What is Being Done by the People of Home - Gossip From All the Counties of the Emerald isle.

Uister

ANTRIM.-On May 16 a concert and conversazione were held in St. Joseph's hall, Lisburn, with the object of rais ing funds to clear off the debt on the new church. There was a large and appreciative audience. The programme was one of the highest merit.

Charles Devlin, 7 Abercorn street, Belfast, died on May 21 at am advanced age. He was father of Joseph Devlin, Nationalist member of parliament for West Belfast, now in Australia as the envoy of the Irish mation.

CAVAN .- There has recently been reinstated in Derryhoo, near Belturbet, the son of a tenant evicted thirty-six years ago. Belturbet branch U. I. L. interested itself in the matter.

The Very Rev. Patrick Finnegan. P. P., V. F., Templeport, Bawn boy, was the Rev Edward Boyle "That the appointed vicar capitular of the see of Kilmore after the funeral of the late their sincere sympathy to Brother J J.

branch of the United Irish lengue was held lately, the following members of the committee being present: Fellx Mc. Manus, P. White, Daniel Halton, Patrick Hogan, T. McManus, P. Hetherton, P. Evers, M. Reilly, P. Maguire, Philip Reilly, James Klernan. The following were proposed and unanimously elected to the positions named. James Kiernan, chairman; Felix Me-Manus, to be president; F', White, treasurer; John Campbell, secretary. Patrick White proposed a vote of thanks to the outgoing officers, which was DERRY .- Murtagh Hamill, P. P., St. Malachy's, Coleraine, has been appointed to the parish of Kilkeel, County Down. Father Hamill succeeded to Coleraine (which includes Portstewart) only some ten months ago, after the death of Rev. John Carroll, P. P., in will be Rev. P. Magill, P. P., Culfeightrin, native of Loughgiel.

After being chased for six mailes by of a very philanthropic nature. two policemen on bicycles, a tramp | The death of William Carey, Cree, tinker from Tyrone was apprehended happened on May 15. on a charge of stabbling Hugh Austin. As Patrick Scanlan was fixing eave farmer, of Altigalvin. It appeared that shoots on the house of Michael (Files.) and in response to the request the had to spare. The tramp struck the farmer with a pair of aclasors on the DONEGAL -- King Alfonso of Spain. it is stated, will soon visit Ireland and will pay attention to the historic parts of Donegal, Irish chieftains from that county having made their names fa mous in the history of Spain.

The preparations for the "Aonachan-Duin" are proceeding apace. A stranger visiting any part of Donegal could not help thinking that the coming summer festival had crushed out inter est in every other subject. Concerts and balls, football and hurling matches, lectures and lantern views, a thietic tournaments and Irish dancing exhibitions have all their announcement bills decorated with the legend, "Aonach-an-Dnin" and are all in preparation for that great gathering of the Gael which will assemble in St. Eunan's new college, Letterkenny, on July 10. The eyent is associated with "Doon Bock," near Kilmacrenan, where the princes of "Tir Conaill" were maugurated and given the white wand of chieftancy by the Eremech of Kilmacrenan.

At recent opening for divine worship of Edeninfagh new Catholic church the members of the Glenties division of the A. O. H. marched to the solemn ceremony. There was a large attendance of members, augmented by a muster from a subdivision. The latter came from Fintown. The members subscribed handsomely toward the building fund. The pastor, Canon James McFadden, celebrated selemp high mass, assisted by Rev. C. Boyce, Glenties: Rev. H. McShane, Glenties. and Rev. C. Kennedy, Ballyshannon. The vest congregation present were subsequently addressed by Canon Mc-Fadden, speaking in Gaelle and afterward in English. He siluded to the happy discountifiences under which they had gathered beneath the roof of that edifice dedicated to God's service. They rejoiced to find the church completed after arduous labor on the part of the community.

DOWN .-- While Arthur McClean of Magennis street, Newry, was driving along the Armagh road on May 22 his horse shied and he was thrown to the ground. One of the wheels passed over him. He was removed to his home, where he died the following morning.

The Irish National Foresters in the Newry district were responsible for the bustle in Monaghan street, Newry, May 20. Two hundred members of Branch John Mitchel, Newry: Branch Father Mathew, Rostrevor, and Branch Father Rooney, Ballyholland, were taking the car for Whitecross in South Armugh, where the twofold event of a church parade and the opening of a new half took place.

Captain William Ferguson, late of the steamship Ivengh, was lately on board the steamship Bessbrook at Newry made the recipient of a handsome presentation by his friends. Captain Berguson has been promoted to Dundalk in the service of the Dundalk and Green Steam Packet commany: The committee took the form of a mand-some mounted clock and set of orna ments. David Martin made the presentation. Those present included Wil lim Reilly, W. C. M. Smith and a large number of cattle dealers.

FERMANAGH - Jeremiah Jordan, M. P. for South Termanagh, was seized with a sudden filness in the lobby of the house of commons on May 18. The honorable member was removed In an unconscious state to Westmanster hospital. Hopes are entertained for a speedy restoration to health.

A unique wedding was solemnized in Enniskillen parish church on May 21. when Samuel Blane was united to Mrs. Crookes. Both have seen more than seventy summers, and each had gone through the marriage ceremony twice previously. Dean Ovenden was the of ficiating clergyman. After the ceremony the bridegroom affectionately kissed the smiling bride. A good hu mored crowd assembled, and when the newly wedded pair appeared cheers were raised and a liberal supply of rice was showered on the couple

TYRONE.-A meeting of members of the Fintona St. Laurence branch of the Irish National Foresters was held lately, Brother Michael Gavin, C R. in the chair, assisted by Brother Thom as Gavin in the vice chair. The chief ranger proposed the following vote of condolence to Brother J J. Boyle and his sister on the death of their brother, members of Branch St. Laurence offer Boyle and his sister on the death of A meeting of members of Scrabby their brother, the Rev. Edward Boyle." Father Boyle took a great interest in the branch since its inauguration. At the first parade of St. Laurence branch he gave a lecture on the advantage of being a member, and many members joined. The resolution was seconded by Brother Owen Rogers and support ed by the secretary. At the first reunion of this branch Father Boyle trav eled from Sheffield, England, to be present and explained that he had got a branch of the order opened at Shef field in the death of Father Boyle Ireland has lost a patriotic soggarth and Forestry a zealous advocate

Munster

CLARE.-The remains of the late Mrs Annie Bruce, West Cliff, West End, kilkee, were found lying on the rocks under her residence May 22 by John Collins of Kilkee It is supposed that she was sitting near the edge of June, 1905. His successor in Coleraine the cliff and took weakness. She was aged about sixty years. Her interest in the management of local affairs was

Gallagher asked for a pair of boots, provision dealer, Henry street, Kilrush, he slipped off and was precipitatfarmer offered him one old boot, all he ed head downward to the ground. He sustained injuries to the spine and was paralyzed from the neck down. Hev. head, knocking him down and cutting Father Scanian was quickly on the cene, as was Dr. Randal Counthan Although in a dying state, he rallied for a brief period, when his confession was heard and the last sacraments given. He passed away in the morning. He leaves a wife and six chil

> A branch of the Gaelic league has been founded in Kilnabov At a com mittee meeting held lately Timothy Flanagan was elected president, T Whelan and Michael Hegarty vice presidents. M. Griffey treasurer, Patrick MacMahon honorable secretary and Patrick Fogarty assistant secre tary. The following are the committee: John Keane, Cahermicon, John Markham, Ballycashen; Thomas La hiff. Leana; Martin Sullivan, Kilnaboy; John Moloney. Carhunamodera; John Roache, Rhinamona; John Mc Key Mollogh: Thomas Kenny, Glenquin: James Neylon, Corofin.

The death of venerable archdeacon of Killaloe, Very Rev. Dr. Malone, Kilrush, took place on May 20.

CORK .-- Michael Gleason, the milk through an accident at Dromcollogher creamery, is progressing favorably. Andrew Sheehan of Nohoval, who shoulder joint. An operation was performed by Dr. Horace Townsend, and his left arm was amputated.

An impressive ceremony was wit lessed lately at the Loreto Abbey, Rathfaraham, Dublin, when seven young ladies were received into the order. Among the ladies received is Miss Mary Josephine Fitzgerald, a street, Cork, a well known and respected citizen. Miss Fitzgerald will be known as Sister Lawrence.

An accident of a serious nature cocurred to Michael O'Keeffe of Kanturk lately. It appears that he was riding a bicycle down a steep incline when. finding he was going too quickly, he put on the brakes with force and some twine that was round the front wheel to compress a defective portion of the tire got round the brakes with the result that the machine stopped straight up, the rider being pitched over the handle bars with considerable force. Both his arms were broken by the fall, minor nature. The death of M. Crowley, Adrigole, occurred on May 30. He was aged fifty-five years.

not to mention other injuries of a

A meeting of the members of the Blackpool branch of the Gaelic league under the presidency of James Mac-Mahon was held at 19 Pine street. Cork, for the purpose of making a presentation of a beautiful set of Irish books to Thomas Curtin, vice president, prior to his departure to take up a position as teacher of Irish in the district of Croom. The chairman, Eamonn to the success of Mr. Curtin as a Gaetic stagent and as a Gaeth teacher

Recent Deaths in Cork.-SHARKEY On May 25, at 45 Great Britain street Lizzie Sharkey HEARD On May 24. at Protestant Incurable Home Cork, Eva Helena Croker Heard, Bke hanagh, Doueraile, aged fifty-three years. SIMMS On May 24, at Wa terford, Susan Simms, daughter of the late Michael Lane formerly of Dunmanway. LINEHAN May 22, at Boherbee, Banteer P. Linehan --OBRIEN May 25, at Main street Charlesville, Catherine O'Brien of Ard . more, in the eighty fourth year of her - KIDNEY On May 25, at Haw thorne terrace, Queenstown, Mary Kid ney - SHEEHAN On May 23, Ed ward Sheehan, Whitegate, late of Kil leendaniel, aged seventy six TWO MEY May 2% at Knockrour House Norn Twomey daughter of the late John Dwyer, Rock Lodge, Coachford -- FOGARTY On Nov 15, at Cloyne Mrs Ellen Fogarty 0 SULLIVAN-May 24, at 38 Harbour row, Queens town, Abima O'Sullivan - KELLE HER At SS. Mary and Elizabeth's hospital, Lamisville, Ky, Rev. Patrick Kelleher, curate of St. Patrick's church and chaplain of St Joseph's academy. Louisville, youngest son of the late Denis Kelleher, Aghabullogue, aged thirty seven

KERRY .- A son of Patrick Barry of Horse Island, Ballinskellig's bay, who was aged fourteen years, fell down a cliff when looking for birds' nests and was killed

Miss Ellie O'Connell of Main street 'aberciveen, died on May 20.

On May 22 a young man named Rahilly, son of a farmer residing at Knockathe, near Brosna, was found In a quarry adjacent to his house with his throat gashed. In a rambling, un certain kind of way be said a man at tacked him with a razor

On March 23 the Rev. Thomas Mul whill of Gisborne, New Zealand, aged thirty eight years, passed away. He was son of Matthew Mulvihill, Doon ard, Turbert

The members of the Trales second team met on May 21 to make a presentation to Frank Cronin, their captain on his departure for the far west. I Mclonald presided Among those present were A. Stack, T. O'Gorman J O'Gorman, C Healy, J T Fitzgerald, J. O'Connell, D. Mullins, John O'Sulfivan, Con O'Donoghue, John Lav in, William Mahony, J. O'Donoghue. M. O'Donoghue, R. Dissert, T. B. O'Connor, J. Whitstone, D. Kerin, V. Neville, J. O'Grady, R. Prendergast, Tim Sullivan, E. Flaherty, W. Flynn, E. O'Riordan, W. O'Riordan, and P. J. Ca bill, honorable secretary. The chairman said they were assembled there that evening to wish bon voyage to Frank Cronin, the worthy captain of their innior feam. The presentation consisted of a gold medal and a gold scarf pin. Mr. Cronin, accompanied by his sister Miss Elizabeth Cronin, left recently for Queenstown The large num ber of admirers who assembled to bid them farewell aboved the esteem in which they were held by the people of LIMERICK. - Mrs. Hazium, Vizes Fields, Limerick, was found dead in bed on May 28. She refired to rest the previous night in good health.

The third Thomond feis, under the auspices of the local branch of the Gaelic league was opened in the Gaelic league rooms, Limerick city, May 26, and was a magnificent event in every way Mgr Hallinan by his scholarly address at the opening lent an importance to the movement, which was to be expected for a clergyman of his pa triotic principles In the dancing, singing, violin playing, history, etc., there was great evidence of the progress the movement has made in the city. Patrick Ryan of Ballyguiltenane Glin, lately received news of the ordination of his son, Patrick A. Ryan, of the Society of Jesus. The cere mony took place in Woodstock coliege, Woodstock, Md., when Cardinal Gibbons conferred the sacred dignity factory employee, who lost his arm on nine scholastics, all of the Society of Jesus. The Rev. Patrick A. Ryan, S. J., was born in Ballyguiltenane, Glin on Nov. 18, 1878. He made his vas accidentally shot by a comrade on studies in the apostolic school, Mungret May 18, is bearing up well. The No. 4 college, Limerick, where he had for his shot lodged in his arm and shattered superior the Very Rev. John B. Rene, the bone two or three inches under the S. J., vicar apostolic of Alaska and at present professor of theology in Consage college, Spokane, Wash.

TIPPERARY .- Michael Ryan, who had been for many years the superintendent of the butter market in the town of Tipperary, died on May 24 at his home in O'Brien street.

Rev. Brother Weston, superior of the Christian Brothers in Clohmel, gratedaughter of P. N. Fitzgerald, Prince's fully returns thanks for the following additional subscriptions toward the Knocknagow bazaar: Matthew Fee han, O'Conneil street, $25; David Kiely. O'Connell street, $11 and a prize; John Warren, West Gate, $10; a Protestant friend, $26.

The death of Mrs. Mary Power Priorstown, relict of the late Pierce Power, at the age of seventy-one years, took place on May 28. The death of Patrick O'Brien, Bally crinode, occurred on May 18. WATERFORD .-- Mrs. E. Flynn o Mothel died on May 21 at the age of ninety years. Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor, bishop of Armidale, Australia, who was recently on his visit to the holy father, arrived at Lismore lately on a visit to his friends. He will remain for some time. Dr. O'Connor is a native of Clonea. The late Rev. D. O'Connor, P. P., Bai-lylooby, was his brother. The city of Waterford has lost one of its oldest and most esteemed natives by the death of Michael Wyse, town councilor, of Castle street, who died May 19.

An Irish school is being established at Ring. Dungarvan, for students of the Irish language, for young people (na. a subcommittee for athletics. Messrs. Coughland James Delaney, John Moy. tive speakers) desirous of becoming Croker, Talbot, Power, Leckey, Rowe, muan, it Cishman and Jeremial Gaelic league teachers and for nationa O Sullivan pand a well deserved tribute and intermediate school teachers any lous to perfect their knowledge of Irist and to become acquainted with the best methods of imparting same to others.

Leinster

CARLOW-The death took place or May 24 at Wellington square, Carlow of John Kelly, who had been a promi aent figure in the commercial life of Carlow He had also occupied the position of vice chairman of the Carlow board of guardians.

On May 13, in beautiful weather, the third annual fels organized by the Bagnalstown branch of the Gaelle league was held in Parade field. The fels was under the patronage of the Very Rev. Mgr. Burke, the pastor of Muinebleag There were a large num ber of clergymen present including the Rev Father Donnelly, who in the ab sence of the Very Rev. Mgr. Burke opened the proceedings. Above the platform was the inscription in Erish "Cend mille failte Roini, Mille at-Cruinnuighta annso Gan Teagna. Gar Tir Tir agus Teanga a dia saor Eire' The programme was as the Rev Fa ther Donnelly said, a very varied and interesting one. It included competitions in the Irish language, history or atory, music, dance and literature.

The Kilkenny City handball sepre sentatives visited Carlow recently and met the local men at the racket cour in a return contest. The representa tives met recently in Kilkenny, and the Carlow men proved victorious by three rubbers. They repeated their success in the home court, but the games were more exciting and scientific There were a large number of spectators when the contests opened. In the first rubber Thomas McEvoy and J Cur ran, Carlow, met J J Brennan and J Nolan, Kilkenny This was a good rub O'Connor ber, the visitors, who played a spiendic game, being defeated by two aces Mother M Evangelist Hogan, Convent The second rubber was between Pat of Mercy Mozzasterevan The decensed rick McEvoy and Patrick Reddy, Car was in the forty fifth year of her relilow, and Jarnes Byrne and M. Dallard gious profession. She was held in the Kilkenny The match was very excit highest esteem by the community and ing, each game being well contested by a large sircle of friends Byrne physici in fine form for Kilken | Kilk ENNY .- The Lornster football ny, which was defeated by one game championship was continued on May John Dunne and J Delaney. Klikenny first division for the championship of O Farrell, pastor, for the able way he easy victory DUBLIN-Great regret was felt a ford, 3 points. not later than the 10th of September oud, Martin Green, Nenagh. letter from John Rochfort, Sandy bishop O'Scanlan, also rest in the sa-Mount, inclosing a subscription and cred place. cross should be of Irish marbles.

A summer fete which promises to be Father Kelly, parish priest of Sandy. ford, in aid of the movement for the collection of funds to erect a new the new palatial residence erected by Richard Croker at Sandyford, which have been kindly lent by him. Mr. Croker and his family are taking great interest in the fete, and with such assistance it will prove a success. It will be opened on the first Saturday in August and will be continued on the following Monday and on every day of that week. A number of tentlemen assumbled lately at Father Kelly's residence at Larkfield to device measures for securing the success of the fete. Richard Croker was present and made suggestions, prefacing them with the naive remark, "I knew something of organization in my time." A ladies' purpose some weeks ago. The Very Rev. Father Kelly presided at the meeting, and among those present were: The Rev. P. Ryan, Richard Croker, Robert Doyle, B. L.; J. J. McDonald, solicitor; Joseph F. Keogh, Dr. O'Donovan, Martin Fitzgerald, J. Waldron, L. Roe, T. W. Leckey, Michael Byrne, H. O'Hanlon, P. Cummins, D. F. Condon, A. McDonnell, C. C. Dawson, F. Asken Ross, Denis J. S. Black, Mrs. Philip Maguire, Kiernan; Myles Bourke, Hugh Roe, Patrick Hickey and others. A discussion took place as to the arrangements for the fete. Mr. Croker was appointed chairman of the general committee and the executive committee and Messrs. Keogh, Hickey, McDonald, Doyle, Black, Roe, Condon. Maguire and Dawson were appointed a subcommittee on amusements. Messrs. Byrne, McDonnell, Ross, Waldron, L. Rowe, Walsh, Maguire and the Rev. Father Behan were appointed

Dr O'Donovan, O'Hanlon, Cummins and Bourke were appointed a subcommittee on works.

Recont Deaths in Dublin.--KEHOE-At 140 Upper Rathmines, Peter Kehoe, late of Clone-gal, County Wexford. - KELLY May 20, at Mentone, St. Lawrence road, Eichard Arthur Keily, formerly of Bom bay - LYALL-May 20, 18 Carlingford terrace, Drumcondra, Williami Lyall, late local manager National Telephone company.-M'DONNELLI - At Ellismore, Kinsenly, Kathleen McDonnell, aged twenty-one years. ---MITRRAY-May 19, at Albans road, Jennale Murray. MUR-PHY - May 19, at Ardeevin, Dalkey, Nora Murphy. - CUMMINS At Sutton. John F. Curramins, late of 10 and 11 Lombard Street, Westland row .-DALY March 23, at Glebe Point, Sydney, Bridget M. Daiy, relict of the late Michael Daly, Merrion Hall, Merrion, and Nassau street, Dublin, in the righty-sixth year of her age --- DOYLE - May 6, at Tourvilla, Rathmines read, Peter Doyle. -- HEENEY May 23, at 87 Upper Church street, Dublin, Alicia Heeney - LEAFTY-May 21, John Leahy, Castle street and Shammock House, Dalkey .- FARRELL May 7, at Kingston, Golden Bail, Jane Farrell, Kilternan, aged forty-three years .--JOY- May 6, Bridget Mary Joy off 72 brook. Edward Keams, late of 15 Fleet street, aged eighty-four years .-- GDR MAN-May 20 at 35 Eccles street. James Gorman, M. B., Baitingiass, aged thirty two years. - HOLBROOK At Albert road, Kingstown, Christo-Dher Holbrook. SMYTH May 2L at Douglas, Jane Smyth, daughter of the

Blessington street, second daughter of iate Ellen Fegan of Baibriggan. KILDARE.—The death of Joseph Patrick O'Connor, Mylerstown, Mass, occurred lately, at the early age of normal condition. fourteen years. He was son of Joseph

We regret to anmounce the death of

The next match was between Patrick 20 at Jones road, when Edkenny and Coyne and John Murphy, Carlow, and Wexford met in the semifinal of the In this rubber the Carlow men had at the province. The final whistis found helped to bring around the terms menthe score Kilkenny, 6 points; Wex-

Bush owing to the departure of Rev KING'S -On May, 24 Birr Gradio fois Canons O'Hea, pastor, who has been was held in the Sports field. The enpromoted to Bally brack parish. During tries for competitious were large. There his stay in Rush he endeared himself was a big gathering of the people and not only to his parishioners, but to al a great display of enthusiasm. Among religious vows to a number of ladies with whom he came in contact. Rev the winners of prizes were Frizes of L. O'Byrne, F. P., Avoca, has been ap fered by the Most Rev. Dr Fogarty Rev. Dr MacCormack, bishop of Galpointed to the pastoral charge of Rush for choral singing of the benediction way, by whom mass was celebrated. A meeting of the executive committer service, girls' choir, urban-First, con- The ladies are Miss Elizabeth Mary of the Moore memorial was held lately vent schools. Roscrea, second, convent in the Mansion House, Dublin, the Hon schools, Birr. Boys choir, urban-First, brief, daughter of the late James Justice Mercelith in the chair. The ob national schools, second, presentation O'Mara, Ballycormack, Borrisokaner ject was to select the design for the schools, Birr Rural choirs-Equal for Celtic cross to be erected at Moore's first girls choir, Enthcabbin, and boys' grave in Brombam, Wiltshire, England choir, Ratheabbin, second, national Sweeney, Killea, Templemore; Miss It was resolved that the tender of Har schools. Shinrone Jig and reel (ladies) rison & Son be accepted at the price of -First, Josephine Brennan, Birr; E. $1,100, subject to the condition that the Dooly, Rath. Jig and red (men)-First. cross be completed, erected and ready Seaghan MacCaulte, Tufiamore, sec-letter from Allan S. Hartigan, Brom which occurred recently in Longford ham, in which he suggested that the town were the following: Mrs B. N cross be eighteen feet high, so that the Moore, J. J. Sterin and Patrick Dowd, memorial could be seen from the road all well known and estremed residents. and visible on all sides from a good; LOUTH.-It is proposed to inclose distance. The cross will be eighteen with an ornamental railing the historic feet high, with a massive die, carved tower or steeple of the Dominican orfront and sides, molded and paneled der in Droghedia. The structure was on back and composed of the best qual erected in 1224 by Archbishop Netherity of Ballingsloe limestone. The me ville of Armagh, whose remains were morial when erected will be the most interred there twenty-three years later. effective structure in the district. A The remains of his successor, Arch-

making some very interesting and val | On May 12 Michael Brannigan, a welf uable suggestions as to a design for the known figure on the quays, Droghedn, Dublin monument, having been con died suddenly in the dispensary in sidered, the meeting adjourned. The Bachelor's lane. He was noticed by Constable Lawlor coming up Shop street in a week state. He told the a great success is being organized by constable he was going to the dispensary and, with the assistance of Mr. Nugent, was removed there. Constable Lawfor then went for Dr. Byrne. chapel at Glencullen. The fete will who saw that he was dying. A priest take place in the beautiful grounds of was sent for, but before he had arrived

Brannigan expired. The Drogheda traces council held a meeting lately, Mr. Carter in the chair. Present: Painters, T. Moonas, J. Kenny: mason, P. Reilly; postmen, T. Planagan, M. McCowan; tallors, J. Murray, M. Nugent; bakers, J. Carter, P. McQuillan; carpenter, & Dollard: plumber, M. Fitspatrick. It was proposed by T. Flanklikki shit seconded by J. Kenny "that we hall with pleasure the efforts of the Drogheds Development association in encouraging local industry and trust that the proposed boot factory will be brought to a sucresaful issue." Mr. Murray proposed and T. Flanagan seconded, "that we committee was appointed for the same appeal to the public to support every lidustry in our town, thereby helping MEATH.—In consection with the

to increase its welfare." death of the late Dr. P. M. Laffan, thirty years medical officer for the Tara dispensary district, in the Dunshaughlin union an effort is being made to raise a memorial. With this object the following circular has been issued: "There is a feeling that it would be a fitting tribute to the memory of Dr. P. M. Laffan to erect a monument over his grave, and it is desired to give all who knew him an opportunity of associating themserves in the work. The following committee has been formed: Very Rev. D. Morrissy, Dunsany; Rev. J. Kelly, G. F. Murphy, Grange; Patrick Maher, Esq., Ross; Michael Fitzsimmon, H. Doran, Thomas Halligan, Skryne. You can facilitate the work by sending your subscriptions to either of the honorable treasurers. Yours faithfully, Laurence Steen, Castle Od-Rutland square, Dublin, honorable sechen secretary.

retaries; Colonel Hammond and W. Lynch, Dunsany honorable treasurers." John Daly, Veldonstown, Navam, died on May 22 at the age of eighty-eight vears.

QUEEN'S. - James Phelan, Mountrath, died recently at the age of ninety WESTMEATH .- The death occurred on May 19 of Michael Lynch, Bally knock. Devlin, at the age of eighty-two

Miss Annie Rail, Castlepollard, died on May 20, aged sixty years.

WEXFORD. - On May 22, about 9 a. m. Miss Rachel Farrer of George street. Wexford, died suddenly while having a tooth extracted. Mr. Kennealy of Dr. Cooper's dentistry arranged to pull out the tooth, and Dr Thomas Dowse administered ether. Miss Farrer at once became faint and expired. All Dr. Dowse's efforts to restore animation were fruitless

The death of Mrs. Curran, New Ross,. mother of Laurence Curran, manager at Jones & Co., and Rev Brother Curran, occurred on May 5.

Connaught

GALWAY .- The prize list of the recent Dublin feis shows that Stephen Ruane of Galway won the first prizefor playing on the Irish pipes

the late Thomas Joy, formerly of the Here is an Irish heroine worthy to G P () - FEARMS- May 7, at the wear a t'arnegie medal: As some chil-Royal Hospital For Incurables, Donnydren were playing, on May 19, by the side of the estuary at Clifden one fell into the sea and was rapidly being carried off by the ebbling tide when Miss Cissie Mullen, aged seventeen, who was passing at the time, jumped in to the rescue The child having sunk, she dived and brought the little one to the surface, subsequently landing it safely on the bank of the river, where it took some time to restore it to its > Hubert Dolphin of Turros has ancepted the offer of his tenants at Kilbeasantry and Peterswell for their holdings at eighteen years' purchase, all arrears wiped out, tenants to pay interest on purchase money at 31/2 per cent from 1st of May The tenants only bld this figure on the conditions of getting part of the grass farm called Lisacloyie, the price to be fixed by the estates commissioners. This was agreed to by the landlord. At parting the tenants returned thanks to Rev. J. tioned, and they expressed regret at parting with their landlord. The landlord thanked the tenants and regretted severing his connection with them.

At the Convent of Mercy, Galway, the impressive ogremony of administering was recently performed by the Most O'Mara (in religion Sister Mary Ga-Miss Ellie Sweeney (in religion Sister Mary Agnesi, daughter of Cornelius Molloy (In religion Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart), daughter of Mr. Molloy, Tuam, and sister of the Rev Father Molloy, County Mayo; Miss O'Neill (in religion Sister Mary Joseph), daughter Among the correspondence read was a LONGFORD. - Among the deaths of the late Mr WNeill, Roscommon. After the solemn ceremony the reverend mother and nuns entertained the bishop, priests and friends of the newly professed to a defeuner.

LEITRIM.-The death of T. J. Clarke. journalist, Garrick-on-Shannon, occurned on May 12 at the age of twenty-

Another of the old stock has been taken by the death of James Smyth, brother of the late Patrick Smyth, merchant, Westport, which occurred at Killina Glebe, Manorhamilton, on the 15th of May. Deceased was in hisninety third year and had been a well known and prominent figure in the struggles that took pince within that time.

MAYO .- Mrs. Many Passisk of Abbey street. Balliprobe, wife of John Feerick, compositor, died on May 4, aged forty-seven years.

ROSCOMMON.-The death of Miss Mary Cabill, daughter of Martin Cahill, Knockmurray, Castlerea, occurred on May 15 at the age of twenty-nine SLIGO.—William Boyle, son of late Patrick Boyle, Sitgo, died on May 15 at Ibrox, Glasgow, Scotland. The death of Dr. Thomas Stanley Murray eccured at Laurel Hill, The Mall, Stigo, on May 20 after a very brief lineas

Rev. Father Crefts, O. P., Holy Cross church, Slige, recently presched a must impressive sermon on intemperance. He entreated every one, particularly the young people, to join the temperance movement. About 350 people responded. A meeting of all the members of the T. A. L. took place in the chapel yard, Magherow, after mass for the purpose of electing a managing committee. Rev. Father Monaghan acted as chairman. The following are the committee elected to represent the various town lands; Michael McLoughlin, D. Meehan, J. Gillan, P. Kelly, P. Feeney, R. Waters, J. Waters, M. Clancy, J. Nicholson, D. Herity, T. Hunt, T. Cullen, P. Moffatt, M. Waters, M. Haran, T. Gillooly; joined to grange T. A. L., W. Currid. The committee then proceeded to the reading room. given by the club, for the purpose of electing officers. D. Meehan took the chair. Rev. Father Monaghan, Dr. P. J. Flanagan and P. Lenehan were coopted members of the committee. It was proposed by Mr. Nicholson, seconded by Mr. Hunt, that Dr. P. J. Flanagan be elected president and passed unanimously. It was also proposed by Father Monaghan, seconded by D. Meeban, that T. Cullen be elected vice president, and passed unanimously. Rev. Father Monaghander, Tara, and T. Domnelly, M. D., 14 was appointed treasurer and P. Lene-

PERSONAL SE

V : WF 6.4 J 1997 143

actly out o time ment for

citi

nar

tha

evo

tho

init

706

cou

nan apo.

had

befo

cha

The

Ray

lette

pub!

of ti

form

mine

Whe

Tedr

the stan!

place

Alp.

...Ne

ment

the

vers

the taura

term

DOES

threv

cling

bund

behir

began conyp

go ui

"Jane

danci

vague

White

turn

deter

leave

the