The girls were dressed in white and the boys in black, and each carried a lighted candle. The children formed in line in the school building, under the direction of the sisters, and marched to the church, accompanied by the men's Society of Perpetual Help. The church was well filled with parents and friends of the children. In the afternoon the children went to the parsonage in a body and Father Szadzinski presented to each a souvenir card bearing the child's name and the date on which the first communion was received. The Society of Perpetual Help has fifty members.

At the last quarterly meeting of the C. Y. M. A. it was unanimously decided to hold the annual outing at Seneca Point, Canandaigua Lake on the twenty-fifth of July. It is positively announced that Mr. John Hart's celebrated "Banda Irishana" will be present and perform, but they have been prevailed upon at great expense not to play any music. Many of the members of elephantine proportions have gone into training and as a result the fat men's race will bring forth a display of obesity unparalleled in the annals of the club. There will be a tug of war between Mr. William Schleifer, champion of the laboring class, and Mr. Nicholas Schwab, the renowned coal baron. Mr. Eustace Leinen, Mr. Joseph Otto and Mr. Harry Klein promise to defeat the single men in a ball game and thus uphold the honor of the benedicti. In short there will be such an upheaval of the staid and solemn customs and manners of that beautiful, but somewhat burg of Canandaigua that the shade of many an Indian sachem long asleep in his final resting place, will long to return and share the exploits of this new race of Indians now turning everything topsy-turvy.

Last Thursday the St. Joseph's Literary had their annual outing at Manitou Beach. During the afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Miss C. Yawman; vice-president, Miss L. Etzel; treasurer, Miss L. Tiernan; rec. sec., Miss P. Verhoeven; cor. sec., Miss J. Hahn.

The members of this parish are cordially invited to attend a lawn social to be held under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliaries in the school yard on Franklin St., on July 16th and 17th. Up to this time the reporter's queries as to details have been replied to with "Wait and see. It will take your breath away." In common with the rest of poor humanity he always experiences a pleasant sensation whenever some startling novelty deprives him temporarily of the necessary wherewithal to fill his lungs. Consequently he will be there on the evenings mentioned. Whenever the Ladies Aux. set out to do something, it will be done as it should be. Consequently if the members promise novelties and a good time there certainly will be novelties galore and a good time for every body.
