

News FROM IRELAND

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What is Going Done by the People of the Old Country...

Uister

ANTWERP.—On Feb. 21 the coroner for mid-Antrim attended in the house of Mr. Graham...

The members of the Randalstown branch of the United Irish League recently held a concert...

The funeral of the late Rev. Andrew Macaulay, parish priest of St. Bridget's, Belfast, took place on Feb. 17...

ARMAGH.—The officers of the Cullyhanna branch of the United Irish League for this year are...

On Feb. 22, at Killybegs, the tenants of the estate of Sir James Stange...

On Feb. 22, at Killybegs, the tenants of the estate of Sir James Stange...

On Feb. 24, about midnight, the body of John Wilson Fleming, town clerk and petty sessions clerk of Cookstown...

of the proceedings a large delegation of the Letterly tenants was introduced by John Quinn...

The funeral of the late John McHugh, Mullinbegs, Inver, took place Feb. 9 to Prosses cemetery...

On Feb. 22 John Timony, farmer, of Townawilly, near Donegal, left his residence and has not since returned...

On Feb. 23 a letter containing the sad news reached Francis Kennedy, farmer, Newtown, near Donegal...

DOWN.—Mrs. McGuire of Castle street, Newry, died March 2 while telling her beads in the cathedral...

Much regret was evoked throughout Mourne by the sudden death lately of Patrick Macrattan, merchant, Killeel...

The death of Mrs. Neil McLaughlin which caused widespread regret, took place on Feb. 11 at Ballykeel...

FEMANAGH.—A ball in aid of the Robert Emmet band, Kinawley, was held in Aughaderrallummond on Feb. 15...

On Feb. 22, at Killybegs, the tenants of the estate of Sir James Stange...

On Feb. 22, at Killybegs, the tenants of the estate of Sir James Stange...

Munster

CLARE.—On Feb. 17 Patrick Doherty, a most respectable inhabitant in Knockerra, passed away in the house that afforded him shelter for 103 years...

A successful Gaelic concert was held under the auspices of the local branch of the Gaelic League in the Cahersherkin Female school lately...

The Anglo-Celt of Feb. 18 announced the death of J. Marthage, one of the old stock, at the good old age of seventy-eight...

A meeting of the members of the Knockbridge branch of the United Irish League was held lately, M. O'Reilly, president, in the chair...

DERRY.—Lately a deputation waited on Rev. Philip O'Doherty at John O'Connor's, Faughanvale. The chair was taken by James Cole...

On Feb. 17 the annual reunion of the members and guests of St. Malachy's Catholic club, Coleraine, was held in the parochial hall...

CORK.—At recent examinations in Edinburgh John Lawrence Power, son of Robert Power of Tullagh Cloyne, was admitted to licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons...

the Queen's college, Cork, when he completed his medical course. March 2 Miss Winifred M. Murphy was married to Fitzjames Murphy...

Miss Phelan, daughter of P. Phelan Castleinch, County Kilkenny, was professed a religious of the Presentation order in the convent, Middleton, March 1...

On Feb. 12 a very interesting function took place in the League of the Cross Hall in honor of John L. Keane, solicitor, Younghall...

On Feb. 23 a letter containing the sad news reached Francis Kennedy, farmer, Newtown, near Donegal, that his son, James Kennedy, about twenty-eight years of age, was killed in Killybegs...

A meeting of the committee of the Kauturk branch of the Gaelic League was held lately, J. D. O'Shea presiding...

Recent Deaths in Cork.—HAWKINS—On Jan. 30, at Whitegate, John Hawkins, in his eighty-ninth year...

On Jan. 23, at Wellington street, Cahir, John Brennan—HUGGINS—On Jan. 31, at Ballynureig, Douglas road, Ellen Huggins—M'SWEENEY—On Jan. 31, at Farnames, Ellen M'Sweeney—MAHONY—On Jan. 31, at 37 Gratton street, John Mahony, aged fifty-five years...

On Feb. 13, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Richard Huggins, Spring lane, Michael Murphy—DALY—A the Glen, Kinsale on Feb. 13, Kate Daly—CONNORS—On Jan. 12, John Connors, formerly of Whitechurch Rowland—On Jan. 15, at Killybegs, Cloyne, Captain Francis Edward Rowland, aged sixty-seven—BARRETT—On Jan. 15, at 3 Blin's hill, Mary Barrett, aged twenty-five years—MALLE—At William's mill, Fall road, Sunday's Well, John Malle, late of Millow, aged seventy years—BARRY—On Jan. 15, a Queen street, Cork, Dorothea Barry—CONWAY—On Jan. 15, at an advanced age—MOONEY—On Jan. 15, at No. 1 barrack, South Main street, Bandon, Patrick Mooney—HALLAHAN—On Jan. 16, at Market street, Bandon, Mrs. Margaret Hallahan—MARTIN—On Feb. 18, William Martin, Jr. plasterer—MURPHY—At 32 Friar's walk, John Murphy, funeral director, died on Feb. 18...

On Feb. 22, at Peter's Church lane, Maurice Healy—BUCKLEY—On Feb. 21, at Mangerton terrace, Barney the wife of Cornelius Buckley—O'SULLIVAN—On Feb. 22, at Knockavilly, Kilmaldrish, Mary O'Sullivan—MARTIN—On Feb. 24, at 14 Draw bridge street, William Martin—EGAN—On March 2, at Cathedral place, Mrs. M. Egan—SCANLAN—On March 2, at Killybegs, Mary Scanlan—LLOYD—On Feb. 25, at 5 York terrace, Queenstown, Dorothea Eliza Lloyd—DENNEHY—At Hillsborough, Fermoy, on March 1, Cornelius Walter Dennehy, late manager of the Munster and Limerick bank, aged eighty-six years—BUCKLEY—On March 1, at 337 Barney street, Denis P. Buckley—LILLIS—On Feb. 28, at Farren street, Jeremiah Lillis, aged fifty-four, for many years an employee at Cork custom house—AHERN—On Feb. 27, at the North Infirmary, John Ahern, son of the late Michael Ahern, mayor's sergeant—RING—On Feb. 27, at St. Patrick's hospital, Wellington road, Bridget Ring—MURPHY—On Feb. 21, at her residence on Bandon road, Johanna Murphy—HAYES—On Feb. 28, at 59 Bandon road, Charles Hayes, victualler, Parade market—SULLIVAN—On Feb. 27, at Kinsale Florence Sullivan, late Barrack road Bandon—COLLINS—On Feb. 28, Hannah Collins—HAYES—On Feb. 27, at St. Patrick's hospital, Kate Hayes of Barney street—RICE—On Feb. 23, at Castleview House, Glan worth, Elizabeth Anna Maria Rice—BRODERICK—On Feb. 24, at Coolea hill, Lisacarril, Bartholomew Broderick—GLEESON—On Feb. 28, at Bal Bueadigh, Farran, David Gleeson...

KERRY.—At the new premises of the Lincoln's Inn branch of the United Irish League, Red Lion square, lately an interesting function took place. It was the presentation to Father Curran, a young Trillick priest, of a purse of gold to mark the respect which he had earned during his missionary work in the district.

James O'Connell, Knocknagagh, Tralee, died rather suddenly Feb. 27.

On Feb. 24 the death occurred near Brossa of D. Casey. The deceased was an uncompromising Nationalist, and greatest sympathy is expressed for his wife and family.

Mrs. Deady, a teacher in Ballyguin national school, died suddenly, on Feb. 25 she prepared herself to go to her sister's house, a short distance from her own, to take part in festivities, as a marriage had been arranged for one of her nieces, Miss Finn. Having completed her preparations, she complained of a pain in the head, then staggered and fell to the ground. Her little children raised a cry of alarm, and on being lifted up, to the dismay of all, life was found to have passed away. Mrs. Deady was a native of Castlegregory.

LIMERICK.—Sister Mary Josephine Corboy of the St. John of God convent, in Westford, died Feb. 25. She was eldest daughter of J. Corboy, Pallas green.

Mrs. Bridget Waters of Ashbourne road, Limerick, died recently. The deceased was a member of an old Killyrush family, and her father was the late Thomas Rockford, at one time harbor master at Killyrush.

Having reached the fine old age of eighty-seven years, Mrs. M. Clancy of Rathmure died Feb. 27, deeply regretted.

Mrs. Ryan, Pallasgreen, died Feb. 8, deeply regretted. Deceased was mother of Michael Ryan, deputy vice chair man of the Tipperary board of guardians.

Miss Mary Laune, daughter of Mrs. Laune Knocklong, was received into the Presentation order at the Convent Middleton, Cork, lately. Her religious title is Sister Augustine.

TIPPERARY.—Rev. Patrick Hennessey died on Feb. 25 at 20 Mountjoy square, Dublin, deeply regretted.

Mrs. Murphy of the railroad station, Clonmel, died Feb. 23, aged sixty-five years. Her remains were conveyed to Ennis, County Clare, for interment.

The Carrick centenary bazaar realized $1,750 for the new Science school to be conducted there by the Christian Brothers. This is very creditable. The bishop of Waterford has consented to lay the foundation stone of the new building.

On Feb. 29 the marriage of James Ryan, Parrell street, Clonmel, to Miss Anne Hahelly, Main street, Tipperary, was celebrated in Thurles cathedral.

The death of Sister Mary Caroline Butler at St. Joseph's convent, Redhill, Surrey, England, occurred lately. She was a native of Ardhanan, Cahir.

The last chapter of the drowning fatality on Lough Derg on Feb. 9 has been filled up Feb. 11. Just as a searching party were about to desist one of the boats drew up the body of John Cleary close to the spot where his father's body was found, but in deep water. His age was twenty-two years, and, like his father and the boatman Tierney, he was unable to swim. The father and John Tierney were buried in Killybegs on Feb. 11.

On March 1 a fire occurred in the sacristy of St. Michael's Catholic church, Tipperary. About 6 o'clock some little girls accustomed to visit the church saw smoke issuing from a large press in the sacristy and reported the matter to the police and all others, with the result that immediate steps were taken to subdue the fire which had assumed a very serious condition before it was extinguished. Several sets of vestments, records, epistles and sacred articles were destroyed. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

WATERFORD.—The quarterly meeting of the Limerick National Teachers' association took place in Cappoquin male national school lately under the presidency of James Broderick. Present were T. F. Morrissey, Knockanore (Tallow); G. Armstrong, Ballysaggart; M. Tully, Tallow; J. McSwiney, Tallow; Richard J. Colliander, Cappoquin; Miss Walsh, Modeligo; Miss Lane, Knockanore; Miss M. Hayes and Miss A. McGrath, honorable secretaries. A great amount of important business was transacted.

The death has taken place at the Limerick Presentation convent of Mother M. Evangelist, deceased, who was professed in 1861, was the daughter of the late William John Shanahan of Ballynecol, Clonca, and received her early education at the Ursuline convent, Waterford.

A disastrous fire broke out on the night of Feb. 27 at George White & Sons' large block of stores, which extend from Thomas street to Anne street, Waterford city. The brigade were soon on the scene and succeeded after four hours in quelling the conflagration. The damage is estimated at $10,000. Denny's bacon stores, which adjoin the scene, had a very narrow escape.

in the hall, which was densely crowded. Prior to the proceedings Miss M. O'Connell played selections on the harp. On the motion of Rev. Father Augustus O. F. C., seconded by John Gorman, the chair was taken by the right honorable the lord mayor. Present: Very Rev. Canon Fricker, Bathmure; Very Rev. Joseph Burke, Aughrim street; Very Rev. Father Anselm, O. S. F. C., provincial of the English province; Very Rev. Father Paul, O. S. F. C., provincial, Rev. George O'Neill, S. J., F. R. I. I.; Very Rev. E. A. Sellar, O. S. A.; Father Wilfrid, O. S. F. C.; Rev. Father Augustine, O. S. F. C.; Rev. Father Bohan, Rev. J. Carr, C. M., Rev. J. Nolan, Very Rev. Father Nicholas, O. S. F. C.; Father Stanislaus, O. D. C.; Father J. Ignatius, O. D. C.; Rev. J. Daly, D. D., Ballingahaderreen.

His many friends will learn with regret that the Rev. Patrick Corcoran, S. J., passed peacefully away on Feb. 27 at the house of his order at Millown park, Dublin.

Recent Deaths in Dublin.—GREHAM—Feb. 25, at St. Helena, Donnybrook, Mrs. Bridget Greham—KELLY—Feb. 28, at 2 Cheltenham place, Mary Kelly of Castle Market—M'DONAGH—Feb. 28, at 80 St. Ignatius road, Sarah McDonagh—M'NALLY—March 1, at 120 North King street, Flossie McNally, cart and van builder, 62 Queen street.—M'GRANE—Feb. 27, Mrs. Julia McGrane, 10 Red Cow lane.—O'CONNOR—Feb. 27, at Woodford, Shan. Hill, Elizabeth Madeline O'Connor.—O'NEILL—Feb. 27, at 20a Westborough place, Michael O'Neill of Goreway.—O'MAHONY—Feb. 27, at 235 Pilsborough road, Margaret O'Mahony.—O'NEILL—March 3, at 65 Kenilworth square, Rathgar, Patrick O'Neil, formerly chief clerk of the court of common pleas in Ireland, aged seventy-seven years.—O'STELL—March 2, at the Mater hospital, Cecilia Costello, daughter of the late John Costello, Tuam and Drogheda.—HENNESSY—Feb. 28, at 20 Mountjoy square, Rev. Patrick Hennessey, late of St. Paul's, San Francisco.—KENNEDY—Feb. 28, at 12 Amiens street, John Kennedy, aged fifty years.—M'CALL—Feb. 25, at 12 Upper Gloucester street, Mary McCall—TURNER—March 2, at St. Vincent's, Fairview, Sister Anne Turner (Sister of charity), R. I. P.—ROBINSON—March 2, at Killybegs, Moyvalley, Michael Robinson, brother of the late Rev. James Robinson, Thurlyland, nephew of the late Edward W. Robinson, Killybegs.—O'BRIEN—March 1, William O'Brien, 31 Tritonville road, Sandy mount, late of 12 Suffolk street.—TIERNAN—March 2, at 25 Upper Oriel street, Laurence Tiernan.

KILDARE.—On March 1 occurred the death of Patrick Tighe in St. Joseph's hospital, Naas.

On March 2, at Killybegs, Moyvalley, died Michael Robinson, Thurlyland, a nephew of the late Edward W. Robinson, Killybegs.

On Feb. 26 a large crowd attended Wexford park to witness the match between Kildare and Kilkenny in the final of the Leinster championship. This was the second time they met, last meeting ended in a draw. Never in the history of the Gaelic game did such a vast throng pass the turnstiles. Mr. Crowe declared Kildare the victors when full time was up, the score being: Kildare, 1 goal 6 points, Kilkenny, 1 goal 5 points.

KILKENNY.—On Feb. 28, in the Presentation convent, Middleton, Sister Bernard was professed a member of the great order. Right Rev. Dr. Brogan, bishop of Cloyne, officiated. The newly professed is Miss Phelan of Castleinch, daughter of the late P. Phelan.

The death of Dan Fennelly, Ormond road, Kilkenny, occurred Feb. 19, at an early age.

KINGS.—Dr. Kenna, corner, on Feb. 20 held an inquest on the remains of P. Farrell, farmer, aged thirty years, who met his death under distressing circumstances the previous evening. Deceased was driving from Rathangan to Kilmalogue, when his horse became restless and upset the vehicle and its occupant into a dike. Deceased was discovered by some passersby, but he was dead. A verdict of accidental death was rendered by the jury.

The death of William Walker, Killybegs, occurred Feb. 24, at the extraordinary age of ninety-four years. The deceased was very well known, and his funeral was numerous attended.

LONGFORD.—A young man named Joseph Moran of Foyanagh, near Keenagh, was on Feb. 1 found unconscious on a heap of stones near Mossstown gate by the Keenagh police. He was brought to the barracks, but all efforts to restore animation were futile. At the inquest it was shown that deceased was perfectly sober. A verdict of death from exposure was returned.

On Feb. 24 a sad fatality took place at Sinear, Columbkille, by which Owen Connor, one of the most esteemed residents, came to his death. He was going home from Arva in his cart, and when turning up the lane way to his residence the cart overturned, and he was caught underneath.

LOUTH.—It is announced that a marriage has been arranged between the Marquis of Bute and Augusta, daughter of Sir Henry Bellingham, Bart., of Castlebellingham.

MEATH.—The death of John Clark, solicitor, a man widely known, took place on Feb. 28 at Blackrock. The funeral was one of the largest seen here in many years.

On Feb. 27 the Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney, bishop of Meath, held the triennial visitation of Clonmellon and administered the sacrament of confirmation to eighty-eight children. The visitation of the united parishes of Kells and Girey was held the day following.

QUEEN'S.—The premises of the Maryborough Workmen's club in Railway street, adjoining Ald's Central hotel, were lately completely gutted by fire. The building is a two-story one, interior mainly of woodwork. All the club property, including a billiard and two bagatelle tables, was destroyed.

Patrick Keegan, Coolbanagher, died Feb. 17. The large funeral procession proved the esteem of his neighbors.

WESTMEATH.—The death of John J. Conlan occurred suddenly Feb. 27 at Killybegs.

WEXFORD.—A meeting of the committee of the Oulart branch of the United Irish League was held in Oulart lately. Rev. Patrick Kenny presiding. As a result of the ballot recently taken the following committee has been elected for the coming year: James Crowe, Edward Pender, Myles Cooney, James Cleary, Pierce Redmond, David Connolly, Philip Redmond, Jr., James Howell, Philip Redmond, Sr., Michael O'Brien, Patrick Doran and P. Colfer. Myles Cooney, honorable treasurer, and Patrick Colfer, honorable secretary, were re-elected unanimously.

The Bree branch of the United Irish League at a recent meeting elected the following as officers for this year: Very Rev. Canon Sheil, president; Joseph Wickham, vice president; John Doyle, treasurer and honorable secretary; committee, T. Kelly, M. Doyle, W. Doyle, M. Leary, R. Murphy and M. Dempsey.

Connaught

GALWAY.—Sister M. Magdalen, O. D. C., of Mount Carmel convent, Loughrea, died Feb. 22 at the age of sixty-five years.

On Feb. 27 the archbishop of Tuam visited Killybegs and administered the sacrament of confirmation to a large number of children, all of whom his grace testified had been well instructed in the Christian doctrine and Bible history.

The pope, through Archbishop Healy, has paid two distinguished priests in the archdiocese of Tuam a high and well-deserved honor. The dean of Maynooth, Father Gilmarin, and the respected president of St. Jarlath's college have received the dignity of doctors of divinity, a distinction carefully bestowed and never given but as a recognition of superior merit.

The death of Mrs. Tuohy of the Cross, Portlanna, occurred on Feb. 17 at the fine old age of eighty-three years.

LITRIM.—The United Irish League branches in the county are making good headway and in a short time a good number will exist. They are actively engaged now in collecting for the fund of the Irish party.

The Blake estate at Garrydoff has been sold to the tenants.

MAYO.—On Feb. 25 the dead bodies of two men were found on the seashore at Broomagh, in Ballycroy. The bodies were found lying above high water mark. The names of the deceased are Edward Sweeney and Michael Ginty of Tallagh. They attended the fair of Achill Sound and, after transacting their business, left in their boat. The vessel was laden heavily with purchases the men had made at the Sound. Tide and wind being against them made the work of rowing severe, so they became exhausted in their efforts to reach home before nightfall. This is evident from the fact of their having landed where their bodies were found, a few miles from their own village, and, leaving the boat, they were over-come with sheer exhaustion and lay down to awaken in another world.

The death of Miss Mulligan, daughter of the late J. W. Mulligan, Charles town, in religion Sister Frances, occurred in a prolonged illness. Deceased was niece to Rev. Mother Ignatius and Edward Cannon, Knockmore House, Balla.

A largely attended meeting of the Newry branch, U. I. L., was held on Feb. 26, the Very Rev. Canon Grealy presiding. Valentine Kilbride, solicitor, wrote, stating that the O'Donel estate will be offered for sale soon, and it was resolved that the tenants should purchase through the congested districts board or estates commissioners. The collectors gave satisfactory reports of the progress of the parliamentary fund collection.

Mrs. McNulty of Swineford, mother of the clerk of the local union, died Feb. 22, deeply regretted. The requiem services and funeral were attended by great numbers.

ROSCOMMON.—The land court has given consent to an arrangement whereby Lord Dudley, lord lieutenant of Ireland, will be permitted to surrender the tenancy of Rockingham House, Boyle, on July 1 coming.

Miss Margaret McNaboe of Drum, Boyle, died Feb. 26, deeply regretted. The funeral took place to Asslyn cemetery, and its representative character was indicative of the esteem in which deceased was held.

On Feb. 29 Michael McGann, who resided near Loughlun, died at the great age of 107 years. He stated a short time previous to his death that he had never been ill. He worked as a laborer until last November.

The death took place on Feb. 24 suddenly, due to failure of the heart's action, of Edward J. Keogh, Lecarrow, Sligo. Deceased, who was of an advanced age, was a sterling Nationalist and a practical Catholic.

Sligo.—John Conway of Rossa Point, died Feb. 23, aged sixty years, deeply regretted.

On Feb. 12, at the Nazareth House, Hana mersmith, London, Miss Annie M. Keane, in religion Sister M. St. Jarlath, made her vows and joined the Nazareth order. The young lady is daughter of Michael Keane, Strandhill, Sligo.

William King, Brumfin, died suddenly Feb. 13, aged sixty-eight years, deeply regretted. He was buried in the family ground in the Ballymote new cemetery, and the vast concourse of vehicles and pedestrians which accompanied his remains to the cemetery bore ample testimony to the esteem in which deceased and the members of his family are held.

Leinster

CARLOW.—The Irish drama, "Robert Emmet," was given by the pupils of the Presentation convent schools in the courthouse, Baginbun, on March 17, in aid of the Catholic Young Men's society. Father Paul Murphy had charge of the arrangements. It was an excellent presentation of that historic and patriotic time in Irish political life.

A meeting of the Knock branch of the United Irish League was held lately for the purpose of electing officers and committee for 1905. The Rev. Father Mooney presided. The reverend chairman in a stirring speech dwelt on the necessity of organization among the people in consequence of the approaching elections and the maintaining of their representatives in parliament. The meeting having proceeded to appoint officers and committee the following were declared elected: President, Rev. Father Mooney; vice president, James Dwyer; treasurer, James Dooley; honorary secretary, Patrick Maher; committee, John Walshe, P. M'Engleton, Patrick Keough, John Keys, M. Brennan, Denis Mulhall, James Kealy and P. Maher.

The death of Ellen Meany of Monmore, Leiglinbridge, occurred Feb. 13, at the great age of seventy-five years.

DUBLIN.—Gaelic classes for printers are now being conducted in the Odd Fellows' building, Upper Abbey street, Dublin, and are being attended by great numbers.

On Feb. 26 the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the Father Mathew hall, Church street, Dublin, was celebrated with a public meeting