ALE. THE HAPPENINGS OF INTER EST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What is Seing Done by the People at Heme - Geneip From All the Counties of the Emermid iste.

Uister

AMTRIM. -- Joseph Simon O'Neill who stated at the Belfast police court lately that he was the lawful heir to Lord O'Neill's estate at Shane's castle, Antrim, and had come from California to assert his right, was cortilled as a innatic and was committed to an asy-

The sad news reached Belfast of the Leath in Brighton, Sept. 17, of Frank McGiede of the well known firm of P. & T. McGiade.

Charles L. McLorinan, M. A., LL. D., of the firm of Messrs. Sheals & Mc-Lorizzau, solicitors, Beifast, has received intimation that the lord lieutenant has assigned to him his majesty's commission of peace for the borough of Beliest.

ARMAGH.—The United Irish league making good headway in this coun-The Gaelle league is also doing

The remains of John Kane of Mully leggan, near Blackwatertown, were interred in Clonfeacle graveyard on Sept. is amid manifestations of regret. The deceased had attained to the age of 103 years, having spent the greater part of his life in the district. He was much respected in the neighborhood, and the funeral cortege was representative of all classes. The Rev. Canon McOscar officiated.

Atam special court held in Armagh Sept. 18 John Grimes, chimney sweep, and William John Nicholson, clerk, were charged with the murder of Charles Haughey. It was decided to send the prisomers forward for trial to the Armagh assizes next March, ball being allowed, each to bind himself in £100 and two sureties of £75 each.

CAVAN --- A meeting of the branch of Arva town tenants was held intely and had under consideration the proceedings mgalust Peter Mulligan, treasuror of the branch, by his landlord, John H. Vance of Belfast. A resolution was adopted tendering to Mr. Mulligan their support in his effort to retain the busihear and premises held by him during the last fifteen years.

Superner-like weather prevailed Sept. 20, which the fifth annual show under the auspicer of the County Cavan Agricultural society was held in Cavan. The show in the county town has come to be considered the premier slow of the county. A main of £800 was expended within the past few years in the acquisition and equipment of the new grounds, second to none in Ulster. The entries this year, which totaled over 3,000 showed an all round increase of 300. In the cattle and horse classes a marked improvement was visible. Thoroughbred ataillons were the only class missing, but in all other departments; the sorts shown evoked the favorable comment of the judges.

DERRY .-- Mrs. Annie McCloskey of -60 Stanley's walk. Dorry, died Sept. 23, deeply and widely mourned.

W weeddings was solernnized in the Glen Church, Maghera, Sept. 9, with muptial mass, by Right Rev. Mgr. Mc-Gurk. The happy couple joined in wedlock were W. Riordan, son of the Bate William Riordan, Glanmire, Cork, and Miss Edina J. Troddyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troddyn, Maghers. The Eriends of Rev. Bernard Cassidy will lie sorry to liear of his death, which occurred lately at his mother's residence, Halfguin, Maghera. DONEGAL. -- Peter Kelly, Mall House, Bally shannon, died Sept. 24. cleoply regretted. The funeral to Abber Assarce was very numerously at-

The Crough Cumann na nGaedheal d their second cellidh of the season saiely Before the ceilidh they trans-Canbon and Hugh Maguire to attend the conference in Mountcharles and arrange regarding the great campu paraile. The boys and girls of Crongb and districts have promised to turn out in large numbers on the caman parade and make a good showing in Mountcharles. Two Gaelic leaguers from Dublin, P. Bradley and H. O'Nelli, attended the ceilidh and taught the youth of Charles Lies Trial dances Miss Annie Doberty of Kilcar showed step Cancing, and Miss Mary Doherty of Kilcan sang Erish songs. Striking Dasmages from Irish history were read by some members, Mr. O'Nelll and Mr. Bridley of Dublin sang Irish songs, as GM Connel Ward of Carker. The chairman delivered a very nice address. ion McGrath gave an address in Erish urging the boys and girls to reshemiselves as Iriah boys and meet themselves as Irish boys and with and to compel the respect of oth-He asked them to show the stuff Croagh was made of on the caman conwention in Mountcharles. The proceedme wound up with the singing of the Rising of the Moon."

A large meeting in connection with he establishment of the Guelle Hurlclub was held in the Literary inhate Latterkeurs, recently, James scoles preseding Present: Bernard Br. L. V. F. Letterkenny: White McPadden, auctioneer, Letterency Heavy Gallagher, Letterkenny, colo Campbell Letterkenny, B. Sampele, Jr. Letterkenny, Patrick

Priestr Jr., Philip Hay head attper-catedom: Donegal District asylum; to McRise F. Molloy Charles Ward, rice (billing John Colling Col

Downes, John McGinley, John Blake, Patrick Sweeney, James Devine, John McClenn, John McMonagle, John Doh erty, James Peoples, U. I. L., L. N. F.: P. McCay, t'at McDermott and others.

DOWN.-At a meeting of the Newry division of the Ancient Order of Hiber nians on Sept. 17 it was resolved to sever connection with the Glasgow soclety and to affiliate with the board of FERMANAGH .-- On Sept. 15 Hugh Creegan was before a special court at Lisnaskea, charged with having murdered John Gardiner, farmer. Prisoner was defended by Mr. Murphy, Clones Accused was again remanded.

A meeting of the tenants on Lord Erene's Glenawley estate was beid at Letterbeen lately, Mr. Carson presiding. The tenants agreed to offer the following terms--viz, 6 shillings in the £1 on first term and future tenancies, the banging gate to be canceled (half a year's rent), and sporting rights re served to the tenants; 4 shillings on second term rents, hanging gate to be canceled, and sporting rights reserved to the tenants. The tenants asked for 3% per cent interest until completion of sale on first and second term rents. W. T. Scott acted as secretary to the meeting. With regard to the purchase of the Crom and Killinick estates, the tenants decided to buy at twenty years' each tenant.

competition 21.

TYRONE,-Lord Charlemont, C. B., took seriously ill Sept. 20 at his residence on Coney island, County Armagh. He intended to return to Drumcairie, but owing to the nature of his, illness Dr. Stoddart Walker advised him to remain on the island. A number of risitors were invited to Drumcairne, but the invitations had to be postponed.

Munster

CLARE. - Rev. William Armstrong was presented with a gold cross, traveling rug and an umbrella by his friends in Ennis on Sept. 17 on his branches of the league throughout leaving for Sandhurst, Australia.

On Sept. 17 the Rev. John McKeen, the chapel attached to the Convent of met terrace, Killarney. Mercy, Ennis. Father McKeon is or- LIMERICK.-The death was lately low. Esther Byrne.-Byrne.-Byrne.-Byrne. dained for the archdiocese of Mel announced of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald of bourne and will shortly leave Ireland. Rock Lodge, Glin, at the age of 114 The following clergymen and sted the years. During the greater part of her bishop: Very Rev. Dean Phelan, Mel- life she enjoyed perfect health and up bourne; Very Rev. Canon Bourke, pres- to a year ago was able to sew and knit ident, and Rev. J. Enright, St. Flan, without the aid of spectmeles. nan's college, Ennis; Very Rev. Canon McMahon, Clarecastle; Rev. R. O'Connell, St. Flannan's college; Rev. D. O'Dea, Ennis; Very Rev. Father Bernard, guardian, O. F. M., Ennis.

Mrs. P. Bugler of Castleroberts Bantry, fell from a window of the ry Benignus. stores on to the roadway, a distance of twenty feet, and sustained fatal in-Juries. Christian schools of Youghal have ber of exhibitions, prizes and honors at the recent intermediate examinations. They have been awarded three exhibitions of $300 and prizes to the value of $60. The death lately of Sister Bridged daughter of Jeremiah Murphy of Bailygriggan, Castletownroche, occurred he has been compelled to seek the at the Mercy convent, Abbeyfeele, County Limerick. On Sept. 17 a fels was held at Donaskeigh under the presidency of Rev. M. Ryan, Knockayilla. The programme was of an exhibitive character and han, Loughnavotta, Roscres, who celemainly carried out by pupils learning brated the one hundred and fourth an-Itish in the classes taught at Knocks- niversary of her birthday in March Nells, Connell Harkins, I. N. F.; W. Irish touchers, from Kerry. The prin-Gallagher, Michael Lafferty, William cipal part of the programme was devoted to the rendering in Irish of a be about to a few days before her to help themselves. three act play entitled Shawn as-Scoob." Among the clergy present were: Very Rev. ('amon A. Ryan, Rev. T. O'Meara, Rev. J. Nolan, Cappamore, and Rev. Father Conrov.

> A representative gathering of Queenstown men assembled lately in the Queenstown Young Men's society hall to pay a tribute to the Rev. Joseph F. English on his departure for St. Louis. Among those present were the Rev. C. W. Corbett, president and spiritual director of the Young Men's society; the Rev. J. F. English, Messrs. J. Long. chairman ('ork man ('ork harbor board; J. Twomey, U. D. C.; J. O'Leary, P. Savage, J. Barry, G. Mahony, P. Mabony, A. Higgins, J. Murray, John Murphy, Jerome B. Murphy, J. Mensworth, G. English, A. McGrath, J. McCarthy. honorable secretary; J. Connell, T Walsh, honorable treasurer Q. Y. M S., and others. Recent Deaths in Cork.--CORRIGAN

-On Sept. 20, at Peterborough, Glyasheen. Edmozid Corrigan, secretary Cork Agricultural society.--- BARRY-On Sept. 14, at Rhincrew, Youghal John Barry, aged eighty-siz years .-HAYES-On Sept. 19, at Myrtleville John Joseph Hayes, aged thirteen years .- BARRY-On Sept. 10, at his residence, 4 Cathedral street, of pneumonia, George Barry, cooper, late Beamish & Crawford's. DUGGAN-On purchase for first term rents and twen- Sept. 10, at St. Patrick's Incurable hosty-three for second, with a half year's pital, Joseph Duggan, North Abbey abatement, turbury to be provided for Square, North Mall.-M'GRATH-On Sept. 10. at 7 Woodlawn view, St. MONAGHAN.—The first Monaghan Luke's, Mary McGrath, Queenstown, fels was held in Carrickmacross on aged eighty-three years.----NUNANtwo days recently. In the evenings On Sept. 11, at Clock House, Mallow successful concerts were given by the Nano Nunan.—CAREW-On Sept. 10 Drize winners, assisted by Cathal Mc at Cork, Peter Carew, late of Lismore, Garvey and Miss S. Hallisey, Dublin. -(OLEMAN-On Sept. 8, in Eng-Padraig O'Daly, secretary of the Gaelle land, Patrick Coleman, Rockhill .league, delivered an address at the fels BENNETT-On Sept. 10, at Clareview concert. Father O'Ciarin, Maghera Limerick, Helena Mary Bennett, secclone, delivered as address, in which and daughter of Mrs. EAH. O'Callahe complimented the competitors. The ghan, Clareview, aged twenty-two following is a list of the prize winners years.—HARRINGOR Sept. 9, Julia Literary competitions, essays in Irish Harris Funeral from St. Finbarr's on Heber MacMahon and the six West, for St. Joseph's cemetery.-Monaghan men who had most influence COLEMAN-At 17 Liberty street, Miin Irish history, first prize, Annie Flu- chael Coleman, -- O'FLYNN-At egan, Carrickmaeross; second prize. Marlborough street, Michael O'Flynn, James Campbell, Broomfield; Brigid ni aged thirty-one years. - WALKER-Tuatalnin. Best sketch of Monaghan On Sept. 16, at St. Partrick's hospital history, first prize, James F Camp Cork, William Joseph Walker. SEY bell who also won essay on the ex MOUR-On Sept. 16, at the convent, tinct industries of the county. Unpub Carrigtwohill, Johanna Seymour, aged lished story or poem taken down from eighty six, sister of the late Rev. Richoral narration. Anna Murray, first; and Seymour, P. P., Carrigt wohld .third. List of plants, names, etc., Rose hospital, Cork, Mary Murphy, Killumspoken English of County Monaghan, liam Malonev, aged a inety-six years. will shortly arrive at Donaybrook. Pairick Campbell, first; Rev. L. O'Ciar. -- HENNESSY -At 5 Back Water-Dineen's dictionary, Maggie Ward, 17, at Kilmacsimon, Bridget Barrett. first; Patrick Campbell, second. Col. aged 15 years. -- MUR PHY- On Sept. lection of unpublished stories, Rose 14, at Ballycoure-ening. Upton, Michael Kelly and Catt at Neachtain tie for Murphy, aged fifty nine years,-DAfirst prize. List of place names, Syl. LY-On Sept. 14, at Monard, Hannah, vester Duffy and Joe Lambe a tie. List wife of John Daly, Glencoum, Grenagh. Rev. L. O'Clarin, C. C., first. School Abern, late of Carrigthomas. -- HUGcollections, the prizes were divided be. GINS-On Sept. 15, at 112 Evergreen tween Drumguasact, Lisdoonan and road, Daniel Huggins - FITZGER-Magoney National schools. For branch ALD-On Sept. 15, at Main street, Midcollections Magheracloone branch was dieton, Kate Fitzgerald. -- CREMENawarded first prize in each case and At 10 High street, Ellie Cremen, daugh-Monoghan branch got second prize in ter of David Doyle .-- O'BRIEN-On Sept. 21, at 41 Friar's walk, Mrs. Ellen O'Brien FORDE-Oh Sent. 22. at the North Fever hospital, Florence Forde, Ballymurphy, Upton. -- O'CAL-LAGHAN-On Sept. 21 at Old Court, > Rochestown, Timothy O'Callaghan. KERRY .-- E. O'Sullivan, secretary of the East Kerry executive of the Unit. ed Irish league, received $25 from the standing committee of the league at Dublin toward the erection of a hut for raduff, convenient to the but establish-Kerry Nationalists have given subscriptions toward the project, and at ecutive it was urged that the various East Kerry contribute.

The death at a youthful age and Elafield, County Meath, was raised to after a brief illness of Mrs. P. J. Flemthe dignity of the priesthood by the ing, wife of Patrick J. Fleming, Na-Most Rev. Dr. Fogerty, bishop of Kill- tional teacher and secretary to the latice, from whom he had previously re- Munster fels in 1904 and 1905, and the F. R. C. S.—WALSH—Sept. 20, at 138 ceived the other holy orders. The im- daughter of John Breen, High street, Right Cottage, S. C. R., Catherine pressive ceremonial was carried out in Killarney, took place lately at 5 km. Walsh, formerly of Rathcoole.

On Sept. 10 the impressive geremony of reception took place in the chapel of St. Michael's Presentation convent. Portarlington. The young lady who received the veil from the Rev. E. O'Leary, pastor, Portarlington, assisted by Adare died Sept. 12, deeply regretted. Rev. M. Brophy, is the third eldest CORK, Michael Ward, employed in daughter of Mr. Ryan, Murroe. She Lodge, Brixton Hill, Emma Sabberton Mr. Bigg's corn stores on the quay, took in religion the name of Sister Ma- Price.—LEWIS-Sept. 15, at St. Vin-

The death of John Collins, Balamona, Kilmailock, took place recently. TIPPERARY.--At a recent meeting of the Clonmel technical committee Mr. this year again carried off a great num- Kennedy, Irishtown, Clommel, was appointed Irish teacher at the Central technical school, in room of Professor Mandillon, resigned.

> The Rev. J. Laricin, O. S. F., of the Friary, Carrickbeg, left lately en route for the Franciscan mission at Sydney, distinguished themselves both as to New South Wafes. Owing to ill health southern climate. Father Larkin was rather difficult task in selecting the presented with a purse of sovereigns.

The death is armounced as having taken place lately of Mrs. Mary Feefills and Domastelets by the native last, having been both in 1801. She was bardly ever sick and was able to a little self sacrifice and determination rent year. death.

The death of Thomas Tobin, But-Sept. 6.

At a meeting of the Montanavoe Gaelic league branch held lately Jeremish Grogan presided. The following Kennedy, seconded by William Hughes and passed in silence: "That we tender to our esteemed friends and brother members, John, Roger and Hugh Morrissey, our sincere sympathy for the beceavement they sustained through relved from the collector in aid of the the death of their dear mother, who was respected by all who knew her." WATERFORD. - The nuptiels of

Daniel Stokes and Miss Agues Moloney were duly solemnized at the parish church, Dungarvan, lately by Rev. P. O'Connor. The death of William Fitzgerald, baker and grover occurred unexpect. edly at his residence. Main street, Cappoquin, lately after a very brief iliness. On July 7 Dr. Gaughren bishop of Kimberley, assisted by the Rev. Father Morin, O. M. I., gave the white vell to Miss Frances Shanahan of Park terrace. Dungarvan, who will henceforth be known as Sister M. Francis.

Leinster

CARLOW .-- On Sept. 6, at Ballybrack, Borris, Patrick Breen died after a tedious illness.

On Sept. 14 a workman in the employment of Mr. Norton of Bagnalstown Mills, named Peter Jones, had a narrow escape from death. Jones, while engaged in plastering, was working on a scaffolding, and while adjusting a ladder he lost his balance and fell fifty feet and was precipitated into the river Barrow, which flows adjacent to the concerns. He was afterward treated by Dr. Delaney for injuries to the spine, etc., which are not believed likely to be fatal, and was removed to Bagnalstown hospital.

The death of John Foley, Portrition, took place on Sept. 14. As a result of the generous bequest of the late Mrs. Mct'ann, the widow of the late James McCann, M. P., of Dublin, whose philanthropy was well known, the nuns of the Order of the Poor Clares Colletinnes will shortly take up their abode in a convent at St. Damien's, Simmonscourt road, Donnybrook. The order, of which there is Rose Kelly, second; Padraig Campbell, MURPHY-On Sept. 18, at the Victorial only one house at present in Irelandat Carlow-Graigne-is the severest in Kelly and Annie Finegan, Maghera nev .- MEWAN-On Sept. 16, at 21 the Catholic church. It is said that a closue, tied for first place. List of Warren's place, James McEwan, son of number of young ladies in Dublin inanimals, etc., Rose Kelly and Lizzie James McEwan of Glasgow .-- MALO. tend seeking admission to the order, Ward. List of Irish words used in the NEY-On Sept. 16, at Ballina mill, Wil. and nine nuns from Carlow-Graigue

DUBLIN.-A special meeting of the in and James Murray a tie for sec. course, Michael Hennessy, aged twen. standing committee of the United Irish ord place. List of words por found in ty-two years. - BARRETT-On Sept. league was held in the league offices, Upper O'Connell street. Dublin. Sept 20, for the purpose of making arrangements for the autumn campaign in the spirit of the resolution passed at the last meeting of the national directory. John E. Redmond, M. P., preof surnames used in County Monaghan, -AHERN-On Sept. 14, Catherine sided. Applications from various parts of the country for speakers for public meetings were considered and arrangements made to secure the attendance of members of the Irish party in the various districts from which invitations have been received.

B. J. O'Flaherty, solicitor, Enniscorthy, was united in wedlock to Miss Frances Lewis, daughter of T. Lewis, Durath, Sutton. The ceremony took place at Howth ('atholic church, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Father Healy, Sutton.

Recent Deaths in Dublin -- BRADY-Sept. 19, at her residence, 6 Church street, North Wall, Marcella Brady.---COWELL-Sept. 18, at Rose Cottage, Enniscrone, John Cowell, aged eightyan evicted tenant. Denis Heaty of Ba. two years.-MORAN-Sept. 18, at Raystown, Ratoath, County Meath, Joed by the authorities. A number of seph Moran, in his seventy eighth year. -NEARY-Sept. 19, at St. Vincent's hospital, Edward Neary, 15 South Anne the last meeting of the East Kerry ex-Buth avenue, Thomas Walker .--WALSH-Sept. 18, at 5 Florina Villa, Terenue park, Sarah Agnes Walsh.-WHILAN-Sept. 19, at Cowpark House, Athy, Daniel Whelan, aged eighty-three.--NOWLAN-Sept. 20, at 59 Amiens street, Mrs. Marion Nowlan, widow of the late Dr. J. P. Nowlan, BYRNE-Sept. 18, at Ballytoney, Wick-16. at 2 Mucphy's Cottage, Gouriner place Christopher Byron -- COUSING -Sept. 17. at the Hospice For the Dying, Haroldseross, William, aged thirtythree years, only son of the late Wilham and Catherine Cousins of Bathfarnham.—DONNELLY—Sept. 17, at Bemburb terrace, Richmond road, Kathleen Donnelly .-- O'BRIEN-Sept. 17, at Celbridge, Mary Jane O'Brien.-OFARRELL—Sept. 17, at Nenagh,

Christian O'Farrell, at an advanced age.—PRICE-Sept. 14, at Essex ent's, Fairview, Sister Cecella Lewis, in the fiftieth year of her age and the twenty-third of her religious vocation. KILDARE .-- On Sept. 19, at Coolinarig, Baltinglass, Daniel McDonnell, aged fifty-seven years. On Sept. 14 a successful course of manual instruction in wood work was brought to a close in Leixlip, when Mr. Faveli, the county organizer, distributed prizes of tools to those students who regular attendance and merit in the work turned out. Mr. Favell had a most meritorious of the large number. of pupils that attended the class. The average attendance was remarkably good, owing largely to the energy and practical business capacity of Mr.

was possessed of remarkable vitality of their future welfare depends upon senior grade exhibitioners of the cur

KILKENNY -- At a largely attended meeting of the members of the Castlelerstown, Carrick-on-Suir, happened comer United Irish league fately, at which the following, among others. were present-Rev. M. J. McGrath in the chair, Messrs. J. P. Fogarty, Abraham Coady, Cornellus O'Brennan, J. resolution was proposed by Michael Quina, Denis O'Carroll, W. Bradley, Martin O'Brennan (M.), Thomas Brennan (B.). Bryan Kavanagh, Patrick Coady, Patrick Corcoran, George Lacey, Patrick Ryan, Walter Coady, James Fogurty-subscriptions were reparliamentary fund.

KING'S .-- Very Rev. J. Bergin, pastor, Philipstown, attended the funeral of late Rev. Father Arnoux, Inchecore, Dublin, on Sept. 18.

A meeting of the tenants on the Edenderry estate of the Marquis of Downshire was held for the purpose of considering terms of purchase in common with the tenants on the other portions of the estate.

On Sept. 20 John Corcoran, coroner for South King's county held an inquest at Ballinacard, about eight miles from Birr, touching the death of Mrs. Anne Condron, sixty years. She was getting water from a well arched over and approached by eight stone steps, when she slipped on a topmost step, and, falling forward, her head struck the bottom step. Rendered unconscious and rolling into the well, she was drowned in fifteen inches of water. Only a few months before the unfortunate woman saved the life of a child that had fallen into the same well in which she met her own end.

LONGFORD.-The Right Rev. Dr. Hoare, bishop of Ardagh and Clonmacnoise, has made the following promotion in his diocese; the Very Rev. James Canon O'Farrell, P. P., V. F., St. Brigid's, Ardagh, to be vicar general.

The Misses O'Flanagan, Grenard, who conducted an establishment which for the past fifty years was among the leading business houses of the town, have retired and have gone to reside at Kingstown.

A painful shock was caused in Longford Sept. 8 by the startling news of the death of Michael Clyne of Earl street, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the town. MEATH .- Rev. John McKeon, Enfield, was ordained priest by Right Rev. I)r. Fogarty, bishop of Killaloe, Sept. 17, in the Convent of Mercy, Ennis. He will leave Ireland soon to take up missionary duties in the archdiocese of Melbourne. WESTMEATH.—Sister Brigid Murphy, daughter of Jereminh Murphy, Castletown Roche, died at the Mercy convent, Abbeyfeale, Limerick, Sept.

. 17, very sincerely regretted. Right Rev. Dr. Matthew Gaffney, dishop of Meath, in the Freeman's Journal of Sept. 20 published his farewell letter to the people of the diocese. It was very touching.

WEXFORD.-The vocal and musical entertainment arranged by the Gorey Catholic Young Men's society was brought off lately before a large and appreciative audience. The entertainment opened by Mr. Warrington giving selections on the gramophone, among them being the following charming Irish airs: "Come Back to Erin," "The Vale of Ovoca," "The Low Backed Car," "The Harp That Once," "Widow Machree," as well as several comic and sentimental songs, all of which were received with the greatest enthusiasm. The musical part of the entertainment was well supplied by Messrs. M. J. Redmond, fiddle; John Murphy, fideog, each item of which was received with well merited applause.

Mrs. Cardiff teacher of Ballycullane Female National school, has retired on pension after a period of thirty years' faithful service under the commissioners of national education.

A meeting was held lately in the town hall, Wexford, for the purpose of forming an executive of the United Irish league for South Wexford. Peter Ffrench, M. P. for South Wexford, presided, and the following were also present: Wexford-Messrs, J. J. Kehoe, M. Doyle, N. Hanrahan, S. Mc-Guire, D. R. Keating, N. J. Cosgrave; Barntown and Glynn-J. Clancy, P. Kehoe, John Whelan; Bannow-J. A. Mayler, Nicholas Moore, Andrew Devereux; Ladys Island-John P. Keating; Piercestown and Murrintown-Thomas Devereux, James Brett, John Scallan; Taghmon-Gregory Walsh, P. J. Bogan, Thomas Hunt, William Power, J. Doyle; Rathangen - James Furling Joseph Murphy, Nicholas Barry, Richard Roche; Kilmore-Richard Dillon, John Cardiff, James Sinnott, Peter Parle: Ramsgrange - John Cummina Jack Cummins; Horsewood - Rev: P. Sinnott and Thomas Flanagen.

WICKLOW --- A rather startling development took place lately in connection with the labor dispute at the Parnell quarry, which is an important local industry. Last week a number of set makers were imported from the North of Ireland to take the place of those affected by the lockout and to renew the set making for the purpose of executing portions of the large orders in hands, received at the time the dispute commenced in April last. The men imported belonged to the Set Makers' union, which backed up the action of the men on the lockout, and when the strangers became aware of the circumstances connected with the dispute they threw up work and went

Connaught

GALWAY .-- The nuns of the Dominican convent have reason to be proud, of the success of their pupil. Miss Donovan, who closes her intermediate ca. of the late Brian O'Dowd, Greenwood, Greene, the instructor, who spared no reer with the distinction, among othe Kingiass, at the early age of thirty-five pains to make his pupils feel how much ecs, of being the first on the list of years.

The death of the well known comic song writer, R. J. Martyn of Ross, County Galway, took place lately in his stry-fifth year.

The funeral of the late Miss Kathleen Josephine Brucken, Dunlo street, Ballinaslee, took place on Sept. 9, to the family burying ground at Greagh. It was one of the largest seen in Ballinaslee for some time, and the cortege testified to the esteem in which not only the deceased but her parents were held by all classes. The Children of Mary, of which body the deceased was an active and devout member, marched in processional order behind the hearse and accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

Sister Mary Attracta O'Carrell passed away recently, consoled by the ministrations of holy church at the Convent of Mercy, Galway, and deeply regretted by the sisterhood.

On Sept. 17 a grand Gaelic tournament was held in Portumna for the purpose of raising funds for the families of prisoners who were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment at the last Galway assizes for their fight against the grazing system. Immediately after the tournament a public meeting was held. A government note taker attended. J. Cosgrove was moved to the chair. There were also present J. Roche, M. P.; M. Reddy, M. P.: P. Lacken, president G. A. A.: J. Morrissy, J. Mullen, P. Nevin, W. Hogan, W. Glynn, Portumna; M. Kenna, P. Heenan, J. Kennedy, M. Kelly, Borrisokane; M. Hogan, L. Walsh, Birr (No. 2); P. McLoughney, J. Spain, Nenagh; M. J. Page, J. Farrell, Woodford; J. J. Hough, P. Saunders, P. Hara, J. Harvey, P. Keady, Killmore; P. J. O'Loughlin, P. Higgisson, T. Sweeney, M. Keady, Loughren; T. O'Meara, M. Donobue, J. P.; J. Reddin, M. Walsh, Lorrha. The following bands and contingents were present: Arderoney, County Tipperary, Killoran, Kilimore, Tynagh, Mullagh, LEITRIM.—On the motion of William O'Connor, seconded by Michael Rey. noids, the Rev. F. Doherty was unanimously appointed chaplain to the workhouse, Mohill.

On Sept. 18 two lads named Colgans met an untimely end in attempting to cross Lake Garradice, near Ballinamore, in a small boat. The water was choppy and their frail craft capsized when some distance from the shore. Before any one could render assistance the two lads sank and did not rise. Their bodies were recovered soon afterward, and at the inquest held by Dr. Mulcahy a verdict of accidental death was returned.

The annual general meeting of the South Leitrim executive of the United Irish league was held recently in the Market House, Ballinamore. The following branches were represented: Ballinamore, Fernagh, Carrigallen, Cavan, Auchavas Auchanshadin Deur Upper, Drumrelly Lower and Mohili. Dr. Patrick Mulachy, the outgoing president, occupied the chair, MAYO .-- The axle of a motor car, the property of W. H. D. Livingstone. Beiciare House, Westport, broke while traveling. Mr. Morrison, the manager of Mr. Livingstone's brewery, was thrown from the car and sustained a fracture of the skull. He lies in a precarious vondition.

A wedding ceremony took place at Kiltimagh parish church on Sept. 17. the contracting parties being Constable James Doberty of Bohola and one time of Kiltimagh arid Miss Bebe Brennan, daughter of Mrs. Mary Brennan of Currahoore, near Kiltimagh. The ceremony was performed by thet Rev. D. O. O'Hara.

A meeting of the South Mayo Executive of the United Irish league was held in the league rooms, Claremorris, recently. Delegates were present from Claremorris, Ballyhaunis Knock, Irishtown, Ballindine, Robeen, Loughern, Barnacarroll, Hollymount, Mayo Abbey, Balla, etc. There were also present Conor O'Kelly, M. P.; John O'Donnell, M. P.; M. Delany, T. Brett and T. Burke, joint secretary: T. Heraghty. chairman Ballinrobe district council; M. F. Waldron, J. Brannick, W. J. Curran, organizer; P. Lyons and others. Conor O'Kelly, M. P., was moved to the chair.

ROSCOMMON.-The death of Andrew Hanly of Eslaun occurred Aug. 30 and was deeply regretted. He was at his usual farming operations on Aug. 26, when he was suddenly taken ill. Medical skill was unavailable, and, surrounded by his sorrowing family and friends and fortified by the rites of the holy Catholic church, he passed away.

A STATE OF

· 3; k--

for the second

akani.

ad The

174 50

THE REAL PROPERTY.

The death of Thomas O'Rellly took place on July 23 at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Michael Reynolds, Knockhall, Roskey, at the age of seventy-eight years. He was the father of George O'Reilly of Strokestown and one of the most popular figures in Gaelic circles in the county.

Thomas McDonagh, presided at a recent meeting of the Conway Cross branch of the United Irish league. There were also present J. Conion, B. Sommers, B. Macdonough, O. Heylan, P. Fouley, P. McGowan, J. Lang. J. Brebeny, M. Scanlon, P. Corcoran, M. Dowd, J. Taheny, T. Duignan, J. Boles, P. McKone, O. McHugh and T. Collery.

Much regret was felt in Tobecurry district at the death of John Cully of. Toberscarden, which took place on Aug. 25 at the age of seventy-six years. For some time deceased was in very indifferent bealth, but it was hoped that the care of his relatives would have resulted in his restoration.

On Aug. 26 the remains of the late Mrs. John Harte were laid to rest in the Sligo cemetery. She was aged eighty years.

The death took place at the Convent. of St. Patrick, Lisbon, on Aug. 20, of Mother Reine de Jesus, third daughter