Changed My House from Darkness into Sunshine.

Mr. J. Crogan, of Somerville, Mass., 23 Dana Avenue, writes as above in regard to the effect with Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic had on St. Vincent's, with which his daughter was afflicted, and after a total week the Tonic restored her completely to good health.

Mrs. A. McCormick, 114 Pfeiffer St., San Francisco, Cal., praises Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic very highly. She used several bottles of the Tonic almost every kind of patent medicine which was recommended to her, but the Tonic cured her all. She thinks that she would have been dead if it had not been for the Tonic.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Four Dollars also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of St. Vincent's, N. Y. Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle, 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $9.

CANANDAIGUA

Mrs. Mary Cranon, who died last week, was prayed for Sunday.

Father Dougherty visited the county house Sunday p.m. and preached to the inmates. At present there are sixty-two in the institution of whom probably fifteen or twenty are Catholics.

Next Sunday is the Sunday for the school collection and the Socially communion.

The pastor is busily engaged in arranging the pew diagram for the new church. The plan is to make a uniform price of $1.50 per sitting throughout the church. The numbers on the pews will correspond to the old numbering.

Married at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Daniel O'Brien of Parrish Street, and Miss Nellie O'Brien of Green Point.

The regular masses this week are, Mrs. P. Buckley, Tuesday; deceased members of L. C. B. A., Friday, and Mrs. Michael C. McCormack, Saturday.

The concert last Friday evening was greatly enjoyed by all who attended and it was pronounced the finest violin, piano, vocal and elocutionary work in Canandaigua for many a day. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burr were entertained at Mrs. J. L. McLaughlin's. Much credit belongs to Mrs. Lee for having arranged the concert. The people here were delighted to hear them all again at our coming fair, including Mr. Appy and Miss Rumsey.

The entertainment committee for the holiday fair met at Dr. Donovan's office Monday. They are aiming to get the best local and accessible out of town talent and will put on several good attractions every evening.

The many friends of Mrs. Owen Doyle will be pleased to know that she is making rapid improvement at the Memorial hospital and hopes to attend the new church dedication. Francis Murphy, Robert Flahive and John Healy have all returned to their homes.

AUBURN

The sudden death of William Quigley Sr. of Cottage street, aroused the sympathy of the large number of friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Mr. Quigley was a well known shoe worker being engaged in the business in Cottage St. He was sick one day and his death is a sad blow to his family. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning from his late home with services at St. Mary's church of which he was a member all his life. The burial was in the family plot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Mr. Quigley was a popular member of the C. M. B. A.

The next euchre party for the benefit of the treasury of the Willing Workers club of the Auburn Opera House will be given by Mrs. John Walsh of Pleasant street in the meeting rooms of the C. M. B. A. in Franklin St. The club is giving weekly parties for the deserving cause for which they are banded together. Cards will be played at 2:30 p.m. and every charity loving woman in the city is appealed to help swell the attendance. At the different gatherings it is decided to whom shall be allotted the honor of holding the next part, by this plan everybody is given a chance to help the orphan.

The fair given by the church at Groton was a decided success and great credit is due the people of this fast growing parish. The fair was held in the village Opera House and several contests made it interesting. Some of Auburn's best talent took part in the vaudeville entertainments.

On Thursday night the Auburn Council of Knights of Columbus gave a concert and dance to their friends in their rooms in Genesee St. A fine program of vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed by those present. After the concert an informal dance was held. During the evening refreshments were served by Brother Edward Purdy.

Among the coming events that are of exceptional interest to the Catholic people of the city as well as the music loving people is the concert that will be given under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus by the Irish Concert and Glee club of Dublin. This club is composed of Irish ladies who have won distinction in their native country by their fine singing. Each member of the club is a gold medal winner and the tour of the country will take in 80 weeks of concerts over the greater part of the United States. The date here is the second week in January and will be held in one of the halls of the city that is not under the ban of organized labor. This alone will insure a large crowd owing to the labor trouble at the two theatres in this city. Every Catholic and person of Irish descent should make this event one to be remembered in this city.

A fine Picture of Pope Pius X 16x20, given free to all subscribers paying one dollar in advance for the Journal.

WILLARD

Miss Mary Courtney has returned from a visit to New York City. Miss Mary Gavin visited at her home in Seneca Falls last week.

Mrs. Cecelia Harrigan of Canandaigua spent last week with her sister, Mrs. James Daily.

The marriage of Miss Mary Gilmore and Jules Neilson, both of Willard, took place on Nov. 8 at Holy Cross church in Ovid. Mgr. Hendrick officiated.

Mrs. Margaret Slight and William Barry will act as sponsors for the children of Willard, who will be confirmed on Sunday next.

Miss Lucy Condon of Buffalo State Hospital, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Donovan.

Miss Mary A. Rielly of the hospital, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Kate Rielly of Ovid, visited relatives in Penn Yan and Seneca Falls last week.

BAKER THEATRE

The Moore Stock Company has selected for a Thanksgiving offering at the Baker Theatre one of the most popular plays ever presented in Rochester, and one that is peculiarly in keeping with the Thanksgiving spirit. "The Dairy Farm" complete in every detail will be the bill all next week with an extra matinee Thanksgiving Day. The play holds the interest of the auditor from the start to the finish. The comedy, the tragedy and the pathos of daily life on a farm are faithfully presented. The audience is carried irresistibly on, the senses being swayed from one extreme to the other as the story unfolds. The picturesque country costumes and scenery and the many peculiar mannerisms of the country folk lend a charming fascination to the story in the telling. It breathes of nature, the meadows, the woods, the barn yard. It brings one back to rural life. A special matinee will be given Thursday, Thanksgiving.

Cook Opera House.

Cole and Johnson, the famous singers and composers are announced as the headline attraction at the Cook Opera House next week. Cole and Johnson have done much to elevate rag-time from its original crudeness and have given it an elegance of form, without sacrificing its infectious rhythm. There is hardly an important musical comedy that does not contain one or more of their numbers. Murphy and Nichols will present their laughable farce, "From Zaza to Uncle Tom." Murphy and Fredy will show their feats of strength; Chinko, a juggling clown; Young and DeVoe, famous dancers; Kern's mimic dogs, the Isidore Weiss Trio and James F. MacDonald will fill out the bill, which will be presented all the week with daily matinees. Houdine a great handoff expert is coming. A concert will be given to-morrow night.

NATIONAL THEATRE.

"How Baxter Butted In" a new melodramatic comedy will be produced by the Vance and Sullivan company at the National Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Nov. 27, 28, 29. This play is a decided novelty uniting as it has done the best features of a domestic drama, strong in sympathy and heart interest with the up-to-date songs and specialties of a modern musical comedy. The author is Mr. Owen Davis.

Loaded to the finger tips with fun and frolic, fast and furious is expressing mildly in what is promised upon the appearance of Florence Bindley, in "The Belle of the West" at the National Theatre for three days opening with a special matinee on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. Miners, cowboys, Chinaman and Indians form an array of characters seldom found in musical productions.
