CATHEDRAL

There will be a meeting to-morrow evening at 7:15 o'clock of the Young Men's Sodality.

The funeral of Thos. J. Quinn was held Thursday morning at 8 o'clock from the house, and from the church at 9 o'clock.

Last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday the Young Ladies Sodality held a triduum in their hall, in honor of the Immaculate Conception.

A high mass was offered for the Souls in Purgatory last Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

It was with pain that the many friends and relatives of Mr. Charles Hayes heard of his death, which occurred so suddenly on Thanksgiving morning. Mr. Hayes was killed while on duty at the Saxton St. crossing, where he had been a switchman for many years. He was well liked by all who knew him. His funeral was held from the family residence on Romeyn St., Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and at 9:30 from Lady Chapel. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and one son, Charles, to whom the members of the parish extend their sympathy in this their hour of sorrow.

Archbishop Ireland and his traveling companion Rt. Rev. James McGlock of Duluth, spent three days visiting Bishops McQuaid and Hickey this week.

HOLY FAMILY

The funeral of Otto Herman took place from his late residence, 53 Centennial St., Monday morning at 7:30 and 8 o'clock from the church.

The funeral of Matilda Kase took place from her late residence, 322 Ames St., Monday morning at 8:30 and 9 o'clock from the church.

The funeral of John Voekl took place from his late residence, 89 Lorenzo St., Tuesday morning at 8:30 and at 9 o'clock from the church.

Henry Vogt died Sunday at the family residence, 935 Jay St., aged 83 years. He leaves two sons, George and William Vogt, three daughters, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Joseph Knifer and Pauline Vogt, also two sisters, Mrs. Theresa Reichenburger and Mrs. Elisabeth Smith. The funeral took place from his late residence Wednesday morning at 8:45 and 9 o'clock from the church.

The young men and boys are invited to receive holy communion Sunday morning next.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Branch 186, L. C. B. A. has elected the following officers:

Pres., Emma Doser; 1st vice pres., Mary Drechsler; 2nd vice pres., Mamie Backman; rec. sec., Mary Beikirch; asst. rec., Anna Schmith; fin. sec., Mary Romel; treas., Catherine Doser; marshal, Nancy Roth; guard, Victoria Hasenauer; trustees, Anna Straus, Catherine Gramlich, Catherine Mathis, Catherine Pfaff; local doctor, Mrs. Book.

HOLY APOSTLES

Mr. Harry Frazer, one of the largest lumber dealers of Tacoma, Washington, spent a few days last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Hugh Hamill of 95 Myrtle St., before sailing for Ireland to visit his aged mother. Mr. Frazer while here visited St. Bernard's seminary and our parochial schools and was much interested in them. He thinks our Catholic schools superior to those in his state.

To-morrow is communion Sunday for the members of the Rosary Society.

The fair which closed Monday evening proved to be, from a financial standpoint, a decided success.

HOLY ROSARY

To-morrow evening at 7:30 p. m. the young ladies will organize a Sodality. The sermon on the occasion will be delivered by Dr. Hanna of St. Bernard's Seminary.

A Library Circle has been formed and the Children of Mary and the Cadets of St. John may draw their books.

The young ladies of the parish will receive communion to-morrow morning.

Last Monday morning an anniversary high mass was offered at 8 o'clock for Johanna Van Ness.

Next Wednesday evening there will be a meeting of the members of the C. M. B. A. at 8 p. m.

FRENCH CHURCH

The funeral of Albert N. Plant which was held Friday morning, was largely attended.

A pedro party to pay the expenses of painting the school, will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 14, at the French hall. Elegant prizes and a special door prize of an oil painting of Rev. A. Notebaert. All are invited.
