OUR LADY OF VICTORY.

Miss May Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Langie of 795 Main street east, was united in marriage at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning to George Thomas Welch of Brookport. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Notebaert, pastor of the church, assisted by Father Story of Brookport. The maid of honor was Miss Julia Langie sister of the bride; the best man was Victor Albert of Baltimore. The ushers were David Lawless of Rochester, James Daley and Cornelius Lahey of Brookport, and John Maloney of LeRoy. The bride was gowned in white satin, and her maids dress was of Arabian lace. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The interior of the house was decorated with pink asters and white honeysuckle vines. Teal served, and Moll's orchestra provided music. Mr. and Mrs. Welch left on the Empire State Express in the afternoon for New York and Newport.

At 5 o'clock, Wednesday, Miss Ella LeBeau and Mr. Archie Ellis of Wolcott, N. Y., were united in marriage by Rev. A. Notebaert. The bridesmaid was Miss Anna Kuhlman and the groomsmen, Mr. Buringham. The bride wore a white embroidered gown and carried a bouquet of white asters. The bridesmaid wore white lawn, trimmed with valenciennes lace and pink sash and gloves, and carried white asters. The groom gift to the bride was a locket set with diamonds. A reception was held in the evening and supper was served to about fifty guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis left for Wolcott, at 11 o'clock, where a reception was given them at the home of the groom's parents Thursday evening. The young couple are now traveling through the East and will be at home after October 1st, at 6 Thomas Street, this city.

September Sale of Blankets

While temperatures of the past two or three nights may have suggested warm bed covering, blanket weather is rapidly coming this way. Jack Frost has already sent his messenger chilling the air preparatory to his coming. His arrival cannot long be delayed. Blanket needs should be looked after immediately.

In preparing for this 1906 Sale of Bed Blankets, we have gathered from the very best makers of the very best blankets, the very best kinds and the very best values obtainable. There are 11 different styles in all, representing every wantable size, weight and quality. There are all cotton, wool-mixed, and all wool blankets, white, gray, scarlet and tan, with fancy striped borders; Roman stripe blankets; and rich plaid effects.

Price range is from 35c to $97.50 a pair, the least expensive of which shows a saving of 10c, while on the most costly a saving of from $5 to $7.50 may be effected.

Dress Skirts for $2.50

You will look a long time before you find dress skirts of such splendid material, and so well tailored, as these which Basement counter has, for anywhere near the price. As one store friend said, "they look like an easy $5 worth."

They are made of all wool unfinished serge, in black and navy, tailored in three excellent styles.

They are superior value at $2.50.
Seven gored skirt with double box plaited panel front, plaited half panels headed with two tucks on side gores, foot plait on each gore, $2.50.
Seven gored full flare skirt with inverted fan plaits on either side of front gore, trimmed with buttons, $2.50.
Six gored skirt with double box plaited panel front, sides trimmed on hips and bottom with wide and narrow stitched straps, foot plaits on each gore, $2.50.

'Star' Safety Corn Razor

With this simple, safe and sure instrument you may be your own chiropodist.

Cutlery section of the Jewelry store has a very simple device with which the most painful and annoying corn may be removed in a minute. It is the "Star" Safety Corn Razor, possessing special features which prove its superiority to all others of the kind.

It has a short blade made of fine razor steel, and a guard which prevents any injury to the flesh. The guard is easily removed, which allows the blade being stropped or honed the same as a razor.

Let Cutlery section explain it to you! Price is $1.

Choice Furniture for Every Home

An immense stock of new patterns in Furniture and Household Furnishings is ready here for your inspection. Weeks of careful selection by our buyers have resulted in the finest display of new goods that we have ever made. Best designs, good material and reliable construction have been our constant aim, and there is not an article in our store that we cannot unhesitatingly recommend to every customer. We call particular attention to the variety of the stock. The great range of patterns in every line—from the most simple style to the most elaborate—gives a chance for satisfactory selection not often found elsewhere.

CARPETS

The unusual values that we are continually showing in Carpets and Rugs have built up a phenomenal business in this department. The new fall stock has been selected from the best mills and is thoroughly good, bright, fresh patterns in great assortment, and of all the desirable weaves. The same moderate prices prevail in this department as elsewhere throughout our stores.
