PARISH CHURCH

The Player's Club, a dramatic organization of which Mr. Dave Clark is manager, will present a new three act farce entitled "All A Mistake" Tuesday evening, March 7th, at the French Hall. The play will be produced under the direction of Miss Kathryn Burns, the following members being in the cast: Frederick Reihobert, Angelo Newman, Fred Henrious, Dave Clark, Eloise Maier, Mae Magill, Luella Zoller and Dit Rice. Miss Alphonine LeMay will render some vocal selections also Master John Lynch, a sweet voiced boy soprano, formerly soloist of a surplised boy choir in Buffalo. The farce is said to be very funny and laughable from start to finish, no doubt entertaining all those who attend in a pleasing manner. Recently two new heating boilers were placed in the church and it is to help defray this expense that the play is given. Tickets may be obtained at the rectory.

Two lectures were given on the Congo last Monday evening. The one delivered by Prof. Nerinx was an intelligent, comprehensive and impassioned exposition of the work done by King Leopold in Dark Africa. The lecture given by Professor Raymond stands in painful contrast with the masterly discourses of Professor Nerinx and was simply a reiteration of his former lecture.

The funeral of Mrs. Francis Nersinger took place last Monday morning at 10 o'clock. She leaves a host of friends who mourn her loss.

The Japanese Tea given by the Ladies Auxiliary on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week may well be called a howling success. Large sized crowds thronged the hall on each of the three evenings. On entering the hall it seemed as if by magic one had been transferred from this land of slush and three degrees below zero temperatures, to fair Nippon the land of cherry blossoms and sunshine. The decorations were most beautiful. Everything possible had been done to afford all a pleasant time, and judging from the expressions of approval heard, all did have a good time.

Cathedral Alumni

The Cathedral School Association held its seventh annual banquet and reunion at Colonial hall Wednesday night. The affair was attended by over 400 former pupils of the Cathedral School and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The hall was elaborately decorated. Bishop McQuaid, who is in the South, sent a message of good will to the gathering and they responded by telegraphing their greetings to him James L. Whalen acted as a toastmaster. The retiring president of the association, Frank N. Hanna, made an address of welcome to the graduating class of 1904. This was responded to by Cyril J. Curran, representing the class. James Duffy responded to the toast "The Goal of the Athlete." The toast "The Catholic Young Woman" was responded to by Miss Doretta Mary Shaw. Rev. J. J. Bloomer of St. Patrick's church Elmira, spoke to the toast, "The Hope of Our Country." Bishop-elect Thomas F. Hickey made a short address in the course of which he complimented the association on the success of its banquet.

A short business meeting was held after the address. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Richard Gardiner, president; Walter O'Neil, vice president; Catherine Naylon, secretary; Elizabeth Caughlin, treasurer.

HOLY APOSTLES

The funeral of Alderman J. Miller Kelly, who died at the Lee Hospital Tuesday was held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the family residence 468 Lyell avenue, and at 10 o'clock from this church. The funeral was largely attended. Most of the city officials and delegations from various fraternal organizations of which the deceased was a member were present as well as delegations from the various business concerns with which Mr. Kelly was connected.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Miss Anna M. Tracy, piece of Alderman William H. Tracy, and Mr. Frank J. Burke were married Wednesday morning by Rev. Father Eekle. The church was crowded with friends and relatives. At 10:30 o'clock a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, 111 Troup street. Thirty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Burke will be at home after March 1, at 111 Troup street.

Friars' Club Dance

The members of the Friars Club held their annual dance Thursday night in Powers Hall, which was especially decorated for the occasion. There was an unusually large attendance. The arrangements were very complete. The music was furnished by Dossbach Orchestra and the refreshments by Teall.

A Bad Man

A leading physician of this city says: "I never knew a bilious man who was a good man." It is certain enough that a man cannot feel good when he is bilious. Celery King, the tonic-laxative, cures biliousness. 25c.
