COOK OPERA HOUSE.

The famous military drama, "Northern Lights" is on schedule for presentation next week, by the Moore Stock Company at the Cook Opera House. This is a play of military life in a barracks on the frontier in Montana. The United States Army officers and hostile Indians are the people who provide most of the important action. Miss Willette Kershaw will play Helen Dare and J. H. Elliott, a newcomer will portray the heavy part, which is one of the most important in the play. It is promised that the scenic production will be the most elaborate of the summer stock season. The play will be presented all next week with matinees Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. It is promised that novel souvenirs will be given away next Monday afternoon.

AUBURN, N. Y.

The lawn festival of St. Mary's church which was held last Saturday afternoon and evening was a decided success both financially and socially. The young ladies of the parish served a most elaborate supper in the church which was patronized in fine style.

The Alumni association of St. Mary's school held their annual outing at Cascade on Wednesday. The trip to Cascade was made by boat and the affair was one of the most successful events of the association. During the day athletic events were indulged in by all present. It is planned to hold the annual banquet in the early fall, at which time it is hoped to repeat the success of the first banquet given three years ago in Music Hall.

The funeral of Mrs. Bryon Sawyer was held Monday morning from St. Mary's church. Solemn mass was celebrated. The funeral was largely attended by the numerous friends of the deceased. The services at the grave were conducted by Father Smith.

The Sisters of the Asylum wish to thank their friends and benefactors for the good work that was performed by them at the late picnic. A handsome home was realized from the affair.

The masses at St. Mary's church during the heated season will be at 8 o'clock with high mass sung by the children at 9 and low mass at 11 o'clock. This will give the choir a much needed rest after a successful season.

CANANDAIGUA.

Prayers were offered Sunday for the repose of the soul of Julius Rimcol and John Bann of this parish, James Walsh of Newark, and Sister Mary Josephine Wall of Chicago.

Miss Ann Devereaux, a former member of St. Mary's, is here from Norfolk calling upon friends and admiring the improvements about Canandaigua, including the beautiful new church.

Little Robert Congdon Fox and Emil O'Kay were baptized last Sunday.

The regular choir was assisted in the singing last Sunday by the Gregorian chant of St. Bernard's students, who are in camp for a couple of weeks at Oak Cliff, Canandaigua Lake.

The new pew quarter, begins next Sunday, the first Sunday of August. First Friday devotions this week.
