NAZARETH ACADEMY

The closing exercises of the grammar department was held in Cathedral hall, June 9th.

The program was rendered in a creditable manner to one of the most appreciative audiences ever assembled, which was evidenced by the attention to the different numbers.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Hickey addressed the class which was graduated and in his own excellent language commended the pupils for their efforts. He spoke particularly of the play "Search for Happiness" which conveyed to all minds the idea that there is no happiness without religion.

Rev. George Burns introduced the class and read the roll of honor. By an oversight the names of Sadie Brodier and Angelica McLean were omitted from it.

Gold medals were won as follows: Excellence medal, Henrietta Free; Christian Doctrine Medals, 1st, Marguerite Uebel, 2nd, Irene Murray, 3rd, Mercedes Brayer; Penmanship medal, Kathleen Rigney.

Following is the program: Chorus, "Welcome"; Greeting by Agnes Calihan who presented basket of flowers to Bishop Hickey; recitation, Marguerite Uebel; piano solo, Irene Myers; recitation, Dimples O'Bohler; violet drill by little folks was beautifully done; recitation, Mildred Turpin; drama, "Search for Happiness"; recitation, Marion Costello; Queen Flora's Day Dream was well done, singing good and perfect time kept; recitation, Florence Har-gather; accompanist, Miss Anna Cleary.

The class who completed the grammar school course are: Edna Bayer, Henrietta Free, Marie Gallagher, Olive Hogan, Irene Murray, Grace Ryan, Mable Smyth, Sadie Brodier, Lillian Free, Amelia Gralling, Alice Loewenguth, Marie Rhine, Ethel Sharkey; Marguerite Uebel.

The Alumni of the Hendrick Commercial Training School desire to express their sorrow at the death of their beloved fellow member, Miss May Laragy Howe, and to tender their earnest sympathy to her bereaved family.

Cook Opera House. Next week the Cook Opera House Stock Company will offer the play "Forgiveness." This drama was made famous throughout the country a few years by Frederick Bryton, who starred in it with great success.

NATIONAL THEATRE. Next week will be a notable one in local stock circles on account of the beautiful revival of that perennial success of William Shakespeare, "Romeo and Juliet" by the National Theatre Stock Company. Miss Bonstelle's Juliet is too well known and liked in Rochester to need much comment, and the rapid strides this favorite artist has made during the past few years, will prompt theatre-goers to look forward with keen pleasure to her performance next week, knowing full well that it will outshine any of her previous efforts in this part.

BAKER THEATRE. Next week at the Baker Theatre will be produced that immensely successful spectacular military play, "Under Two Flags." No play has achieved so great a success as this popular play and it serves to show off the capabilities of the company playing it to its fullest extent. The play is by that charming authoress, Ouida and has doubtless been read by many millions of people in its novelized form. The play closely follows the novel and strong scenes and patriotic climaxes follow in rapid succession from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Dreamland. There is a walk around Dreamland Park so that people can reach the boats on the Bay at Bay View or Schneider's Island without extra cost. Take Glen Haven cars.

The Christian Brothers' New Normal College at Pocantico Hills, N. Y.

The laying of the Corner Stone of St. Joseph's Normal College and Home for Aged and Infirm Brothers at Pocantico Hills near Tarrytown, N. Y., by His Grace, Most Rev. John M. Farley, D. D., Archbishop of New York, will take place on Sunday, June 25, 1905, at 3 p. m. The address will be delivered by Rt. Rev. Mgr. M. J. Lavelle, LL. D., V. G. A choir of 300 voices from some of the parochial schools of New York and Brooklyn, assisted by the Catholic Protective Band, will render "Ecce Sacerdos," "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," "Hymn to Saint La Salle," and "The Star Spangled Banner," and other selections. The exercises will be interesting and we promise a very enjoyable afternoon to those who will be able to make the trip. Pocantico Hills may be reached by the New York Central Railroad: Over the main line to Tarrytown, over the Putnam Division to the Pocantico Hills station at Hawthorne and Pleasantville, thence by carriage to the Institution.

DREAMLAND

Dreamland, the magnificent new resort which has sprung from nothing at old Glen Haven, bids fair to surpass the promised grandeur mentioned by the promoters when they came to Rochester in the winter and promised a transformation. They have worked well, and when the throngs of pleasure lovers take the journey to the well known summer grounds they will wonder that so much has been done.

To tell all that has been done up to date would require an expenditure of space not allowable at this time. Suffice to say that the hustling management of the amusement enterprise has persuaded the railroad company to double track its system to and from the park, has erected the largest Figure Eight Roller Coaster and the most enormous Giant Carousel in the land, has laid three acres of concrete walks, has constructed a stupendous elevated circus stage and ring in connection with twin electric towers and a vast band stand, and has scattered about the grounds, a Ferris Wheel, Katzenjammer Castle, Razzle Dazzle, Myth City, Cleopatra Castle, Cave of the Winds, House of Trouble and now is making a frantic struggle to have in readiness for the opening day a very large, handsome and complete vaudeville theatre.

$69.50 Buffalo to Portland and return, tickets on sale every day in June, July and August to Los Angeles and San Francisco and return $75.50. For full particulars regarding routes, sleepers, etc., write R. E. Payne, general agent, 291 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

English Non-Catholic Missions.

In England the non-Catholic mission work has been undertaken in good earnest by a band of convert ministers. Prominent among these are Fathers Filmer, Chase, Evans, Sharpe and Grimes. Some of these fathers have had some years of experience in the priesthood. They have associated themselves together under the patronage of Our Lady of Compassion. Archbishop Bourne has assigned to them a portion of the Westminster parish, and out from this home they go to various parts of London and elsewhere, and they give missions to non-Catholics. It is a part of their policy to avoid all controversy and to content themselves with simply explaining Catholic doctrine to the crowds who come to listen to them. They are securing some very remarkable results. They have a large class of converts under instruction all the time.—Church Calendar of West Virginia.
