Handy Tools About the House

What a world of inconvenience a saw, a hatchet, a screwdriver—any one of a hundred small tools—would save the housekeeper a dozen times a day. We have "kits" for this very purpose—separate tools, too. Of course nails, screws, tacks, hangers, etc., etc., in great variety and quantity.

CANANDAIGUA.

Prayers were offered Sunday for the dead of the San Francisco calamity and Mass for the repose of their soul, Monday. A collection will be taken up in conjunction with the other parishes of the diocese next Sunday to be forwarded to Archbishop Riordan.

The Devotion of the Forty Hours began Sunday. The sermon Sunday evening was by Rev. M. A. Dwyer, of Seneca Falls. Monday, Rev. Robert Henry, Clifton Springs. Tuesday, Rev. W. H. Harrington, of Waterloo. The other priests of the deanery were in attendance.

The Young Ladies Sodality is arranging for a retreat and reception the latter part of May. The school collection Sunday amounted to $70. The next thing will be an entertainment at the old St. Mary's, Wednesday evening, May 2d, by James Francis O'Donnell the impersonator. A couple of years ago he appeared here and rendered "The Sign of the Cross."

Last week the men at the cemetery went over the monuments and headstones, leveling and straightening them and with other improvements the cemetery, after the winter presents a creditable appearance. It is to be greatly hoped that the remodeling of Parrish Street, the avenue leading to the cemetery, which is contemplated by the street commissioners, will become an accomplished fact. The people of the congregation should all feel a personal interest in keeping funeral processions out of the mud and in having a decent driveway to the cemetery.

In another column will be found a notice of the marriage of Frank Kinseella to Miss Katherine Dolan at Penn Yan.

GENESE.

Miss Minnie Walsh visited relatives in Brooklyn and New York City for two weeks, returning last week.

Mrs. D. Toland visited her husband in New York City Easter week.

Martin Hackett is seriously ill. On Sunday next a collection for the sufferers in San Francisco will be taken up in St. Mary's Church.

Mrs. T. Mahoney of New York City was called here this week, on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. M. Burke.

John Welsh and family will move to Rochester next week.

The collection in St. Mary's Church on Easter was the largest ever received, amounting to over $150.

A prize to the boy and girl who would be present at each morning mass during Lent, was offered by a member of St. Mary's congregation, through Father Hughes. When he came to award the prizes he found that there was twelve or fifteen who had attended each morning, and the only way to decide who was the winner were, they had to draw. Emmett Houston won the boy's prize, a baseball bat, ball and mitt, and Margaret McNeill the girl's prize, a croquet set. Father Hughes gave to each of the others a rosary.

Mrs. M. B. Simpson of Rochester, is a guest of the Misses Fleming this week.

Rev. Joseph Lowenkamp, Redemptorist Father of Rochester, will give a retreat at St. Mary's Church, beginning on Thursday evening of next week, and closing the following Sunday evening. There will be instructions at the masses in the morning, and also at the evening services.

Father Lowenkamp is no stranger to St. Mary's congregation, for during Father Hughes' illness about a year ago, he had charge of this parish.

Rev. A. A. Hughes, Misses Mary and Johanna Cahill, John Toole and William Thompson were present at the funeral of Patrick Hickey, father of Rev. J. A. Hickey, former pastor of St. Mary's Church in this village, which took place at Weedsport on Saturday of this week.

The drama "A Celebrated Case," presented at Emerald Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings of last week by the young people of the parish, under the direction of Rev. A. A. Hughes, was a grand success, and was one of the best plays ever given in this village by amateurs.

Each person who took part did themselves justice. On Tuesday evening every seat in the hall was taken and a large number of persons were obliged to stand. The hall will seat over 600, and the improvements recently made in it were highly spoken of. After the play there was dancing, and refreshments were served in the dining room of the hall by the young ladies of the parish. The net proceeds will probably be about $25.00.

DANVILLE ITEMS.

Next Sunday the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body.

Rev. Father Dunn is taking a much needed vacation. We hope he will return much improved in health. During his absence Rev. Edward Byrne of St. Bernard's Seminary will have charge of the parish. A very pretty church wedding occurred on Tuesday, April 24, at 8.30 a. m., when Miss Vinetta O'Hara was married to Mr. John Nagle. Rev. Father Dunn officiated. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk and carried bride's roses. Her maid, Miss Helen O'Hara, wore a dainty gown of Persian lawn. Mr. James Nagle, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers, Messrs. William F. Kelly, and Nicholas Johangten, Jr., preceded the bridal party to the altar. Peter J. McLane very effectively sang the "Ave Maria," after the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nagle, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Nagle departed on the D. & W. at 11 o'clock for an extended tour.

The bride was a member of the Children of Mary Society and one of the most estimable young ladies in the parish, the groom is a young man of sterling worth, and one of Danville's most popular young men. Congratulations.

The L. C. B. A. will give a May-eve card party in their rooms April 30. A most enjoyable time is assured to all.

AUBURN, N. Y.

The members of St. Mary's choir will give a first part minstrel followed by a reception to their friends in Music Hall on Tuesday evening next. The minstrel part will be the finest and most unique entertainment ever given in the city and several of Auburn's best soloists will take part in the chorus that will be given during the first part. The end men will be M. A. Hanlon and Earnest Bugbee, Auburn's best and cleverest comic make up artist also William Kilburn. The latest songs and chorus will be used to good advantage. The dancing will embrace O'Neill and McGarr, two of the best dancers in the city and who have not appeared before the public in the past two years. The dancing party that will follow will be one of the prettiest of the season.

The new parish hall of the St. Aloysius Church was opened on Tuesday evening by the choir of the church who gave a party to their friends. The hall is the finest in the city and is a credit to the wonderful work of the efficient pastor, Rev. J. J. McGrath of the church. The hall was recently damaged by fire but this did not show in the opening night. It was one grand sight to see the decorations and the pretty pictures formed by the dancers. The hall will also be used as a club house for the societies of the church.

The death of John Higginbottom occurred at the home of his mother in Lewis Street on Sunday last. He had been ill only a few weeks and his death was unexpected. The funeral was held from his late home on Wednesday with services at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

James A. Hennessey of the Holy Family choir will give a production of "Meado" on next Friday night for the benefit of the hospital. He will have as his star performers, Raymond Hitchcock and Joseph Sheehan, two of the world's famous actors.

LIMA.

Sunday, the prayers of the congregation were requested for the souls of James Smith, who was interred during the previous week, and William Crickard, who died in Rochester.

There will be a month's mind high mass Thursday for Mrs. Jane Fitzgerald, and an anniversary high mass Saturday for Mrs. Mary Cleary.

There will be a collection taken up next Sunday at mass for the benefit of the sufferers from the San Francisco disaster.

The choir of St. Rose's Church gave a dance in Brendan Hall, Friday evening, April 20. Laxton's orchestra of Canandaigua, furnished the music.
