

Had Not Done Before for Years.
 I suffered since six years from sleeplessness, any little excitement or having visitors or going away from home would affect in that way for several nights. I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for it and slept well all night, although I was away from home for three weeks, something I had not done before for years.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor patients also get the medicine free.

CANANDAIGUA.
 The members were called upon Sunday to offer prayers for the repose of soul of James Shannon, an aged resident of Stanley.

About sixty of the Young Defenders received holy communion Sunday. Most of the boys in the recent first communion class have joined the society.

The Sodality will receive next Sunday and the school collection will be taken up.
 The school closing exercises take place next Monday evening at Bemis Hall. The name of Joseph Phillips has been added to the list, making in all twenty-four graduates. Charles W. Johnston lost only seven points in the regatta and gets the gold medal. A drama called "The Hidden Gem" will be produced, diplomas awarded and an address to the graduates given by the Rev. James Winters, of Ithaca.

Large triple sheet posters in red ink are out, announcing the great picnic of the C.M.B.A. and L.C.B.A. July 4. Last year the attendance was over 2,000, this year fully 3,000 will be present. The committee is working hard to have everything in readiness for the entertainment of the crowd. Good speaking, good sports and a grand opportunity to meet your friends.

The Rosary ladies netted $60.55 at the Burke lawn social. Very good, ladies.

Monda was observed as the month's mind of Timothy Linehan and Tuesday as that of Mrs. Patrick Beckle.

In mentioning the Catholic graduates of the High school last week we overlooked John Gillula and Anna Meath of Canandaigua, and Katherine Mahany of East Bloomfield, in all eight Catholic graduates. Messrs. Gillula and Meath participated in the prize speaking with great credit on Monday night.

CALEDONIA.
 The marriage of Mr. William Yopp and Miss Mary Concoran took place at St. John's church, Thursday morning 3. June 2nd, at 9 o'clock, Rev. G. J. Eisler officiating. The attendants were Mr. P. G. Quinn and Miss Katie Abel of Avon. The bride was prettily gowned in white silk and the young couple will reside on Mr. Yopp's farm east of the village.

Rev. B. W. Gompfengler of Lyons, was a welcome caller to town last week. Mr. James Wood, who attends school at St. Charles College, Ellicott City, is at home for the summer vacation.

Catarrah Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. BLACK BASS SEASON

Opened and Sodus Bay Invites Anglers for the Gamey Fish.
 June 16th is a date that has been anxiously looked forward to by the local fishermen for this is the day the gamiest of fish, the black bass, loses the protection of the law.
 The conditions are favorable this season for large catches and many fishermen report having hooked large bass while fishing for perch and other small fish during the past two weeks.

Sodus Bay has always been a popular place for fishermen after black bass and the boat liverymen at this resort are looking forward to a busy season. The special limited trains of the Rochester and Sodus Bay railway will make it possible for local fishermen to reach the fishing grounds of Sodus Bay in one hour and forty minutes.

Dreamland
 There is a walk around Dreamland Park so that people can reach the boats on the Bay at Bay View or Schneider's Island without extra cost. Take Glen Haven cars.

Cook Opera House.
 "Carmen" will be offered next week by the Cook Opera House Stock Company. This play is based of the famous opera by George Bizet. It is said that the fascinating, bewildering and contradictory personality of Carmen is even more strongly emphasized in the play than in the opera. The drama is in four acts, and the strength of the romance loses nothing by being robbed of its musical setting. Miss Caroline Franklin will play the title part. Matinees on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

NATIONAL THEATRE.
 The National Theatre Stock Co. will present next week a delightful comedy by H. V. Esmond, "When We Were Twenty-one." The play served as a vehicle for Maxine Elliott and Nat Goodwin, when originally produced in this country, being well received by the most critical theatre goers. Miss Bonstelle will assume the role of Phyllis Ericson, originally played by Miss Elliott. The story is interesting and romantic and the dialogue throughout is brilliant and sparkling with wit. Usual matinees will be given Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

BAKER THEATRE.
 Next week, starting Monday, June 26th, the Baker Theatre popular stock company will present Tom Taylor's play "The Ticket of Leave Man." The play opens in the Bellevue Tea Gardens, just out of London, where a large number of folks are taking refreshments at the different tables. This play will be equipped with handsome scenery, costumes and stage settings and no expense will be spared to perfect this play in every detail. Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

DREAMLAND
 Never in the history of the summer park amusements has a great treat been offered at Dreamland this week in the gathering together at the new and pretty resort of the famous Noahville students.
 Negro aggregation of crown town shouters and singers are going to leave and re-appear again but the troupe which appears here twice each day is the galaxy par excellence of plantation shouters and singers, the magnificent voices of this band of dusky singers blending into the most exquisite melody as they sing the plantation songs.
 Madame Helene Gerard the beautiful Parisian equestrienne with her magnificent horses and dogs is still making appearances each afternoon and evening.
 Many big picnics are being booked for Dreamland and Manager Crandall has given orders for the erection of a picnic pavilion where the picnic and sports of picnickers will be attended by courteous attendants at all times. The work is being rushed on the free vaudeville theatre, the Bump the Bump and the Trip from New York to the North Pole and it is promised that in a few days these new attractions will be completed.
