IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Six beautiful new windows, each representing a scene related to the life of Christ, have been placed in our church. The subjects portrayed are: the Annunciation, the Nativity of Christ, the Agony in the Garden, Magdalen at the Cross, the Resurrection and Christ blessing Little Children. The parishioners are highly pleased with these windows not only because they add greatly to the beauty of the church, but because each, by the thoughts which it suggests, is an aid to devotion.

On Friday the customary devotions in honor of the Sacred Heart were held. The members of the Rosary Society are invited to receive holy communion to-morrow morning. Their regular monthly meeting will take place at 4 o'clock. The annual banquet of the Young Men's Society will be held this year in the society rooms on Tuesday, March 7. All members of the society are cordially invited to attend. The Lenten services will be commenced next Wednesday night and will continue during the season on every Wednesday and Friday night. The young ladies spent a pleasant evening at a gathering of the sodalists and their friends in the society rooms, last Tuesday night. During Lent the members of the sodality will meet every other Tuesday night for the purpose of discussing subjects appropriate for thought during the holy season. The discussions will vary in form and will be entertaining as well as helpful. It is earnestly desired that all members will make an effort to attend each of these meetings. Friends are invited to be present also.

FRENCH CHURCH.

Miss Elizabeth Frances Lempert, daughter of Mr. Leon H. Lempert, sr., of this city, was married to Mr. Reginald Lovejoy Fernald, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Fernald of the University of Maine, Orono, by Rev. Alphonse A. Notebaert, at Church of Our Lady of Victory, Tuesday night. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Louise Lempert. The groom was attended by Mr. Leon H. Lempert, jr. After the ceremony a supper was served at the home of the bride, Pearl St. Mr. and Mrs. Fernald will be at home after April 15, at 31 Pearl Street.

The new farce entitled "All A Mistake" which is being rehearsed by the Players Club for the benefit of the French church, is progressing most satisfactory under the able direction of Miss Katharine Burns and tends to be a laugh provoker. Tuesday evening, March 7th, is the date set for production.

CATHEDRAL.

The great Irish drama Inshavogue in four acts, will be presented at Cathedral Hall next Monday evening March 6th, by a worthy cast of our young people. The story of the days of '98, or the great Irish rebellion, being dear to every lover of Irish liberty, all should take this opportunity to be present on that occasion.

HOLY REDEEMER.

In the death of Mrs. Amelia Werner the Holy Redeemer parish has lost a faithful member, whose gentle and refined presence will long be missed. She was born in Byron, Germany, and came with her husband, Leopold Werner, to America about forty years ago. May her soul rest in peace.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Bert Coote and Company will head the bill of vaudeville announced for next week at the Cook Opera House. Coote will be remembered as a comedian who pretends to be the type of man known as a "dude." The rest of the bill shows unusual strength: The Empire City Quartette, is to be one of the best of quartettes that present both comedy and music; Keno, Welch and Melrose will offer an acrobatic act; John Ford and Mayne Gehrue will offer an exhibition in dancing; Greene and Werner are down for an original comedy turn; the two Tobins will offer a singing act; the Three Ramoniers, described as European acrobats and the kinetograph will complete the show.

NATIONAL THEATRE.

In view of the present war complication between Russia and Japan the splendid revival of that most excellent play, "Darkest Russia," comes as a welcome visitor at the National Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Tuesday and Wednesday matinees.

Wilson Barrett's impressive and powerfully constructed drama, "The Sign of the Cross," which will be presented at the National Theatre for three nights, commencing next Thursday, with the usual matinees Thursday and Saturday, is full of striking contrasts.

BAKER THEATRE.

Coming to the Baker Theatre the first half of next week with daily matinees is Henry B. Marks' superb production of Langdon McCormick's comedy drama "Out of the Fold" which scored such tremendous hits in New York, Chicago and St. Louis.

The last half of next week the Baker Theatre will have as its attraction, the great nautical drama entitled "The Gunner's Mate" which will be given a grand presentation at the Baker Theatre. The usual matinees will be given on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
