Miss Dolly Huck and Mr. William Durkee were married last Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Dr. Sinclair. After a brief trip they will be at home at 318 Brown St.

The closing exercises of our school were held Friday evening, June 30, at the parish hall. An attractive musical and dramatic program was given by the members of the school.

The musicians were George Gugel, E. Baumgarten, J. Kremer, M. Ekel, E. Haubner, G. Fleckenstein, J. Deprez and Fred Brien. Recitations were given by George McKay and Eleanor Smith. German choruses were sung and comedies were presented by the following pupils:

Olaize Nagel, Marguerite Strasser, Flora Miller, Anna Schumacher, Lucy Schaefer and Mabel Dancer. Two pantomimes, Gossip and the Holy City were well rendered. Rev. Dr. Sinclair addressed the class and congratulated them on their remarkable good record they made and high standing attained, after which he presented medals and diplomas to the graduates. The valedictory was delivered by Harriet Vay, Lavina Haag, Emma Geok, Lavina Zuern and William Heisel.

The class average was 97 1-2 per cent. Highest honors were won by Emma Geok, Lavina Zuern and Adelaide Briemer who had a class average of 100 each; second honor to Oscar Sprague with 99 2-3 per cent. The good conduct medal was equally merited by Emma Geok, Lavina Zuern, Adelaide Briemer. The Christian doctrine gold medal was awarded to Oscar Sprague, and the attendance medals to Adelaide Briemer, Gertrude Brayer, Lillian Geok and Lavina Zuern. Of the six free scholarships to Mechanics Institute two were won by boys of this school Joseph Isaak and Oscar Sprague. Each is worth $225 and gives a three years course. The five free scholarships of the Rochester Business Institute awarded to the parochial schools were won by Charles Shire, Adelaide Briemer, Lavina Zuern, Mary Zapf and Emma Geok. This is the banner list of the city and one that no other school can compete with. Too high tribute cannot be paid to the good sisters of our school for the magnificent success in bringing the school to such a high standard and turning out such successful students. Clara Bogner and Arthur Schubert were given Mills penmanship certificates. The 24 graduates were Oscar Sprague, Arthur Schubert, Joseph Isaak, Chas. Schire, Edward Wolf, Wm. Heisel, Geo. Gutberlet, Fred Brien, Elmer Haag, Edward Brueckel, William Carlin, Frank Smith; Emma Geok, Lavina Zuern, Adelaide Briemer, Lillian Geok, Harriet Vay, Gertrude Brayer, Louisa Kraft, Lavina Haag, Mary Zapf, Irene Dengler, Clara Bogner, Edna Brayer.

$1.25 Watkins Glen Excursion $1.25

The New York Central has arranged for a popular low rate excursion Sunday, July 9th, to that most beautiful gorge, Watkins Glen, known and appropriately designated as the Switzerland of America. Special train will leave from Central Ave Station at 9 a. m. arriving at the Glen at 11:50 a. m., returning will leave there at 4:30 p. m. arriving Rochester 8:05 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be $1.25; half fare for children over five and under twelve years of age.

$2 Excursion to the Thousand Islands Sunday, July 16th.

Of all the excursions out of Rochester offered by the different railroads, none have been so well and persistently patronized as the Thousand Island excursions, which the New York Central have run for several seasons. The first excursion of this summer series will take place on Sunday, July 16th, when excursion tickets will be sold at rate of $2 for adults and $1 for children, both including not only the trip to Clayton and return by fast train service but a beautiful tour on steamer about the Islands, known as the 50 mile Ramble. Patrons of this excursion may either take their basket lunch, or they can obtain splendid dinner on the steamer while sailing about the Islands. Special train will leave at 8:30 a. m., and returning will arrive in this city at 10:30 same evening.

Those Summer Suits for Men at $12
For $12 our Men's Tailoring section comes forward with a proposition to make up two piece suits from the materials which have been going into our $20 and $22.50 suits this spring.
This is an established custom with us, emphasized this season, because we want to bring an entirely new stock into the new store shortly. Tailoring section is still at the corner of Main and North streets, one flight up.
Materials for these suits at $12 are homespun, worsteds, fancy chevrons, black chevrons, and blue serges. They are all marked with yellow tags.
The $25 and $27 suitings will be made up for $20. They are marked with blue tags.
The $30, $32 and $35 suitings will be made up for $25. They are marked with pink tags.
We promise satisfactory fit and tailoring in all cases.
