CANANDAIGUA.

Mrs. Ellen Harrigan, Gibson Street, is among the seriously sick of the parish.

Misses May Ely and Marie Fleckenstein of Rochester, accompanied the organist, Miss Keefe, on her trip last Sunday to Canadawaga. Miss Fleckenstein is an accomplished elocutionist.

The Rt. Rev. Thos. F. Hickey, V.G., of the Rochester Cathedral, will preach here Wednesday evening.

Month's mind for Mrs. M. D. Dugan, Thursday, and for Thos. Melvin Saturday.

The school collection for March amounted to $46.60.

The Rosary will relieve holy communion next Sunday.

The carpenters have nearly finished scaffolding the new church interior and the work of lathing began Monday morning.

LIMA.

Saturday being the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin, mass was celebrated at 8 o'clock, followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Courneen who died in West Bloomfield, were brought here for interment on Monday last.

The monthly meeting of the Young Ladies Sodality was held Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The remains of Mrs. Mary McCaffery, who died in West Bloomfield were interred here Friday.

The death of Mrs. Julia Kenny, who had been ill for some time, occurred last Tuesday. The deceased was sixty-six years of age and was the widow of the late Jeremiah Kenny. Mrs. Kenny was born in Tipperary Co., Ireland and has been a resident of this village for more than half a century. She is survived by six children, Daniel, John and Jeremiah of Rochester, Mrs. Dan McCarthy of LeRoy, Mrs. Frank Shelman of Holcomb, and Catherine of this place and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas O'Brien and Mrs. Michael Malone both of this place.

AUBURN.

A retreat by Paulist Fathers will begin on next Sunday morning at St. Mary's church and will continue for three weeks. Rev. Father Burke, the eminent preacher who has been at St. Mary's for the past three years, will be one of the speakers. The first week will be for the women of the church, the second for the men and the third for non-Catholics. This will take in all the weeks from now to Easter time. At the different masses on Sunday a collection will be taken up to help defray the expenses of the mission.

The St. Aloysius school is now nearly completed and is without a doubt the handsomest edifice in the city.

The Italian congregation of St. Mary's church is growing and will in time take in all the Italians of the city. During the mission an opportunity will be given them to receive the benefits of the mission as a priest will be here to speak to them in their native tongue.

The members of St. Aloysius church choir under John J. White will give a recital for the benefit of the monument fund of the city. A number of noted singers and instrumental players are on the programme.

The Wednesday evening services at Holy Family church are well attended.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

The Cook Opera House will present a well varied bill of vaudeville next week. The topline will be Dan McAvoy and his Fifth Avenue Girls. The Eight Salvaggis are Parisian dancers; Stuart Barnes will offer his well known monologue; Chassino will make shadow silhouette with his toes and Kartelli offers slack wire feats. LeRoy and Woodford, comedians; Hathaway and Walton, wood shoes dancers and kinetograph fills the bill.

BAKER THEATRE.

"In the Shadow of Darkness" by Maurice J. Fielding, announced for presentation at the Baker Theatre the first half of next week, with daily matinees, has proved a decided success in the field of modern melodrama, and has been attracting large audiences wherever offered.

The attraction at the Baker Theatre the last half of next week with daily matinees will be Spencer and Aborn's splendid new production of the latest melodramatic success, "A Wife's Secret" which has been making some new records and winning unprecedented favor from both press and public in other cities this season.

NATIONAL THEATRE.

Seats are now selling for the engagement of the famous colored comedians, Williams and Walker, and their large company of carefully selected singers and dancers, who will be seen at the National Theatre next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Tuesday and Wednesday matinees.

In this season's version of Hanlon's "Superba" which comes to the National Theatre next week Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Hanlons have supplied more new and novel illusions than for many years.

The combined efforts of all theatre managers and attractions in this city next week, point to a most successful bill of entertainment that will be provided for the theatregoers at the National Theatre next week Friday afternoon, when a benefit will be held for an old theatrical employee of this city, Jack Milan. Tickets are now being sold by all the attaches of the different theatres, which can be exchanged at the National box-office for reserved seat coupons any time after Monday.

House Cleaning Helps.

The housekeeper who has not been reminded that it is about house-cleaning time the last two days, must have been somewhere else than in the vicinity of Rochester.

We would have the thought of house renovation be coupled with the reminder that House Furnishing store, Granite building, has a large supply of articles which will greatly aid in the usual spring campaign against dirt.
