AROUND THE GLOBE.

The "Leader," of San Francisco, has discovered a reporter on the "Call" of that city who is the banner. blunderer in describing Catholic Church ceremonies. This reporter holy rituals with incense."

Mr. D. A. Whelton, who succeeds the late Mayor Collins, of Boston, is. the youngest man ever to hold the office in that city, being but thirty-three years of age. Quite an honor, indeed, but it is not all the honor attaching to the fact. He is also a product of the Catholic parochial school. Catholic parents who are given to unjust criticism of such institutions of learning are asked to bear the fact in mind.
