Around the Globe Filipinos at St. Bernard's

Catholic News Many From Places

During the year 1870 Father Wrenz, who has just been elected general of the Jesuits, distinguished himself by devotion and courage in assisting the wounded in the Franco-Prussia War.

Reports are again current in Rome that Archbishop Bourne of Westminster, will be elevated to the Cardinalate at an early date.

Rev. Mother Marie de St. Julian mother general of the canonically united Ursulines, is on a visit of inspection of the houses of her order in this country. She is at present in Texas.

Chinese Catholicity evidently is not a dead thing. The Corpus Christi processions in Canton, China, in solemnity and splendor, puts to shame our half-hearted ones here in the United States. Bishop Merel has a theological seminary in Canton, China, with seventy students. He recently ordained three young Chinese priests.

At the meeting of the Institute of Journalists of Great Britain and Ireland, recently held in Dublin, the retiring President, Major Gratwicke concluded his address by discussing the kind of news that newspapers might with propriety publish, and, disclaiming all prudishness, enunciated the dictum that "a man should not write for the columns of a newspaper that which he would not like his wife or his child, his mother or his sister to read."

The late Daniel O'Day, the millionaire who died recently at Rouen, France, was always a practical Catholic. To the Church he gave liberally, one of his gifts being a chapel at Long Branch, which he built and endowed. He gave $50,000 to build a church in his native town beyond the sea. Five thousand dollars of his money aided in building the Bishop's chapel, Buffalo. It is related, too, that on a visit to Rome he gave the Holy Father $10,000.

The Benedictine monks of Buckfast Abbey, Devon, England, have elected Father Ancharas abbot in the place of Abbot Natter, who was drowned in the wreck of the Sirio in the Bay of Biscay. The new abbot was born in Germany in 1876 and is probably the youngest abbot in the world. He was at one time professor of philosophy at St. Anselm's College, Rome.

Right Rev. Mgr. Cannon Mannix, president of Maynooth College, has been appointed a member of the Senate of the Royal University of Ireland, in the room of the late O'Connor Don. The new Senator who has had a remarkably brilliant ecclesiastical career, is only forty-two years of age.

In addressing a number of English pilgrims to Ireland, Cardinal Logue, after expressing his sympathy with the fight going on in England in the cause of education, in comparison with which "no other cause was so sacred and so important," said: "Our Irish members have fought this battle, I think, with greater skill in the House of Commons than ever I knew them to fight any battle, even for temporal interests in Ireland."

Is there no lay Catholic activity in Mexico? The record of the St. Vincent de Paul conference in the archdiocese of Guadalajara shows that from June 1, 1905, to June 1, 1906, 3,106 poor sick people have been helped with food, clothing and medical services, more than 4,000 instructed in Christian doctrines, nearly five hundred women restored to a better life and that $53,000 were expended in these good works. During an epidemic of smallpox and typhoid this summer, the stricken were attended in their homes and in hospitals by members of the Society.

Five Scholarships Offered by Bishop McQuaid

Bishop McQuaid offered to Monsignor Agius, apostolic delegate to the Philippines, five free scholarships at St. Bernard's Seminary for Filipino young men, who wish to devote their lives to the priesthood. On Friday two young men from the diocese of Cebu, of which Rt. Rev. Thomas H. Hendrick, formerly of Rochester, is bishop, reached Rochester. They were sent by the Apostolic Delegate from their island home 63 days ago to this country. At present there are 154 students at St. Bernard's, and there is room for no more, otherwise the three other students, for whom the bishop has offered scholarship would have been sent also. As has already been stated, an addition is soon to be built to St. Bernard's, when the other three Filipinos can be accommodated. In speaking of the young men that have come to St. Bernard's from our far eastern possessions Bishop McQuaid is quoted as follows: "Both have taken their classical course and a year in philosophy, so will be at St. Bernard's Seminary five years. They are bright young men, speaking their own dialect, Spanish, Latin, and a little English. As about many other things, we have many erroneous ideas about the Filipinos. They are largely a civilized people, and are in a marked degree a refined people."

Chapman-Quinlan.

Miss Ellen C. Chapman and Mr. Timothy D. Quinlan were united in marriage Wednesday morning, the ceremony being performed at St. Mary's Church by Rev. A. S. Quinlan of Eatontown, N. J., brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. William Gleason, rector of the church. The bride was attired in a traveling gown of dark blue with a hat to match, and carried bride roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the new home of the bride, 23 Armour Street. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. Hanevey and Miss Nora Quinlan, sister of the groom, from Eatontown, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of Scottsville.

Fires in New York and London. New York has more fires in a year than London and they entail greater loss. It has less shipping as a port than London, fewer clerks in the whole population employed, but more bosses or employers.

Resigning a Difficult Office. The "beach officer" of Hunstanton, England, who was ordered by the Town Council to keep dogs from barking on the sea front, has resigned. Pending the appointment of an abler man, the dogs still bark.

Manufacturing Maple Sugar. There is a plant in Chicago which manufactures more maple sugar in a month, said Dr. W. H. Wily in a recent address, than is produced by nature in the whole State of Vermont in a year.

Guarding Against Danger. At the Needle lighthouse, Isle of Wight, there has been placed a set of red trumpets which give a blast that can be heard ten miles—treble the distance of the old fogbell signal.

Women as Inventors. Very numerous are the patents that have been issued to women on novelties in furniture. One piece, which appears to be a school desk, also contains an organ. With simple manipulation an innocent-looking sofa is converted into a bathtub.

Women Auctioneers. The International Association of Auctioneers, at its convention in Chicago, adopted a resolution allowing women to become members of the association.

The Gems, six musicians and dancers from Europe will provide what is said to be an exceedingly agreeable offering. Something entirely new in Rochester stock annals will occur next week, when the Moore Stock Company will present two plays at the Baker Theater. This is a play showing wholesome and mighty interesting pictures of farm life. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and Friday night, Shakespeare's wonderful love tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet" will be offered. It is said that a stock company was never better fitted to give a Shakespearean production. Following is a partial outlay of the cast: Wilson Melrose as Romeo; Lillian Albertson as Juliet; Adeline Raffetto as Lady Capulet; Elizabeth Ross as the Nurse; Dennis Harris as Mercutio; David Hartford as Tybalt; Harry Ingram as Paris. Secretary of State Elect John S. Whalen

John S. Whalen

For the second time in the history of the state of New York, a Rochesterian will fill the position of Secretary of State. The late Frederick Cook filled the place from 1885 to 1889.

While the official canvass must be completed before Secretary of State John F. O'Brien concedes his defeat, all figures obtainable as to the result of election point to the success of John S. Whalen, who was nominated by the Independence League and endorsed by the democratic state convention.

Mr. Whalen was supported, loyally by his many friends in Rochester and by members of Organized Labor all over the State, as well as by the commercial travelers among whom Whalen is known and loved far and wide.

The Catholic Journal is sincerely pleased at Mr. Whalen's success and begs leave to say that the office will be run as well, and better, than it has been in the past. Political bosses will not be permitted to use the places and other patronage of the office to pay political debts. Business will be conducted in a business like manner and all that will be thought of will be the interests of the state and of the taxpayers.

Under existing conditions, the office of secretary of state is a very important one. Its incumbent is a member of the State Board of Canalway, of the Land Board, of the Canal Board that has charge of the barge canal contracts, of the State Printing Board that selects the state paper and gives out the state printing. He administers the oath to the members of the state legislature and acts as secretary of the College of Electors when they canvass and declare the vote for president in 1908.

Whatever the result of the official canvass, Mr. Whalen has reason to feel proud of the way his friends stood by him and of the handsome vote of confidence accorded him by the electorate of New York.

The fair will have several lines of entertainment which will be of interest to both and Italian speaking people. The church will be started as soon as the money is collected to buy the lot and start the building.

Several of the prominent Italians of the city are active in this work. The several choirs of the city churches are rehearsing the Christmas music that will be sung during the Christmas time. The choirs have all been increased and good voices will be added as they appear.

The children of the Holy Family Church will give an entertainment on next Thursday night and Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the school fund of the Holy Family Church. The entertainment is under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy and assisted by Misses Thornton and Rouke of this city. The operetta, "The Little Queen," will be sung by the children, while several specialties will be put on under Miss Thornton's direction.

Choir Master James A. Hennigan of the Holy Family Church is rehearsing his opera company, which will produce the "Little Queen," a beautiful little opera. The first production will be in Italian on Thanksgiving Day and the following night in this city. Several of Auburn's amateur will take part. Choir Master Frank Branick of the Holy Family Church will have an important part in the cast.

Special Thanksgiving Day services are being arranged in the city churches for Thanksgiving day. The several churches will have High Mass in thanksgiving for the past year. The funeral of the late Jeremiah McCarthy took place from his late home on Tuesday morning with services at the Holy Family Church at 8:30 A. M. The Requiem High Mass was sung by Father Dwyer of the church, who also conducted the funeral services at the grave. Burial was in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Mrs. McLane was the mother of ten children, who were all at her bedside during her last illness. Mrs. McLane was a loving mother, a good neighbor, a patient sufferer during the long years of her illness and a faithful member of the Rosary Altar and Scapular Society.
