NEWS FROM IRELAND

ALL THE HAPPENINGS OF INTER-EST IN THE OLD COUNTRY.

What is Being Done by the People at Home --- Gossip From All the Counties of the Emerald isle.

Ulster

ANTRIM .--- On Jan. 2 a terrible acoident occurred near Carnmoney, resulting in the loss of one life and the disablement of another person who is n a precarious condition. The stone quarries near Carnmoney were the cone of the affair. Blasting operations der Memorial hall. The building was were proceeding, several men being enmite had been placed in a rock and exploded before its time, with the result lowing comprised the dramatis perthat James Blair, aged fifty, who ge- sonae: "Rory O'More," John McLaughded in the locality, was blown to bleces. Another, named Robert Colan, aged twenty-one, of Whitewell, mustained a compound fracture of the kull by being struck with a piece of ( the rock. Colgan, who was attended by Dr. J. Loughridge, Whitewell, was removed in the city ambulance to the Royal Victoria hospital, where he lies in a precarious condition and unable to give details as to the disaster. The lead man's remains, which were scattered about the quarry, were reverently | out any individual member of the club | Shanbally; P. Moylan, Carrigtwohill; picked up by the workmen and remov- for praise. The acting was excellent. P. Scott, Little Island; J. Clancy, Glaed to a neighboring house.

The sellidh held in St. Mary's schoolroom, Bank street, Belfast, lately under, the auspices of the Craobh Clann Aoldh Buidhe was a pleasant function. The night's proceedings, which were thoroughly Irish in tone, were distinguished by the presence of a number of the leaders of the movement locally, the character as well as the size of the assemblage showing that the Gaelic league continues to make great progress in the city. Among those present were: Rev. J. McKinley, president of the branch; Rev. Charles McAuley, ad ministrator; Rev. J. Small, Philip Ward, Seumas O'Kolly, B. A.; Tadhg Ward, D. O'Lehane, Cahal Simpson, F. Meade, Mr. O'Kearsey, Mr. Griffin, J. Marley, J. Maguire and many others well known in connection with Gaelie league work. Philip Ward introduced the reverend president, who welcomed the guests and wished them every success during the coming year. The artists were- Miss O'Rellly, T. McCullagh, Miss C. Dobbin, Miss Kathleen Kerr, Miss Duffy, Mr. Walsh, Mr. Vallely, Miss McKay, Miss Agnes Rerr. P. J. Ward, D. McCullough, Miss Ellie ARMAGH .--- As condict was given in Forkhill untional school recently. Thomas Hearty sang "Dublin Bay, "Elleen Alannah" and "The Irishman;" Miss Maggle McParland, "She Is Far From the Land" and "Asthore;" Miss Lizzie Murphy sang two songs in the Irish language, - Miss Walsh song "Kathleen" and "The Holy City," Miss Lizzie McShane sang "Killarney," and P. Hanratty sang in Gaelic and as an encore, gave "The Memory of the Dead." Miss Nugent accompanied the singers. Father McCartney, who presided, thanked the audience for their attendance on such a wild evening and praised their conduct, which reflected credit on themselves and district. He also paid a warm compliment to the artists, particularly those who came from Armagh and Newtownhamilton. The convention to select a candidate for the South Armagh division was held Jan. 8 at the old Catholic school. Bessrook. The official report states that an the motion of Mr. Fearon, seconded by Mr. Carragha, the chair was taken by James McElroy. Joseph Devin M. P. represented the United Irish ware: Very Rev. Canon Quinn, Camough; Rev. Father Rogers, Rev. Father McKeon, Rev. Father Montague, Rev. Father Gogarty, Rev. Bather Clarke. , O'Haire, H. McGuinness, P. Callaman, M. Partland, J. McCann, M. P. Mr. Rice. James MacKean, E. Hanlon, H. McGahan, P. McCourt, Mr. Donashy, Mr. Murphy, H. Kelly, B. Carragher, S. Mackenn and others. The branches represented were Camlough. Poyntapass, Mullabawn, Orcesmaglen, Cullynanna, Glassdrummond, Drominee, etc. Rev. Father McKeon and Mr. Rice were elected secretaries. Mr. Mculle proposed the selection of William McKillop, M. P. Mr. Morris, Crossina-sien, seconded the motion, and it was dopted with enthusiasm. CAVAN At a convention in East Cavan lately, presided over by the Rev. O'Connell, Samuel Young was unanimously selected chairman East Cayan executive on the motion of Francis onch, seconded by T. P. McKenna, Mullagh, Mr. Young, having signed the parliamentary pledge, thanked the clergy from the hashop to the curate for the confidence and unfailing sup-port which the seconded him. He ty-seven years. nindenco a sala misplaced, He

nis, John Belford, Bernard McManus, the others of the crew were lost. Hugh Frunty, James McEvoy, Bernard The Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, D. D. John Vesey, Mr. Maguire and John priest of Timoleugue. Crozier. V. P. Kennedy was selected

to continue as their representative.

merchant in the town. On Jan. 2 the Limavady Amateur Dramatic club presented the Irish packed. It was admitted by all present nel Thunder," Richard Gwyn: "Solder-"Lieutenant Scrubbs," Henry O'Doherty; "Flannerty," George Hunt; "Bfll Jones," Joseph McGinnis: "Pierre." M. Lynd; "Mary O'More," Miss J. Mc Laughlin; "Widow O'More," Miss Margood it would be unnecessary to single At the conclusion H. O'Doherty, on behalf of the club, thanked the audience for their kind appreciative reception of the piece. The concert programme was then taken up by Miss Jane Gallagher, who gave "Happy Moments." In response to a vociferous encore she replied with "Terry." James McLaughlin was responsible for "The Minstrel Boy," and to an encore he gave "Molly Malone." Edward McLaughlin, a local comedian of great promise, sang "That's Mine," and responded with "Oh. What a Night!" In "The Vales of Arklow George O'Brien was heard to advantage. To an undeniable encore he replied with "Limavady." a local ballad which has become very popular. The concert programme was wound up by "A Nation Once Again" by the company, James McLaughlin leading. The accompaniments were rendered by Miss Caroline Gogarty on the plane, the brothers McGinnis giving violin selections. The staging was in the hands of Messre. John Guy and John Hunt and reflected great credit on them.

DONEGAL .-- A meeting of the Coisde Ceanntair Gaelic league was held in Donegal lately. Very Rev. E. Maguire, D. D., presided. The other delegates present were: P. M. Gallagher, J. C. Ward, P. A. Mulreany, Killybegs; F. Kennedy, Inver; A. C. Ward, Barnesmore; M. Byrne and A. K. Dunlevy, Donegal. The following resolution was proposed by the Very Rev. E. Maguire, seconded by P. M. Gallagher and passed unanimously: "That, in the opinion of this committee, leading local men should be requested to examine the evening classes and to give short addresses in bilingual form on Irish historical epochs and personages and the derivation of local names, etc." At the suggestion of J. C. Ward, who has also shown himself greatly in favor of planting trees, it was decided that the Saturday following St. Patrick's day be appointed as Arbor day.

P. Galligan, T. O' Reilly, secretary West of the wrecked schooner Annie Park. Cavan executive; F. Reilly, sames Da which went ashore under St. Govan's lon, George Moloney, secretary Cavan head, Pembrokeshire, Wales. She was Town Tenants' association; Patrick En driven ashore Jan. 2. The captain and

Brady, T. McGuluness, Cavan; Owen bishop of Ross, has appointed the Rev. Turbett, C. R., L. N. F., Cavan; D. Rell. Peter Hill, who has been managing the ly, P. H. Galligan, F. Brady, B. O'Con. Baltimore fishery schools successfully nor, Thomas Brady, James Cassidy, for the past eight years, to be parish

An accident which proved fatal occurred in Cove street, Cork city, Jan. DERRY .-- Thomas Henry, Sr., of Wa- 2. John Spencer, sexton in St. Nichterside, Coleraine, who died Dec. 28 olas church, was coming down the after a lengthened illness, was not stairs in his residence, 14 Cove street, alone the oldest resident, but the oldest with a lighted candle in his hand, when, through some cause, the candle went out, and he stumbled over something that lay across his path, lost his sitting was upset in the passage lead- bella Halpin, 13 Little Mary street and drama "Rory O'More" in the Alexan- footing and fell down a flight of stairs. ing to her house. She sustained inju- 11 Annavilla, Philosborough. --- FAR-He sustained a fracture of the skull. mered at the work. A charge of dyna- to be one of the best productions seen the municipal buildings, Cork city, a also of Tournafulla. was returning by On Jan. 2, at Woodville, Templemore, in Limavady for a long time. The fol- meeting of the national teachers of the car from Newcastle when she expired Patrick Doyle, aged eighty-three years. city and county of Cork was held for ; from heart failure on approaching her ----M'GUIRK -- On Jan. 3, at 39 the purpose of presenting an address residence. Both deceased belonged to Mountjoy street, James McGuirk .---lin; "De Lacy," Alexander O'Doherty; to J. C. Flynn, M. P., as a mark of the most respectable families in West PHELAN-Jan. 8, at 17 St. Alphonsus "Shan Dhu," Frank McKenna; "Colo- their appreciation of the services rendered by him in forwarding their intering Solomon," Edward McLaughlin; ests, in bettering their position and festivities in the district. advancing the cause of Irish national education. Patrick Gamble, Sunday's Well, Cork, was moved to the chair. Charles McLaughlin; "Kathleen," Miss and there were in attendance M. Wren, Carrigaline; E. Cotter, Blarney; D. Goulding, St. Luke's: P. Murphy, Balgaret O'Doherty. Where all were so lincollig; M. Cunningham, Ballinora; the Rev. D. O'Brien, Rockwell; Rev. J. W. Deely, White's Cross; J. Barry, sheen: J. Sheehan, Banteer; T. J. Drury, Cork, and J. P. Conlon, Cork.

The death of John Walter Bourke, appointed high sheriff for the county solicitor. Cork, took place Jan. 5 at Mount Clarence, Kingstown. Recent Deaths in Cork -- BOURKE-

Jan. 5, at Mount Clarence, Kingstown. the residence of his brother-in-law, John Walter Bourke, 6 South Mail. Cork. ---- RIORDAN -- Jan. 4, at 206 | Blarney road, Margaret Riordan.--AFIERN-Jan. 4, at the Incurable hos- proved by several stained glass winpital, Wellington road, Daniel Ahern, dows. The latest acquisition eclipses Ruanes, Ballyclough. -- CASEY-Jan. its predecessors in design and finish. 2, at 13 Eason's Hill, Mary Francis Ca. It consists of a set of two memorial sey.---ROCHE-Jan. 3, at Ballycotton, 'windows, truly works of art Erected Eliza Roche, late of Michelstown, aged, at the northwest wing of the cathedral, eighty three years. --MAXWELL - ' they are executed in an up to date and Jan. 2, at Ellenville, East Ferry, Bal., faultless manner. In design, color and Jinacurra, Arthur Maxwell -- O'REIL- 'execution they are ideal. The subjects LY-Jan. 3, at 19 Watercourse road, are St. Michael and St. Cataldus, bisb-Brigid Alice Agnes O'Reilly (E. de M.), op of Tarantam, who was a Lismore aged twenty years. --- ('ROWLEY- | man. Both figures are skillfully pro-Jan. 1, at his residence, Avondale, portioned. They were on view at the Western road, George Stowers Crow- | recent exhibition at Cork under the ley. ---- MAHONY-- Jan. 1. Minnie Ma- auspices of the ('ork Industrial Develhony, Greenhill, second daughter of Pe- opment association. The windows were ter O'Regan, Lissarourk, Enniskean, presented by the Very Rev. Michael C. -RIORDAN-Jan. 1, at Ballineadig, "O'Farrell, pastor, Holy Innocents, New Catherine D. M. Riordan, late of Rooes-<sup>1</sup> York, as a memorial to his parents, tage, Ballyhahill, was solemnly pro kill, Patrick Gorman, late of Dalkey, and addressed as count, and also to fessed a member of the Sisters of Mer at an advanced age .--- KEENAN-Oucy community, Abbey road, Hull con Jan. 2, Rev. Columba Keenan, O. P., vent, England, on Jan. 4.

The marriage of Thomas Henry -Jan. 2, at R. thillion, Donabate, Patinfirmary.

named Mrs. O'Sullivan of Tourna- Mrs. Delany, sister of Michael Hope, fulla was returning from Abbeyfeale, Streamstown. --- DONOHOE-Jan. 3. mas shopping, the car in which she was Donohoe, daughter of James and Isaries which resulted in her death. On RELLY-Jan. 2, at Castle street. Little On Jan. 4 in the committee room of the same evening Mrs. John Curtin, Bray, Francis Farrelly .--- DOYLE-- two years.

TIPPERARY .- The death of Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, wife of Thomas O'Brien, merchant, Mullinahone, and mother of O'Brien, Paris, and Rev. P. O'Brien, age of fifty-five years.

WATERFORD,-John Congreve of Mount Congreve, Waterford, has been of Waterford for the present year.

Mrs. Anne Pholan of the Quay, Waterford, died on New Year's day. On Dec. 30, at the Convent of Mercy, Tipperary, died Sister Alacoque Mullally, aged forty-five years. Within the last few years the Church of St. Carthage, Lismore, has been im-thoughtfulness and munificence.

four years.

Leinster

CARLOW-Patrick Gough, son

market, Carlow, occurred Jan. 1.

Most Rev. Dr. Foley, bishop of Kil-

DUBLIN-John Ryan, aged forty, of

In the Dublin Mater Misericordiae

went mad on the morning of Dec. 31.

Patterson, stabbed her twice on the

was recently committed as a dangerous

Recent Deaths in Dublin-ADRIEN

-Dec. 30. at Elleen villas. Drumcon-

Dec. 31, at his residence, Clonmore,

-MURPHY-On Dec. 30. at East-

mount. Dalkey, Mary Murphy.---- lunatic to the Richmond asylum.

- LOUNEY - On New Year's each window bearing a suitable inscrip tifying the cathedral of his native vision. place, for he was foremost by his example twenty-five years ago, when the foundation stone of the sacred edifice was laid. Venerable Archdeacon Mcest acquisition to his church, which is as noble, commodious and comfortable as any to be found in Erin. The people of Lismore join with their soggarth in

Holy Cross priory, Sligo .- MARTIN

Booth, an assistant clerk in the West, rick Martin, aged sixty six years. --Ham Guardian's offices, with Miss Ma- SWAN-Jan. 2, at his residence, Rinry White, eldest daughter of Richard glestown, Kilmessan, William Swan, in White of Glenagore, Athea, took place his ainety-third year.---WHELANat St. Anthony's church, Forest Gate, Jan. 1, at City of Dublin hospital, Rob-London, recently. The bride had been ert Whelan of 50 Mountjoy street.---for some time a nurse at the West Ham CUMMINS-Jan. 3, at 9 South King street, Margaret Cummins.----DELA-

On Dec. 23, when a farmer's wife NY - Jan. 2. at Baconstowa. Enfield. where she had been engaged in Christ- at Mater hospital, Mary Catherine Limerick, and their unexpected deaths road, Drumcondra, Ellen Phelan, late threw a shadow over the Christmas of Lower Mount Ecreet .--- ENNIS-On Jan. 4. at 70 Summerhill, William En-James Liston, Ballince castle, Knock- nis, Straffan, County Kildare .---- HAS- | other public bodies. Michael Reddy, aderry, died on Dec. 19, aged sixty- SETT-Dec. 31, at Francis street, Kilrush, Clare, Mrs. Mary Hassett .----HARE-Jan. 4, at 3 Connaught terrace. Garville avenue, Rathgar, Anna Maria Hospital For incurables, Donnybrook, great enthusiasm, unanimously selected Mary Anne Reynolds, Hermitage, Ro-Philadelphia, occurred on Jan. 3 at the buck, Dundrum.-SMITH-Jan. 3, at returned thanks for the honor. 6 Russell terrate, Church road, Annie vears.

> 8mith. KILDARE James Hooney, a popular member of the Athy district counthe winner. Palmist's Pride.

On St. Stephen's day, 1905, at Conway hall, died Mrs. Hanoria Drennan, mother of the Revs. Jeremiah and Pat- Bridge, Mobili, which occurred on Jan. rick Drennan, aged seventy-four years. A special meeting of Kilmcow branch of the U. I. L. was held Dec. 31, Mi- Deceased, who had but reached the age chael Walsh presiding. The following of sixty years, was hale and hearty up members were also in attendance: Walter Walsh, Patrich French, Thomas Grant, John Fitzpatrick, Patrick Kinsella, John Phelan, Moolum; Thomas O'Neill, honorable secretary. The Grant.

daughter of John C. Cregan, Hill cot seven years. --- GORMAN, At Shan- ters of every kind to be lawfully called use and enjoy all and singular whatsoever honors, privileges, prerogatives and induits are used and enjoyed or can be used or enjoyed by others who bear the same title, all things whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding." Michael Halvey, Gort, died Dec. 29, aged twenty-five years.

The grand drawing of prizes in aid of the convent, schools and the sick and poor of the district surrounding the Convent of Mercy, Tuam, will be held in the schools of that convent on April 20 next. The prizes are valuable and number thirty. The winning numbers will be published in the Tuam Herald May 4. The tickets are a quarter of a dollar each. Blocks of such tickets must be returned to the Rev. Sister M. C. Judge, Convent of Mercy. Tuam. Galway.

A largely attended convention was hold at the Temperance hall, Loughrea, lately for the purpose of selecting a parliamentary candidate for South Galway. All the branches of the United Irish league were represented as well as delegates from the town commissioners, rural district councils and M. P., was present in behalf of the national directory. On the motion of Patrick Finnegan, the well known prison martyr of Craughwell, seconded by Martin Ward, Mr. Duffy was, amid as the national candidate. Mr. Duffy LEITRIM .--- P. E. Meehan, president. presided at a recent meeting of the members of the Manorhamilton branch of the United Irish league. It was procil, carried off the Christmas plate at posed by the president and seconded by Leopardstown on St. Stephen's day; Mr. Lynott "that thanks be tendered to the Very Rev. James Dolan for his gen-KILKENNY-Michael Irish, Rath. erous subscription toward the parliapatrick, died Dec. 18, aged eighteen mentary fund; also for having taken a prominent and fitting place at the national."

> The death of Michael Reynolds of the 2, was one of the most painful shocks experienced in Mohill in many years. to a couple of weeks before death.

MAYO.-On Nov. 22 occurred the death of Patrick Phillips. Knock. Mayo. On Sunday, lately, there was held in Kavanagh, John Merry and John the town hall. Newport, one of the most successful meetings yet convened. chairman said the only business before for the purpose of strengthening the them was to select delegates to the con- Gaelic league in Connaught. Einthusivention at Ballyhale. The following asm prevailed throughout the entire delegates were selected-viz: M. J. proceedings and was a striking proof O'Kelly, Michael Dunphy and Thomas of the success the movement has attained and an omen that the Gaelic re-KING'S .--- Haviland Burke, the sit- vival will spread into every corner of ting member of the Tullamore division the land and that the sweet old tongue of King's county, has again been se- of our ancestors will be heard among lected to voice the opinions of the peo- the valleys and hills of Ireland. The ple in the British house of parliament. meeting was held under the auspices of Mr. Burke gave every satisfaction to the local branch of the Gaelic league. the people in his parliamentary di- Mr. Comber, Irish teacher, Castlebar; C. W. Ryan, secretary of the Castlebar; LOUTH .-- At the convention at Birr branch of the Gaelic league; P. Corlately presided over by the Rev. Fa- coran and T. G. Gillespie drove from ther Scanlan, and at which Swift Mac- Castlebar to be present and assisted. Neill, M. P., was present, Mr. Reddy, materially toward the success of the the sitting member, was unanimously meeting. On the proposition of A. selected as the candidate for the Birr McBride, M. D., V. P., of the Westport parliamentary division of King's coun- Gaelic league, seconded by John Me-Kea, the Rev. Father Corcoran, New-LONGFORD.-T. M. Healy, M. P., port, was moved to the chair. Among was re-elected, unopposed, member of those present on the platform were: parliament for North Louth on Jan. 15. Messrs. John McGovern, T. Gillespin, Fire destroyed the boot and shoe es- Patrick O'Donnell, C. W. Ryan, H. tablishment of Peter McDonald in Patterson, S. J. Murphy, J. O'Dwyer, Main street, Longford, Dec. 24. The Castlebar; D. Huban, J. Lunne, M. Lunne, James Lunne, P. O'Malley, J. Thomas Daniel, who lived near the O'Malley, J. P. Doris, Dr. A. McBride. north side of Boyne viaduct, Drogheda, | ROSCOMMON. -- John Hanly, who an employee of the Great Northern had been employed for many years in railway, waa killed by a train on the timber yard of Jones, Roscommon, died on Christmas day. A painfully sudden death took place non, an extensive fowl and err dealer. WEST MEATH .-... John Garland of who has several branch establishments. Dayistown died Jan. 4. aged sixty sev- in England, was found dead in a roum off the kitchen of a shop in Ohurch At the meeting of the pastors at the street. The family retired to bed on diocese of Meath to select a bishop, Saturday night, leaving their mothes which was held in the Church of St. | making preparations for attending early mass, according to her usual custom. Her daughter, with whom she slept, awoke about 2 o'clock in the morning and not finding her mother in bed became alarmed. On going downstairs she found her lying on the floor. A priest and doctor were called in but Westmeath was held in the lecture, the deceased had been dead for some time.

manked the The converting memory to rehe selection of a in parliament the west division of Cavan was beld in accordance with the constitution of the Irish longue at the courthouse. Killenhranda, The following, were Corie Realingemple: Rev. P. Finnegan, Rev. Rey P. Brady, administrator, trail der Dr. Cooney, Cavan; Rev. filliown: Roy. Peter Lynch. in its Post Rugh Owens, Drumkil-

Art. P. O'Reilly, Lower, Drumkilly; Thomas Corr. Glangevlin; Rev. Briefz Camionan John Culli-man present on behalf of sual directors among those in Sciences & Kennesty sit-DOWN .---- During the recent great storm the Larne owned steamer Monarch, Belfast to Ardrossan, was driven ashore near Greypoint, County Down coast. The news was conveyed to the Helens bay coast guard station, and by the aid of the rocket apparatus the crew of nine men was saved.

FERMANAGH .---- On Christmas day the body of John McGoldrick. Boa island, D. M. P., pensioner, was found in a boat on Lough Erne. The deceased N. T.; J. T. Guthan, solicitor; C. Buckwas in Pettigofair on the Wednesday before, but after leaving home that O'Connor, P. Cronin, N. T.; C. Lane, evening nothing had been heard of him M. D. O'Sullivan, Timothy O'Connor, until Christmas morning, when the D. J. McCarthy, J. Walsh, T. Madden, body was found lying in Mr. McGoldrick's boat in the rushes at Carraghmore shore by John Gibson.

The death has occurred at Enniskil len of James Curran, formerly a reporter on the staff of the Donegal Independent.

MONAGHAN .- The branches of the United Irish league in this county are giving generous subscriptions to the funds of the Irish party.

TYRONE Language classes in con nection with the Irish Ireland branch, Omagh, were reopened lately after the Christmas holidays. There was a fairly good number of members present. A conversational knowledge of the language is imparted to each class.

James McDermott, aged twenty-three years, residing at Back Farm, Mullinajomag, near Omagh, died suddenly on Jan. 4.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Gillen occurred on Dec. 25 at the age of nine-

Munster

CLARE. ---- The hundred tenants of the Doonas estate, Cloniara, have purchased their holdings under the land act of 1903. Rev. James Kennedy, pastor, represented the tenants. John Flynn of Knack, Inch, died Dec.

The Clare Champler of Jan. 6 said: The death of Very Rev. Oanon Hayes. P. P., Tulla, one of the most respect ed and beloved priests in the diocese, took place lately. The deceased came of a good old Tipperary family, being born at Portroe seventy years ago." CORK .--- Mr. Longfield of Sea Court Timoleague, is high sheriff for County Cork this year. James Hurley, Ardagh, Rosscarbery died on New Your's day.

Ture Port manual, John Flotabur a nore. day, at his residence, Castle street, Ma- tion in the vernacular. Father O'Farcroom, Patrick Looney, aged forty-one rell, who is a Lismore man, has acted years.---EMMET-Jan. 2, at Ballin- in a most liberal manner toward beaugoul, Charleville, Margaret Emmet.----KENIRY-Hanora, relict of the late David Keniry, Ballyluska.

KERRY .--- Mrs. Bridget O'Halloran principal teacher of the Bouleenshere girls' school, recently retired after a Grath is loud in his praises of the latservice of more than forty years. During that period she witnessed many changes in the national education system. She was an efficient and painstaking teacher and always gave satisfaction to her manager and inspectors. She was in particular attentive to the religious training of her pupils, many of whom have entered the convent. among them her daughter. Sister Benigna, St. Clara's academy, Wisconsin. A desire having been expressed that an address be presented to the Rev. P. Garvey, pastor, on his departure from Kenmare after spending eighteen years in the parish as curate, a meeting was held in the sacristy, Denis J. Sullivan presiding. Present were: Rev. M. Allman, S. O'B. Corkery, W. Mc-Carthy. Daniel J. Sullivan, A. McCar-

Dean Brophy, Carlow college, ordained to the priesthood on Dec. 28 at the cathy, M. D.; D. Cremin, F. McCarthy, thedral, Carlow, the Rev. W. Murphy. for the diocese of Auckland, New Zealey, L. Egan, J. M. Donovan, Thomas land. At the same time his lordship ordained to deaconship the Rev. Terence Bermingham of the diocese of KIIdare and Leighlin. E. T. O'Sullivan, John O'Sullivan, R. Clifford, J. Hurley, Eugene O'Sullivan, 14 Wexford street, who was admitted G. Aldwell, James O'Shea. Dr. Mcto Mercer's hospital on Nov. 24 last. Carthy proposed that a subscription suffering from fracture of the bones of list be opened and said Father Garvey was a most excellent priest. J. T. Guihan, solicitor, seconded the proposition ing downstairs, died in the hospital and said the presentation of an illumi-Jan. 4. nated address would be very appropri-O'Gorman, the popular Irish comedian, ate. F. McCarthy, N. T., supported the died at her son's London residence in resolution, which was passed unani-Angelf road, Brirton, London, ately.

monsly. Miss Lane, who disappeared suddenly hospital one of the patients suddenly from her home at Moneigle, near Cantleisland, was discovered in a gien in He was a laborer named Martin Fitzthe lofty mountains near Kingwiiliamstown. The young woman went out Dec. 12 at nightfall, but did not turn up afterward, which caused anxlety to her family and friends. A vigorous search was instituted for her, both day and night, and on the following Saturday morning, while a gamekeeper named Teer was traveling through the mountains accompanied by his dog his attention was attracted to the furfous barking of the dog at the in taking the knife from him and getbottom of a glen. His curiosity was aroused at the unwonted confusion of the dog, and he descended the steep precipice to investigate, when, to his astonishment, he found the young wodra, Mary Adrien of Oldtown, County man beneath a bush at the bottom of Dublin .--- FAGAN-Dec. 31. at Fairthe glen and at a place miles away view, Joseph Fagan.----KEARNEY-from her home. She was barefooted, and it was found that her feet were considerably swellen and her body beshort illness, aged ninety years .numbed. She was carried home and could not give any definite account of Great Britain street, Mrs. M. J. Leet of her wanderings. It is surmised she 85 Bolton street, deeply regretted .must have wandered through the NAYLOR - Dec. 31, at St. Vir ent's mountains and precipitous ravines with which this place abounds during the time she was missing and probably had no food or shelter save that afforded by the wild heather which profusely clothes the hillsides. LIMERICK-Miss Anna Gregan (In thanking the generous douor for his loss is estimated at $8,000.

HABVEY -- Jan. 1, at Barranstown, religion Stater M. Veronice). second

John Gough, Palatine, Carlow, died Dec. 30 at Windsor cottage, Rathmines, Dublin. He was aged twenty-Dec. 29. The death of Patrick J. Mangan, Coal dare and Leighton, assisted by the Rev. CD YCBZS. Mary, Navan, Jan. 4, with Cardinal Logue presiding, the Rev. Mgr. Gaughran of Kells received forty-five votes and was declared diginsimuss.

Thomas Plunkett, Main street, Longford, died Dec. 30, aged forty-eight in Roscommon on Dec. 24. Mrs. Hanyears.

The convention under the auspices of the United Irish league to select a Nationalist candidate to represent North both legs, caused by slipping and fallhall, Mullingar, on Jan. 2. John Roche, M. P., presided. At the public meeting Mrs. Jane O'Gorman, mother of Joe Laurence Ginnell was selected. Sir

Walter Nugent, the other candidate, received 72 votes, Mr. Ginnell 99. WEXFORD .- The contract for the erection of the pedestal of the '98 memorial in New Ross has been secured by Patrick Molloy, Callan; cost, 2000.

patrick, aged twenty-seven. Jumping Peter Ffrench, M. P. for South Wexout of bed, he took a knife and, rushing ford, was selected to continue in office upon the superintendent nurse, Miss by the Nationalists of the district in convention held in Wexford Dec. 29.

left side. Miss Patterson called for WICKLOW. - Hugh Doyle, while help. Mr. Devalue, house surgeon, and working lately in Ballymurtagh mines, Frank Callaghan, resident pupil, seeing in the Vale of Ovoca, was entombed by the struggle, caught Fitzpatrick. He a quantity of stuff and when rescued resisted and stabbed Mr. Callaghan in was in a dying condition. the right leg. Mr. Devalue succeeded

On Dec. 24 occurred the death of Miss Sarab Doyle of Ballinhallen. ting him under control. Fitzpatrick

Mrs. Kehoe, Esmonde strest, Gorey, died Jan. 3,

Connaught

GALWAY .- The title of count has been conferred by the pope upon Colonel Llewellyn Blake of Cloughbally-Kiklalkey, James Kearney, after a more, Galway, and Ballinafad, County Mayo. This honor, as the papal brief LEET-Jan. 1, at her residence, 115 sets out, has, among other reasons, been conferred in recognition of the colonel's magnificent liberality toward the African Missionary college, Cork. hospital, Mrs. Mary Naylor. ---- LAR- Recently he founded a scholarship at KIN-On Dec. 30, at 5 Alphonsus ave- St Jarlath's college, Tuam, for the edunue, Drumcondra, Margaret Larkin, cation of priests for the foreign mission. The document concludes as follows: "Wherefore, beloved son, we anthorine you in all public and private Ashbourne, Peter Harvey, aged sixty. decuseents, diplomas and apostolic let. f elected manimously.

Patrick Martin, Ballindoon, Boyle, died Dec. 23, aged sixty-five years.

The demise of Simon Judge, St. View cent street, Roscommon, bas been reported.

J. J. O'Kelly, sitting member of par-Hament, was unanimously selected as parliamentary candidate for North Roscommon at a convention at Boyle Masic hall on the motion of the Very Rev. Canon Coyne, seconded by T. Rourks. The chairman, Thomas J. Devine, expressed regret at the absence, through iliness, of Mr. O'Kelly, to whose services in the national cause he paid a high tribute.

12.2

SLIGO .--- George Keogh of Geevag Ballyfarnon, is the high sheriff for: County Sligo this year.

James Breheny, Jr., of Achony, died on New Year's morning, aged seventeen years.

On Dec. 23 last the Rev. Constanttius F. Gallagher, O. P., son of Francis Gailagher, Sligo, was ordained to the priesthood at the Church of St. John. Lateran's, Rome. The ordaining prelate was Cardinal Respigha, the pope's vicar. Father Gallagher celebrated his first mass on Christmas day, which was a solemn high mass, at which Father Reginaid Waish, master of novices, was assistant priest.

The national convention for the election of a parliamentary candidate for South Sligo was held in the courthouse, Ballymote, on Jan. 4. Very Rev. Canon. Loftus presided, and the assemblage of delegates was large, influential and representative. John O'Dowd was re-

