NECKWEAR FOR MEN

We went into a New York neckwear manufacturer's establishment the other day—a maker of high grade neckwear.

He had these ends of silks in his factory, enough of a pattern to make up half a dozen or a dozen ties. They are silks which he has been putting into his dollar scarfs.

We made him a proposition to make up the silks into the popular shape four-in-hands, and after some bargaining, the deal was consummated, and here is the neckwear.

We are not going to say a dollar for it. They are not made up quite as the dollar tie would be, but they are enormously big value at 29c each; half a dozen scarfs for $1.50.

There are probably seventy-five different patterns. Quite sure to find your favorite color effect among them.

UMBRELLA JARS

It is getting pretty close to the season when the umbrella will be a constant companion for a few weeks. You will go home with it all dripping, and perhaps haven't a convenient receptacle to place it in.

Other styles of umbrella jars at $1.75, $2.25, $3 and $5.75.
