CATHEDRAL

Fifty-nine years ago Wednesday Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid of the Rochester diocese was ordained a Catholic priest.

The bishop sang high mass in his private chapel in honor of the occasion and during the day his friends called to express their felicitations.

"I don't intend to celebrate the event this year," the bishop told a reporter with a smile, "but I suppose next year I will have to be victimized and allow my friends to celebrate in great style. Sixty years sounds much so better than fifty-nine, you know."

The annual banquet of the Men's Society will be held at Teal's Hall, Wednesday, January 23d.

Next Sunday will be Holy Communion Sunday for the children of Mary Society and the Young Ladies' Sodality.

A meeting of the children of Mary Society will be held next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

The debate given last Sunday evening by the Holy Name Society and the Young Ladies' Sodality was a most successful and an entertaining affair. Between three and four hundred people attended. Each speaker was listened to with marked attention and interest. The seven judges rendered the verdict in favor of the young ladies who proved that the moral development and elevation of society is due to man.

It was conceded to be one of the pleasantest evenings spent in the Blessed Sacrament Hall. By winning the debate the treasury of the Young Ladies' Sodality was enriched about $50.

A meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality will take place Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY

The closing rehearsals are taking place for the comedy drama, "Up Vermont Way," which will be given for the benefit of the French church, Tuesday evening of next week in the Church Hall.

"Up Vermont Way" is a rural play somewhat like "Old Acre Farm," given by the Players' Club last year and deals with the lives of some of the old New England folks in the northern part of Vermont. It contains an abundance of humor and no doubt will be enjoyed by those attending. The cast consists of Edward F. Hetting, George H. Rieflin, Louis Bogner, Leonard Karweick, Charles P. Mather, William Boardway, Dave Clark, Eva St. Hilaire, Harriet Bassett and Zella Winney.

Tickets may be had at the French Church rectory or at hall door the night of the performance.

HOLY APOSTLES

On Wednesday evening, January 16th, Branch 266 of the L. C. B. A. celebrated the tenth anniversary of its organization, and also the installation of its officers for the coming year, at Teal's parlors.

Mrs. Katherine J. Dowling, who was instrumental in organizing the branch, was the guest of honor. After partaking of a banquet the ladies played cards, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The branch now numbers 82 members. Its presidents have been: Mrs. Mary Calihan, Mrs. Mary Pierce, Mrs. Kate Bauman and Mrs. Julia McCarthy. Mrs. Rose Schubert is the newly elected president.

Reliable Furs

The purchase of a fur garment to the average buyer, is like buying a cat in a bag. You know the cat is in the bag, but you don't know what kind of a cat it is. The cheap priced fur garment, made up of carefully matched pieces, to the casual observer looks good, but it isn't good and hence many bargain furs are worthless. We cut our garments from whole skins, and not only guarantee the garment, but also the style, the finish and the workmanship. We have Garments, Stoles, Scarfs and Muffs made of every known fur, but here are a few specials for this week:

Near Seal Jackets, close-fitting or loose box, $25 and $30.
Blended or Natural Squirrel Jackets, blouse, close fitting or loose box, $55, $60 and $65.
Caribou Jackets, $50.
Natural Gray Seal Jackets, $45 to $60.
Persian Lamb Jackets, $100.
Seal Jackets, bargain prices—also a complete line of Men's and Women's Fur Coats and Fur Lined Coats.
