AUBURN.

The parish fair at Groton opened on Tuesday night with a large attendance. The fair was opened by remarks from the pastor, Rev. J. B. Doran, who outlined the program for the carrying out of the fair. On Tuesday night Lynch and Manthey, two Auburn professionals, were on the program as Master Joseph Yount in black face work. On Wednesday night Walter Miles, Auburn's sweetest baritone, sang two selections and Lynch and Manthey also did their juggling act. The fair continued up to Friday night when it closed with a dance which was largely attended. A goodly sum was realized from the fair.

There was a very pretty wedding at St. Mary's church on Monday morning when Miss Anna McDermott became the bride of John E. Stapleton. The young people are among the best known people of the city and many of their friends gathered at the church to see them married. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. William Maheron pastor of the church. The breakfast was served at the home of the bride on Lewis St. After a brief wedding tour they will be at home to their friends in Park Place this city.

Cook Opera House.
 A circus in the miniature will be the principal offering in the bill of vaudeville to be presented next week at the Cook Opera House. This will consist of a number of ponies and other animals exhibited by a Frenchman named Bezac. It is stated that the offering is an unusual one, employing an unusual number of performers. Clay Clement, the famous German character comedian will present his delightful one act playlet, "The Baron's Love Story" Ferry Corwey, a clown from the New York Hippodrome; Matthews and Ashley, and Mullen and Corelli, two capital comedy acts; "A Night in Venice," and Jack Gardner will complete the strong list of entertainers, who will be seen twice every day next week. To-morrow night a concert will be given.

BAKER THEATRE
 A week of Shakespeare in which the company scored a success, both individually and as an organization, in which the business was unusually large and the praise and approval of the audiences were unstinted; is to be followed by the Moore Stock Company at the Baker Theatre with a screaming farce comedy—the same kind of a play that packed the theatre to the doors several weeks ago. In "Why Smith Left Home" the company has excellent opportunities to display this talent. It is one of George H. Broadhurst's funniest plays and has been a hit all over the country. On Monday afternoon the company will give its one hundredth performance and to celebrate it, handsome new souvenirs of Bert Lytell will be presented to the ladies. On that day also Miss May Stockton will make her first appearance with the company. Matinees will be given on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday.

Very low round trip rates to Pacific Coast via Nickel Plate Road. $69.50 Buffalo to Portland, Seattle or Tacoma and return. Tickets on sale every day. HASH FOR BREAKFAST

It is good when it isn't the comic-paper-boarding-house kind. But to make hash requires chopping, and the use of the chopping bowl and knife early in the morning disturbs the household, besides being laborous.

Sargent's Gem Food Chopper will enable you to prepare hash without noise, and it is useful in this preparation of many other dishes, dainty and substantial. It is carefully made and nicely tinned; self-cleaning and self-sharpening. It chops all kinds of meat, both raw and cooked, fruits, vegetables, crackers, bread, eggs, cheese, nuts and other foods. Chops easily, quickly and quietly; is easy to take apart, easy to put together, easy to adjust.
