Prayer Books.

We have a very much larger assortment of Catholic prayer books than is usually carried—prayer books for children, adults, and for the religious.

Diaries.

There won't be so very many more days before we shall be saying "1906," then those who are interested in keeping an account of every-day happenings will be opening a new diary. These most valuable books make most acceptable Christmas remembrances.

Stationery store supplies Standard diaries in a variety of sizes and bindings, from 8c to $2.

GENESEO.

On Sunday evening, December 17, at 7.45 o'clock, there will be the dedication of a new statue of the Blessed Virgin at St. Mary's Church in this village. The sermon will be preached by Rev. W. P. Ryan, the well known pulpit orator of the Cathedral of Rochester. The statue is the gift of the Rosary society of this village.

The children of St. Mary's Church are to have a Christmas tree this year. The L. C. B. A. are having it in charge, and the presents will be distributed in St. Mary's Hall on Sunday afternoon, December 24.

The Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association of St. Mary's Church in this village held a meeting at their rooms on the 6th inst., and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Spiritual adviser, Rev. Arthur A. Hughes; president, Mrs. E. Bauer; first vice president, Mrs. M. L. Scheuler; second vice president, Mrs. H. O'Connor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. Haley; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. K. McCormick; financial secretary, Mrs. M. Lahr; treasurer, Miss E. O'Brien; guard, Miss B. Fleming; marshal, Mrs. N. Welsh. Since the organization several new members have joined, and more are to become members.

Died, at his home on the Lakeville road in this town, on Sunday last, James A. Coppinger, who has been ill for some time with lung trouble, aged 28 years. The funeral services were held at St. Mary's Church on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Arthur A. Hughes officiating. Deceased leaves surviving, a wife, daughter, his parents, two sisters, Rebecca and Elizabeth, and three brothers, Walter, Joseph and Thomas.

ITHACA.

The Rosary Society held a meeting in Parish Hall, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Cornell Catholic Union held a meeting in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catharine Cawley was held Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. The Rev. J. F. Winters officiated.

The death of Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, a resident of this city for the past 45 years, occurred Tuesday afternoon at the home of her son, Thomas O'Brien, in Second Street. She is survived by her husband, and one son. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock from the church. Interment was made at Trumansburg.

The euchre party which was held Tuesday evening in Parish Hall proved a great success.

The condition of Thomas Corrigan, an employe of the Lehigh Valley railroad, who was injured in the wreck on the Auburn branch some time ago, is very much improved.

LIMA.

A class of about forty boys and girls received their first communion Friday, December 8th, at 9 o'clock mass. At 4 o'clock the renewal of the baptismal vows, and enrollment of the scapular took place followed by benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The young people of the parish are rehearsing a play for Christmas week. Mr. Michael Morrisey, of Avon, is in town the guest of his brother, Dr. J. A. Morrisey.

The choir are practicing St. Claire's mass for Christmas. Little Miss Madeline Egan will sing the Adeste Fideles.

Mrs. William Cleary, of New York city, is in town the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis O. Nell.

Mr. Edward Sweeney, of Rochester, was in town recently visiting friends.

PENN YAN.

Miss Margaret Guider, who is in the employ of Wagner's Bros. shoe house, met with a bad accident last Wednesday. While Miss K. E. Wilkins, the forelady, was removing a dish of hot water from one of the gas heaters, Miss Guider stepped up to speak to her and accidentally ran into the hot water, scalding her face, ear and neck. With care, she will be all right, we think, now.

DANSVILLE.

Sunday is the regular monthly Communion day for the Rosary, Altar

The suffering endured by women from disorders that are caused by irregularity of the bowels is appalling. Druggists sell the best remedy for such irregularity. It is Celery King, the tonic-laxative.

and Scapular Society.

On Tuesday at 8:15 Father Dunn celebrated requiem mass for Mrs. Thomas Maloney by request of Rosary Society.

The banquet and reunion of the Children of Mary, held at St. Patrick's school, December 8th, was a brilliant success owing to the combined untiring efforts of the director, Sister M. Alpheus and the president, Katharyn L. Perry. The reception room was made beautiful with artistic drapings of blue and white bunting, the colors of the society. While the banquet room was most artistically draped in the Papal colors, and in the front of the room, surrounded by palms, ferns, etc., Kramer's orchestra furnished selections while the dainty refreshments were being served, and the soft light of many candles added to the entrancing splendor of the scene. After the refreshments, Rev. Father Dunn presided as toast master. The following responded with toasts: Rev. Fathers Dougherty, of Canandaigua; Day, of Mt. Morris; Sullivan, of Rochester; Ryan, of Canaseraga; Krishel, of St. Mary's. Miss Katharyn Perry, after an address of welcome, read a paper from Rev. Father FitzSimmons, who could not attend, on the "Ideal Child of Mary." Miss Alice M. Rowan responded with the history of the society. Miss Katharine Driscoll recited "The Last of May," by Rev. Father Ryan. The following directresses were present: Sisters Bertram, Beatrice, Catharine, Amelia and Alpheus. The delightful affair closed with benediction by Rev. Father Day.

Mrs. Thomas Maloney died at the family home on Tuesday, December 5, of nervous prostration. Mrs. Maloney was born in Ireland in 1847, but came to this country when an infant with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence O'Hara, and has since lived in Dansville. She was married to Thomas Maloney in 1872, who survives her with these children: Miss Margaret, Edward H., William J., Miss Elizabeth, and Albert E. Maloney and Mrs. Garfield D. Rau, of Dansville, and John J. Maloney, of Rochester. One brother and three sisters also survive. The L. C. B. A., of which she was a charter member, and the Rosary, Altar and Scapular Society, of which she was a most devoted member, attended the funeral in a body, which was held from St. Patrick's Church at 9:30 a. m. Saturday. Rev. Father Dunn was the celebrant of the solemn requiem mass; Rev. Father Day, deacon; Rev. Father Kristel, sub-deacon; Rev. J. J. Ryan, master of ceremonies.

James M. Brogan, one of our most popular and enterprising young men, has been appointed business manager of the Inter-Ocean Telephone Co. In selecting Mr. Brogan the company has made an excellent choice.

Meng & Shafer Holiday Fur Offering

AN UNRIVALED DISPLAY OF THE SEASON'S RICHEST CREATIONS

Literally filled to overflowing are our showrooms—Furs are fairly toppling over each other, and almost priceless possessions in rare and carefully selected furs and garments are here to please every patron and meet their requirements. From all the fur-bearing animals of the earth, we show the best furs—which are made in our own establishment and finished in the most fashionable and painstaking manner, under our personal supervision, from the best selected skins only. We are recognized throughout the Empire state as not only the largest dealers in furs, but from our four stores we distribute a greater quantity, at lower prices, than any half dozen fur houses combined. We have manufactured, especially for Christmas, some charming novelties in small furs very much out of the ordinary and will be pleased to have you come and see them as it is hard to describe their beauty.
