AROUND THE GLOBE

The Pope selected a triptych by a German painter of the seventeenth century as a wedding present for King Alfonso.

The Redemptorists are to have another saint proclaimed soon. The Congregation of Rites is considering for beatification the heroic virtues of the venerable Januarius Maria Sarnelli, C. S. R.

The Basilian Fathers report the following results for a recent appeal to non-Catholics in their church on Columbus Avenue and Sixtieth Street: Baptized, 37; under instruction, 8; quasi-converts (Catholics merely baptized and brought up in Protestant denominations), 8; total, 53.

A French cable chronicles the death of Bishop Fallieres, a cousin of the President of the republic. Bishop Pierre-Frederic Fallieres was born at Mezin, France, May 1834, and for some time was vicar-general of Bordeaux. He was created Bishop of St. Briec in 1889.

Nearly a hundred Catholic clergymen were in attendance in Boston at the recent annual meeting and banquet of the Old Troy Ecclesiastical Seminary, the alma mater of many of the older priests of the country. The Right Rev. Henry Gabriels, Bishop of Ogdensburg, N. Y., was the celebrant at a solemn high mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.

Thirty-five years ago Catholicism in Germany was more threatened than it is in France to-day. Churches were closed, prisons were full of priests, bishops and archbishops, and Bismarck swore that he would never go to the Canossa, but he did go. In 1871 there were only 58 Catholics in the Reichstag, representing 79,000 electors. Now there are more than 100, representing 1,800,000 electors. They are really the ruling majority in the country.

Because he has not been in good health for some time, Father William John Barry Daly, chaplain of the Sixty-ninth (New York) Regiment, has resigned, much to the regret of Colonel Duffy and members of the regiment. Father Daly was appointed chaplain January 29, 1895, and when the regiment was mustered into the United States service Father Daly went with it to the South, and remained on duty until the regiment was mustered out on January 31, 1899.

Mr. Thomas B. Minahan, president of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, is now a resident of Seattle, Wash., having resigned his position of assistant treasurer of the Morton Trust Company, of New York, to become secretary of the American Savings Bank & Trust Company of the western city. Mr. Minahan is by profession a lawyer, but has for several years been identified with the Morton Trust Company and allied institutions as the personal representative of Mr. Thomas F. Ryan. The new institution with which he is connected is backed by New York capital.

Rev. Daniel Foley, parish priest of Tarboro, N. C., died recently at the age of ninety-one years. He attended to his parochial duties up to four days before death. The deceased had a vivid remembrance of the days before emancipation, when, as a child, he often attended Mass, which in those times was celebrated in the remote glens and mountain sides of his native country. He began the mission in Kerry early in the 40's, and his work in the last days of the famine is still talked of in Kerry. He rode over a wide district of the country, bringing relief and comfort to the dying people, and it is said of him that at one time "he was for three weeks without resting from the saddle."

Though the Society of Jesus was cradled in Paris, not one Frenchman has ever been head of the order. St. Ignace founded the society in the Church at Montmartre in 1534. He was the first general, and was followed by his two countrymen, Laynez and Borja. Then came a Belgian, a Neapolitan and a Roman. Next followed a Spaniard, a Florentine, a Roman, a German, a Genoese, a Bohemian, a Milanese, a Genoese, a Florentine, a Pole, a Veronese, a Dutchman, a Swiss, and the late Father Martin. The Rev. Father Ruggera Freddi is the present vicar pro tempore. Father Martin selected him before his death as his temporary successor and the selection was ratified by the Pope.

Rev. Dr. William Turner, a former professor at the St. Paul, Minn., seminary, has been appointed professor of philosophy at the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., and he will begin his new duties on October 1. Rev. Dr. Turner was born in Limerick, Ireland. He was a student at the Jesuit college in his native city, and at the age of seventeen he graduated from the Royal University in Dublin, taking second honors in his chosen subject, "Philosophy." He went to Rome, and while pursuing his theological course, also studied philosophy, and was awarded the Baccalaureus medal, given for special elections in philosophy. He next went to Paris and studied at the Sorbonne until 1894, when he went to St. Paul, and for ten years was professor of philosophy in St. Paul's Seminary. While a member of the seminary faculty he published a book entitled "The History of Philosophy," which has been adopted as a text-book by all the Catholic colleges and many non-Catholic institutions in the United States. The volume was translated into French and Italian, and appears among the text-books in the University in Rome.

MAY DEVOTIONS CLOSED

Large Numbers Join Societies at the Cathedral

Members were received into church societies and many others promoted at the closing exercises for May in St. Patrick's Cathedral Sunday night. Besides the children and young men and women there was an audience at the service that filled the church. The exercises are held each year before the closing of the schools, since it is easier to get the children together before the close of the term.

The society for the younger boys is called the Boys' Sodality and is composed of boys who are still in the parochial schools. About 100 boys were received into this society. The act of consecration was read by one of their number, Charles Blind.

About thirty-five boys were promoted into the Cathedral Junior Society. They were boys who are about to graduate from the parochial school. Members of the society remain in it until they become young men. Raymond Guppy represented the Junior Society in the reading of the consecration act.

Into the Society of the Children of Mary, which is for girls and corresponds to the sodality for the younger boys, about 125 girls were received. Margaret Cox read the act of consecration for this society.

Forty-five girls were received into the Young Ladies' Sodality, which is for graduates of the parochial school and for all girls until they become married women. The act of consecration for the entering class was read by Nellie Neary.

Entrance into the societies for the younger boys and girls follows their taking their first communion. Those who joined societies for the first time took their first communion about ten days ago. There are two other societies connected with the Cathedral, the Young Men's Society and the Rosary Society, for married women. These societies did not take part in the service as societies, but were represented in the audience.

Before the reception in the church there was a procession of the societies in Frank Street to Platt Street and then into and about the church. During the procession and throughout the service hymns were sung by the children. After society badges had been blessed and distributed, Bishop T. F. Hickey made an address.

In his address Bishop Hickey urged the members of the societies to be faithful to the promises they had made in joining the societies. All of the talent they had, he said, were of God, and it was their duty to use them in His service. Frequently, Bishop Hickey said, those who met with some measure of success in the world were in acting as if they were independent of their Creator, and it was only when adversity came upon them that they returned to their allegiance. God expected the best services of all lives under all circumstances. Bishop Hickey said.

The service closed with a solemn pontifical benediction, celebrated by Bishop Hickey, assisted by the priests of the Cathedral, and the singing of the "Te Deum."

CANANDAIGUA.

Sunday, June 5, will always be remembered as a very happy day by the fifty-one boys and girls who made their first Communion. Father Clark spoke to them on the importance of prayer and the sacraments, and avoiding evil companions, as means for preserving the graces of their first Communion.

Katherine and Anna McDermott received word Sunday of their mother's serious illness, and started at once to be by her side before she should die. They sail Wednesday morning by the Baltic.

Mrs. Rose Smith, one of the most active ladies of the Rosary, leaves this week for a few months in Washington, D. C.

An interesting pamphlet on marriage may be found at St. Anthony's Shrine.

The collection for the Holy Father amounted to $40.

At the special meeting Sunday the C. M. B. A. appointed for the picnic July 4 the following heads of committees: Games and sports, Will O'Brien; Midway Attraction, C. E. Stewart; and James McAniff; grand stand, John E. Doyle and Louis Brady; ticket office, Wm. Widman; gate, James Ward; pop and cigars, F. Fanning and W. Sheehan; to look after the candy booth, the C. W. B. L.; the dinner, L. C. E. A.; ice cream, Sodality; badges, the Sewing Circle.

Rev. A. M. O'Neil delivered a beautiful and eloquent discourse at the Reception and May Closing Exercises last Wednesday evening. The procession of the girls and young ladies from the school to the church furnished an imposing spectacle.

The young ladies admitted to the Sodality were as follows: Anna McDermott, Louise Widman, Alice Farrell, Helen Donovan, Olive Monaghan, Helen Cooper, Alma Monaghan, Catherine Fanning, Jennie Sheehan, Margaret McPhillips, Anna Fanning, Mollie McNeill, Agnes Collins, Mae Harrington.

Canandaiguans will be pleased to learn of the conferring of degrees at the Buffalo University last Friday, upon Dr. Geo. M. Growney, who a year ago came here and took for his bride Miss Mary Cross of this village.

Rev. John W. Cummings, of Arlington, Ill., spent a few days here last week the guest of his sister Mrs. Will Hanovan. Father Cummings recently took a course of study at Rome and brings with him the Doctor's cap from the eternal city.

ADDITION TO

ST. BERNARD'S

Bishop Plans for New Wing to Cost $80,000

New Cathedral Hall Fund Amounts to $12,000

Bishop McQuaid, although 83 years old, is planning for two large buildings, or additions to buildings, in the diocese. One of these is the Cathedral Hall, which will soon be erected in Frank Street, and the other is a large addition to St. Bernard's Seminary on the Charlotte boulevard. Speaking of the Cathedral Hall, Bishop McQuaid said:

"The plans for the hall have been made and the work will be begun just as soon as $20,000 has been collected. I have told my people that we cannot go ahead until this amount is in hand. Up to present $12,000 has been paid in. There have been several calls on the purses of our people during the past year. One of these was the contribution for the sufferers at San Francisco. I thought the hall could wait a little. Just as soon as the amount I named is paid in we shall go ahead. I hope we shall be able to hold the next alumni association banquet in our new Cathedral Hall."

St. Bernard's Seminary lies very near to the Bishop's heart. The Bishop has planned to construct a building on the north side of the present building at a cost of $80,000.

Regarding the construction of this building Bishop McQuaid said: "The construction of the addition to the seminary will be begun as soon as the sale of the building known as the Young Men's Catholic Institute at Main Street West and Montgomery Alley, is consummated. This building has a frontage of 78 feet on Main Street West and a frontage of 146 feet on Montgomery Alley. The building is 22 feet wide in the rear."

"I want to get $170,000. If I could hold it until the new department store is in operation I suppose I could get much more, but I wish to see the addition to the seminary completed before I pass away. With the price of this property I could build the addition and endow additional professorships. We have to-day seven professorships endowed and we need about as many more."

The Home for the Aged on the boulevard near I want to see the Cathedral Hall and the addition to St. Bernard's Seminary, and then—well I guess that's far enough to look ahead."

AUBURN, N. Y.

The fair for the benefit of the building fund of the St. Aloysius parish is on this week and all indications will be one of the most successful fairs ever held in the city. The affair opened on Monday night and from then on everything has been run in a business like manner. The contests were fought out in a good natured manner and the entertainment provided was of the highest order. The fair will close tonight with all the contests coming to an end.

The many friends of Sister St. John who was formerly Miss Carrie Doran of Groton and Rochester will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from the effects of an operation performed last week which was necessitated on account of appendicitis. The operation was in every way successful and it is hoped that the patient will be able to receive visitors in a short time.

The different parochial schools of the city are working hard on the success of the coming parade in the Old Home week celebration.

Each of the schools will have a float in the line of march and these alone will be the finest in the line.

The committee having in charge the orphan asylum picnic for the Fourth of July report good progress but not enough as shown by the past efforts.

The donation of cream alone is not even up to last year and any person so inclined can send in their name stating that they will furnish at least one gallon of cream. That is the money to pay for the price of it. Every person in the city should help this cause. The churches outside the city but in this asylum district also should take a hand in the running of this annual picnic. They are not called upon very often to help the poor children of this institution but when appealed to should lend their help.

LIMA.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hughes took place at St. Rose's Church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Kelley and Miss Alice Hughes of Lima and three sons, Michael of Buffalo and James and John of this place.

Sunday the prayers of the congregation were requested for Mrs. Barbara Eichenger who was interred during the week.

John and Frank Walsh of Shelton, Washington, are visiting their brother, Thomas Walsh of this place.

Mr. O'Meara has returned from a visit to his son, Thomas, who is attending the Redemptorist school at North East, Pa.

Miss Mildred Laur spent the past week with her mother in Canandaigua.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Hold Annual National Convention

at New Haven This Week

New Haven, Conn., June 5.—The national convention of the Knights of Columbus was called to order soon after 9 o'clock to-day and immediately adjourned until after the pontifical high mass, which was celebrated in St. John's Church. Cardinal Gibbons presided at the mass and the celebrant was Bishop Michael Tierney, of Hartford.

The convention was opened by Supreme Knight Edward L. Hearn, of this city.

Supreme Knight Edward L. Hearn.

After cordially welcoming the delegates Mr. Hearn took up business matters of the order and pointed out that an error in counting votes cast for four members of the Board of Directors at Los Angeles last year gave an election to State Deputy Dennis B. Lucey of New York, whereas a count after the convention adjourned showed the election, instead, of Daniel Callahan, state deputy of Virginia. The Board of Directors felt that it had no right to interfere or correct the wrong, said Mr. Hearn, but individually the members believed that a member wrongly elected to membership in the board should not be deprived of his seat. The matter therefore is left to the present convention for consideration.

Mr. Hearn said that in response to the appeals of California brethren for assistance contributions from subordinate councils at present have amounted to $29,000.

Referring to the memorial service of the order he said "It is the opinion of many that this memorial form should be abolished entirely, and I recommend that in lieu thereof the order shall set apart February 22d in each year as a day upon which all councils shall have recollections of the departed brethren."

"Of the progress made during the year, Mr. Hearn said: "Every jurisdiction has exhibited a gain, the oldest state, Connecticut, having shown a great re-awakening during 1906. In Canada our progress has been very satisfactory. While the growth in membership has been very gratifying, the increase in financial strength and activity has been even more so. The total plus is $1,617,973, invested in first-class securities. Since our last convention our insured membership has increased from 44,401 to 53,474. Our associate from $8,727 to 102,840. We have added 108 new councils and have planted the banner in Mexico, British Columbia, Manitoba, Manila, and in the maritime provinces."

In conclusion Mr. Hearn said that the growth of the order seemed to point to the advisability of forming councils in foreign countries.

The report of National Secretary Daniel Colwell shows receipts for the year of $722,501, which, with the balance from last year, brought the total income to $1,965,027. The disbursements were $450,375, leaving a balance of $1,509,652.

National Physician W. T. McManus submitted his report, showing that 321 members had died during the year. The national advocate, E. M. Ardie, presented a receipt of opinions rendered during the year.

Cook Opera House.

The Moore Stock Company will offer for the fourth week of its summer season at the Cook Opera House, "There and Back," a farce comedy that has been successful both in New York and London. This will be the company's first comedy of the summer.

The principal character in it is William Waring, a merchant. This young man is ordered by his physician to take a trip abroad for his health. He is to be accompanied by a neighbor. Developments arise that would make it very awkward for the two to undertake this voyage—but they do not care to tell their wives the cause for giving it up. So they pretend to go, but simply go to Scotland (the whole thing happens in England and Scotland) while their wives think they have crossed the ocean and are in New York.

The Catskill Mountains.

The best route to all points in the Catskill Mountains is by the West Shore Railroad and its connections. Write or call for descriptive advertising matter at ticket office of New York Central lines, 20 State Street.

Redemptorist Jubilee

Prominent Churchmen - Attend

Twenty-fifth Anniversary at North East - Bishop McQuaid Preaches Sermon

The silver jubilee of St. Mary's College at North East, Pa., took place on May 30th and fully 5,000 people attended the services.

The day's celebration began with solemn pontifical high mass with the following officera: Celebrant, Rt. Rev. J. E. Fitzmaurice, D. D., Bishop of Erie, Pa.; archpriest, Very Rev. William G. Tuecking, C.S.R., Baltimore, provincial of the eastern province of the Redemptorist order; sacristan, Rev. Augustine Doobler, professor of theology in the University of Chicago and the first rector of St. Mary's; sub-deacon, Rev. Henry O'Connell, New York; deacon, Rev. John Schagermann of Chicago and Rev. Casper Ritter of Pittsburgh; master of ceremonies, Father Lachsmair of Erie; assistant, Rev. Lawrence Young, North East; minor offices, the college students. Those present in the sanctuary included Archbishop Falconio, Apostolic Delegate; Rt. Rev. Bernard McQuaid, D. D., Bishop of Rochester; Rt. Rev. Ignatius Horvath, D. D., Bishop of Cleveland; Rt. Rev. Charles H. Colton, D. D., Bishop of Buffalo; Rt. Rev. J. F. Reagh, Canevin, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburg; Mgr. M. J. Decker, Erie; Mgr. J. F. Dunn, Meadville; Mgr. Boh, vicar-general of the diocese of Cleveland; Mgr. Hoelscher of Buffalo, Mgr. Baker, vicar-general of Buffalo diocese; Rev. Father Duval of Baltimore, general procurator of the eastern province of the Redemptorist order, and who was first in charge of St. Mary's college; Very Rev. E. J. Sheridan of Oil City, vicar-general of the Erie diocese, and almost a hundred priests.

The sermon was preached by the Bishop of Rochester, and was a masterly oration. At the conclusion of the mass the dignitaries and clergymen were seated at a banquet spread in the hall of the college, presided over by the distinguished Mgr. Falconio. At the conclusion of the dinner the calligraphy delivered a short address commending the splendid results accomplished by St. Mary's college.

The civic programme included a magnificent parade, a competitive drill by the Knights of St. John, in which the Erie regiment won the prize, and a pole-raising.

Haker Theatre.

For the sixth week of its season at the Haker Theatre the Efford Musical Comedy Company will present John Philip Sousa's great comic opera, "El Capitán." This will be in the nature of an exhibition of the company's full ability, as the opera is a more ambitious undertaking than those already presented, but the company made one of its biggest hits with "El Capitán" on the road last winter, and it is expected that it will do the same next week.

Besides the grand and stirring music of the kind that Sousa is famous for, the opera has a very funny story and admits of some clever work by the comedians and violinists of the company.

The chorus work will be a sort of a revelation. Some great work has already been done by the Efford chorus but it is expected that next week will eclipse it all. Certainly some thrilling march music should furnish some big opportunities for wondrous work.

The production will be complete in every detail and will run all the week. Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday as usual.
