Annual Sale of Lace Curtains Is of Importance to Housewives

The greater part of the readers of this newspaper are well acquainted with the advantages to be enjoyed at "Burke's" Annual Curtain Sale. This event for the spring of 1905 begins now. In appearance and quality these Curtains have everything to commend them, and besides, the prices quoted are much below regular prices. Several thousands of pairs to sell in this way. Plenty of different new lots at both lower and higher figures than are printed in this advertisement. These items, however, indicate that it is unnecessary to pay big prices for really handsome Lace Curtains.
