Me" (1 Cor. xi, 24). That is, do this in memory of My passion. This is plainly to be observed in the altar and its ornaments, as likewise in the garments with which the priest is invested. viz.

The altar signifies Mount Calvary, whereon Jesus Christ, the only Son of God and second person of the most blessed Trinity, our Redeemer, was crucified upon a reproachful cross, which must necessarily be offered to God in that Church where His true faith is professed, and therefore this name of altar is mentioned by St. Paul in Heb. xiii, 10, "We have an altar whereof they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle;" and 1 Cor. ix, 13, as it is likewise in Matt. v, 21, all of which is sufficient warrant for us to use the name of altar, which also represents the table whereon our Saviour did celebrate His last supper with His disciples the night before He suffered.

The corporal and linen vessels used upon the altar, such as the chalice, paten, and ciborium, are also mentioned in the Bible. The chalice is mentioned in Matt. xxvi, 26, "This chalice is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you and for many;" and the paten is mentioned in Luke xxiv, 13, "This is My body which is given for you."

The vestments worn by the priest, such as the alb, surplice, and cassock, are also mentioned in the Bible. The alb is mentioned in Matt. xxiii, 5, "Ye make yourselves white with the powder of white chalk;" and the surplice is mentioned in Luke xvi, 17, "The Pharisees and the Jews were not clean within, but without they were clean, as the outside of the tin and of the earthen vessels."

The golden vessels used in the Mass, such as the chalice, paten, and ciborium, are also mentioned in the Bible. The chalice is mentioned in Matt. xxvi, 26, "This chalice is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you and for many;" and the paten is mentioned in Luke xxiv, 13, "This is My body which is given for you."
