For a vacation shoe for boys we know of nothing to equal the "Skrapper." It is a low, comfortable shoe, what shoemakers call a "gypsy cut"—seam up the middle of the toe—no lacing, no stitching except the counter; Goodyear welt "tuff" soles. It will stand the hardest sort of knocks. We know of one boy who has worn out three pairs of soles and the tops are good yet. Shoes made to supply "Skrappers" in tan grain leather, black kid and oxford sizes 11-12 to 9, for $1.50 a pair.
