

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTER-EST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

Uister

DEDICATED—The friends of Rev. Bernard Canby, who were sorry to hear of the death which occurred lately at his home in Lawrence, Hailagain, Niagara, Ontario, have the building of the new church of St. Charles, East Main St., in it. It will stand in the heart of the French Mission, and is a fine example of the architecture of 500 families. The church is four miles from the city, and is a fine example of the French Mission. The church is a fine example of the French Mission. The church is a fine example of the French Mission.

in the rock and, setting it fit to ornament paper, prepared by the light the woman's feet. The aperture is so narrow that it was with considerable difficulty that the woman was set out. She was a woman of mature age, having been married to her husband, but was restored to her husband by the ministrations of the gods. She was a woman of mature age, which are natural to the Himalayas. Only one hundred years ago, enough to be entered in the list of the Himalayas, when it was so narrow that it could only be entered by the ministrations of
the gods. She was a woman of mature
age, which are natural to the Himalayas. Only one hundred years ago, enough to be entered
in the list of the Himalayas, when it
was so narrow that it could only be entered by the ministrations of the gods.

Munster

Oct. 8, aged twenty-six years.

A very successful agoruidheacht was held in the Gaelic hall, Market street, Clonmel, Oct. 8. The attendance was large and followed with enthusiasm the various items, Gaelic and Anglo-Irish, on the programme. The following contributed: Miss E. Britton, Sea-and it was on the eve of his departure that the presentation was made. On the motion of W. F. Begley, seconded by Thomas Daly, Jeremiah Dempsey presided. Among those present were: John Flynn, secretary of the band; James Hogan, conductor; Laurence Heffernan, James Meade, James Donovan, P. Lincoln, James Hackett, Michael Corcoran, William Hendricks, Walter McCarthy, Maurice Hackett, Batt Doyle, Thomas Keane, J. F. Ryan. The chairman made some very appropriate remarks. Mr. Flynn then said: "Rev. Father Treacy, I have great pleasure in presenting you with this gold Celtic cross from the members of the band in return for the great interest you have taken in us since you arrived home, and we wish you many years of health and prosperity in the greater Ireland of the west." Mr. Flynn then handed the cross to Father Treacy amid continued applause, and Father Treacy made a very nice acknowledgment of the presentation.

June 19 last. The jury awarded $1,000.
 is the Bridgeline convent, Tullow.
 Sept. 23, was witnessed the imposing ceremony of religious profession. The young ladies who received the black veil are Miss Mary Frances Dunne (in religion Sister Margaret Mary), Miss Grace O'Farrell (in religion Sister Mary Joseph Anthony), Miss Annie O'Brien (in religion Sister Mary Joseph Xavier) and Miss Lucy Byrne (in religion Sister Mary Joseph Teresa). The Most Rev. Dr. Foley, bishop of Kildare and Leighlin, presided.

Recent Deaths in Dublin. — BRENNAN — On Oct. 8, at Holly Villa, Cabra, William P. Brennan, Mary's abbey.
 CARROLL — On Oct. 8, at 3 Peterson's lane, William Carroll, late of Lombard street. — DELANEY — On Oct. 7, at 3 Albert terrace, Dollymount, Michaela — DELANEY. — FANNELL — On Oct. 7, KILKILARE.—The death of Michael Lynch took place at Barrowhouse, Athy, after a lingering illness, on Oct. 6.

KILKENNY.—Sports and a regatta were held at Granah lately and gave a very enjoyable evening's amusement.

LONGFORD.—The death of Mrs Joseph Callahan of Clontearh, Newtownforbes, occurred lately.

LOUTH.—William Manning, C. E. died recently at his residence, Anneville, North road, Drogheda, after a very brief illness, at the age of sixty six.

QUEEN'S.—Dr. Higgins, coroner for Queen's county, held an inquest last night at Clonsilla on the body of John Keenan, farmer, aged seventy-six years, who died suddenly on Sept. 25 at Thomas Dunne's, Coolmaart. He deceased suddenly got weak in the yard and expired immediately. Evidence was given that on Sept. 25 he had complained of a great pain in the region of the heart, and Dr. Palmer, Ballyroan, deposed that in his opinion death was due to syncope from heart disease. The jury returned a verdict according WESTMEATH.—The death of Patrick Killian occurred at Dublin bridge Mullingar, on Oct. 8.

WEXFORD.—Rev. D. A. Kavanagh C. C., has been transferred from En-

WICKLOW.—On Oct. 1 occurred the death of Patrick McCarthy, Rathdrum, at the age of eighty-two years.

The new church in Tarmon was dedicated on Oct. 8 by Very Rev. James Dolan, vicar general, Manorbhamilton. The new church stands on the site of the old church, which was built in the thirties of last century by one of the most famous of Irish Catholic ecclesiastics, Rev. Tom Maguire.

SLIGO.—The young men of Temple boy held a meeting lately and decided to establish a library for use by the people of the district.

Under the auspices of the Tiorragh Gaelic Coláiste Ceannairí an examination of school children in the Irish language for the purpose of awarding prizes was held at Skreen. The examination was conducted by the Rev. John O'Donohoe, Dromore West, a distinguished Irish scholar and an ardent supporter of the Gaelic movement. There were also present Rev. John J. Melvin, president of the Tiorragh Coláiste Ceannairí; Rev. W. Healy, Skreen and Dromard; vice president, Dr. McNulty, treasurer, P. J. Kilgallen, J. Gilboil, J. Doodican, E. Mulligan, J. Conlan, J. Kilcullen, B. V. Kelly, E. Leonard. The proficiency displayed by the children was highly creditable, and the great difficulty with the examiner was to decide the winners. The following were awarded first prizes: Miss Mary A. May, Miss Sarah Cusack, Miss Mary J. Leonard; second prizes, Miss Lily Leonard, Miss Katie Mulligan, Miss Ellen Carvey; Miss Anne Garney, Miss Norah Clarke; third prizes, Miss Maggie Cusack, Miss Mary Gilgan, Miss Margaret Leonard; Miss Sarah J. Hurts.