COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Fun will hold the boards next week at the Cook Opera House. The Moore Stock Company will present the rollicking farce comedy, "A Stranger in a Strange Land". Bert Lytell will play the principal part in it. This is a young Englishman, who endeavors to persuade a rich aunt that he has been sheep ranching in the United States. To give weight to his stories he attempts to describe this country, and gets into a wierd geographical difficulty. By way of local color, a travelling Indian is hired and palmed off as a captive, taken by the young man in Buffalo. For reasons that are fully described, two other characters impersonate Indians, and the mix up that follows is responsible for most of the fun.

In Memoriam.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Central Council of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 2nd, 1906:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved friend and fellow member, Frank X. Rivarde, of Branch 184, therefore, in view of the loss we have sustained and the still heavier loss occasioned to his respected family, be it Resolved, that the members of this council hereby desire to express their sense of bereavement and grief at the loss of one of their most faithful and attentive members.

Resolved, that we sincerely sympathize with the family and near friends of our late beloved associate, and that we respectfully commend them for consolation to that Divine Power which doeth all things well, feeling sure that to them as to us, there is comfort in the knowledge that the deceased was not only honorable and manly in all respects but was also a devoted and consistent Christian.

Resolved, that in token of our sorrow at the death of our brother, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Signed: Lawrence G. McGreal, John T. Duffy, John C. Koesterer, committee.
