FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Strength Has Improved.

Rev. E. Le Clifton, of St. Germain, New Mexico, writes about the effect of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for R. Martinez: "I suffered terribly of headache so much that it seemed as if my eyeballs were coming out and my stomach rejected all kind of food. For a long time I couldn't sleep during the night, but only a little during the day. I became so weak that I couldn't do any work without getting severe palpitation of the heart. At last a general nervous prostration resulted, which prevented me even from writing the simplest thing. As soon as I took the Tonic I felt the benefit of it. My strength has been improving all the time, and I am therefore very thankful for the valuable Tonic."

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample Bottle to any address. Please specify also the medicine prescribed by the Rev. Father Koenig, of West Wayne, Ill., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill., 100 Lake Street.
 Sold by Druggists at 25c per Bottle, 6 for $1.50, Large Size, $1.75; 6 Bottles for $10.

CANANDAIGUA
 Patrick Fulham has recently learned of the death of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Duck in New York, and the McPadden brothers of their mother in Ireland. Both were prayed for Sunday.

The Sodality card party netted $61. The school collection last Sunday amounts to $34.04 for the month.

Choral Society Wednesday evening. Mass and sermon Thanksgiving at 8 o'clock.

Miss Margaret Flanagan and William H. Murphy of Geneva, were married here Tuesday morning by Rev. S. McPadden. Reception at the home of Mrs. D. W. Berrigan, the bride's sister.

The requiem masses this week are Michael Tobey, anniversary, Monday; Mrs. Wm. Devine Tuesday; Mrs. Patrick Welch, Wednesday; deceased members of O. R. and B. A., Friday 8:30; Bernard Meath Friday at 8; months mind of Mrs. Wm. McMahon, Saturday.

First Friday this week, Rosary next Sunday.

Some difficulty is experienced in seating and satisfying the applicants for sittings in the new church. It was first planned to reserve the transepts for the children, but the large demand for pews makes it necessary to open up the south side for the people. It is hoped to secure arrangements by which there will be no room for complaint or grievance. All pew holders should settle so that accounts will not have to be carried over into the new church ledger. Diagrams will be distributed next Sunday.

DANSVILLE
 The Forty Hours devotion at St. Patrick's church was a grand success. Fr. Dunn was especially pleased with the large number who received the Sacraments. The total number of communions exceeded 400. The evening sermons by Rev. John J. Ryan, Rev. James H. Day and Rev. A. Hughes abounded in rich food for meditation. Special musical programs were rendered by the choir under the direction of Sister M. DeSales.

The Forty Hours devotion at St. Mary's church was largely attended and Father Kishel was extremely pleased with his people. Total number receiving holy communion 640. The evening sermons by Rev. Father Englar, the Redemptorist of Rochester, and Rev. Father Goffel of Rochester were very interesting.

St. Agnes Joseph presided at the organ owing to the illness of Sister M. Regis on Sunday.

Thanksgiving was celebrated with high mass at 8:15 a. m.

On Friday at St. Mary's church was celebrated a requiem high mass for deceased members of Br. 73, L. O. B. A.

Friday was the first Friday. Holy communion was given at 8 a. m. Mass at 8:15.

The young people of St. Patrick's church have organized among themselves a club, called the Y. O. A. Fraternity for the purpose of studying Irish poetry and prose. Following are the officers: President, Katherine A. Driscoll; vice-pres., Thomas Sheerin; sec., Marguerite McNeil; treas., Anthony McLaughlin; executive committee: Wm. F. Kelly, John Nagle, Lavinia Welch, Elizabeth Gunther. The society numbers about thirty young people. Success to them. Next meeting Dec. 4 with Mr. E. Kelly. Following is the program: Roll call answered by quotations from Irish poets; vocal solo, selected, Miss Elizabeth Gunther; reading, Miss Edna McFisher; declamation, Howard King; essay, Ireland the Land of Songs, Miss Blanche Dick; oration, Irish Poets, Anthony McLaughlin; declamation, Herbert Johantgen; vocal duet, selected, Misses Marie Byron, Lavinia Welch.

AUBURN
 The different churches in this city had special Thanksgiving Day services with sermons by the different pastors. The five churches were filled with people who gave thanks for the numerous blessings received during the past year.

The concert by the Irish Ladies choir of Dublin, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus will be held on January 11. The committee has been appointed to take entire charge of the affair and make it a success. The place for holding the concert has not been selected as yet owing to the labor trouble at both theatres.

The recent lecture by Rev. Father Dougherty of Syracuse, for the benefit of the baptismal font of St. Mary's church was a decided success. The committee reports a handsome sum realized for the worthy cause.

The attendance at St. Edward's mission is constantly increasing and is fast becoming the regular church of the residents of the western part of the city. The services are held at 10 o'clock on Sundays.

The choir of the different churches in this city are rehearsing for the usual Christmas music.

All the parochial schools of the city were closed on Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving celebration.

Cook Opera House.

Harry Houdini, a handoff expert, will be the headliner in next week's bill of vaudeville at the Cook Opera House. His specialty is escaping from handcuffs. It is said that there has not been invented a lock that will hold him. Last week in Detroit he submitted to the most difficult tests. He went to the police station of that city and was triple handcuffed and placed in a cell. He was striped to preclude the possibility of artificial aid. He appeared among the officers in something less than nine minutes, having removed the handcuffs, unlocked the cell door, dressed himself and looked the door behind him. He will give an exhibition of stage feats that are said to be wonderful. The Elinore Sisters, comedienne; Ed. F. Reynard, a ventriloquist; World's comedy Four, melody and mirth; Hooch Elton and company in a sketch Marens, Nevaro and Marensa, equilibrist and musical Johnstons, xylophone players will fill out the bill. Matinees daily.

BAKER THEATRE

Next week the Moore Stock Company will again be seen in high class drama at the Baker Theatre, production of A. R. Haven's historical play "Josephine, Empress of the French", having been carefully prepared. This play enjoys the distinction of having successfully carried Mlle. Rhea as a star for six seasons. The play is historical, it is educational, it is interesting, it is entertaining. It tells of loyalty, ambition, sacrifice and suffering, and enlists the whole sympathy of the audience for each of the leading characters who are in themselves at variance with each other. The play will be presented all next week with matinees, Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. At the Monday matinee souvenirs of Miss Hills will be given to the ladies. For the week beginning Dec. 11, a new play written by a Rochester boy, in which the scenes are laid in and near this city, will be presented for the first time on any stage. It is entitled "Alone in Rochester."

NATIONAL THEATRE.

The genial old philosopher "David Harum" with his epigrams, love of horses and bluff generosity, will be with us again next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when he will play his annual engagement at the National Theatre. William H. Turner who has played the title role for the last four years, is still with the company. There are three acts in the play and each act in itself is entirely enjoyable, so clever is the dramatic construction.

It is to mention the name only and the Byrne Brothers are remembered and greeted like old friends, simply because they do what they advertise and never disappoint the public. This season they are presenting their successful spectacular comedy entitled, "The New Eight Bells" with new and startling pantomimic tricks, wonderful mechanical effects and a host of novel surprises. The play will be seen at the National Theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday with the usual matinees.

Mrs. Henpeck—I'm a woman of few words.
 Mr. Henpeck—But you work those few for all they're worth.

The Viewpoint.
 She (Intellectual)—I have found Harold Scribner Pendlay's latest novel to be sadly lacking in an intelligent grasp of life and character, without a psychological insight into the temperamental distinctions of sex, wanting all familiarity with the euphonious juxtaposition of words, and therefore foolish and futile as an exposition of human probabilities. He (athletic)—Yes, that's just what I told 'em all! "It's on the blink!" says I. "Strictly on the blink!"—Woman's Home Companion.

Don't look in the book, just store away in the nook of your mind—one line: For livery fine call "49."
