ST. MARY'S.

The interior decoration of the church is progressing finely. Already the plan may be seen around the sanctuary and when the work is done St. Mary's will compare favorably with any sacred edifice in Rochester. The enlargement of the sanctuary will afford better accommodations for the priests, also facilitate ceremonies where a large attendance of clergymen may be expected.

Confirmation will be given in this church on the afternoon of November 18th.

Father Gleeson in the course of the series of instructions on "Articles of Faith" explained "the real presence" last Sunday at the early masses.

HOLY FAMILY.

Miss Anna Schubert and Mr. Joseph Toth were united in marriage at a nuptial high mass last Thursday morning at 8 a. m. The bride was attended by the Misses Regina Siebert and Anna Fichtner and the groom was attended by Messrs. Klemmer and Mayer. The bride wore a gown of white mull and carried white asters. The bridesmaids also wore white mull gowns and carried pink asters. After the ceremony covers were laid for the immediate friends and relatives of both bride and groom. After a brief eastern trip Mr. and Mrs. Toth will be pleased to receive their friends at 433 Wilder St. They were the recipients of many gifts.

Mary J., widow of the late John Kerber, died Monday night at St. Mary's Hospital, aged 59 years. The remains were taken to her late home 348 Ames Street. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Ruff and Mrs. Anna Fess, four sons, John, Joseph, George and Charles Kerber. The funeral of Florendine Barend took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Uhl, 430 Hague Street, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from the house and 8:30 from the church.

The regular quarterly meeting of the C. Y. M. A. took place last Thursday evening at the club rooms. Much business that was of importance was transacted. Arrangements were made for the reopening of the gymnasium and the bowling alleys. A pedro party will be one of the functions soon to be given under the auspices of the club.

It was announced last Sunday that on the twenty-first of October the bishop would administer the sacrament of confirmation in this church.

Next Thursday afternoon and evening confessions will be heard in preparation for the first Friday. On Friday morning there will be the usual Sacred Heart devotions. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from the first until after the last mass, when benediction will be given.

Next Sunday will be monthly communion and conference day for young ladies of the Holy Family.

It is most gratifying to announce that affairs in our parish school are in a most flourishing condition. The classes are all very large and the work is progressing satisfactorily.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The mission for the women which has been held during the past week was a decided success. Every service both morning and evening was marked by an unusual attendance, and a large number of women approached the Sacraments. The Rev. Fathers, who are conducting the mission, have made each exercise interesting as well as helpful. The congregational singing was one of the pleasing features. The women's mission will close to-morrow afternoon, at which service the papal benediction will be given. The opening of the mission for the men will take place Sunday night. The morning service during the week consists of mass and instruction; the evening service, commencing at 7:45 of an instruction, rosary, sermon and benediction. During the mission an opportunity to procure articles of devotion is afforded to the parishioners. These articles are on sale in the library room in the school hall.
