ROCHESIER SAVINGS BANK

Corner Main St. W.and Fitzhugh St.

Organized 1831 Resources Jan 1.1907$22.635.923.23 Surpies Jan. I, 1987, - 1,731, 297.89

Money loaned on bond and mortrage in same of the,000 and spwards at 4½ per cent. Less than tro,000.00 at 5 per cent. Interest allowed on accounts of $1,000.00 and under at the rate of 4 per cent per annum. On accounts exceeding $1,000.00 3½ per cent on whole account.

Hobart F. Atkinson.. Henry S. Hanford. Thomas H. Husband

The New Bryan 16 TO 1 FINANCIAL PUZZLE

William Jennings Bryan failed to solve this. Can you do it? By mail ten cents Sealed key to puzzle 5 cents extra.

The Milton PuzzleiCo. Washington, D.C. Reference, Dr. E. E. Scharf, The Catholic News Agency

RIDOL

OR BY MAIL FROM

Lady Assistant

ROCHESTER, N. Y.,U. S. A.

Embalmer and Funeral Director

Office and residence

Thos. B. Mooney Funeral Director REMOVED

To 98 Edinburgh Street, Temporary Office, 262 Plymouth Ave. Lady Attendant. Roch. Phone 2418 Bell Phone 127 A

Established 1872

Maier's Sons

150 Clinton Ave. N.

Phones 609

B. V. LOGAN, Undertaker.

For Pure

Send your orders to Matthews & Servis Co.

95 STATE ST.

Both Phones 2075

Geo. Engert & Co., COAL. Principal Office and Yard. Telephone asy

306 Exchange Street

RYAN & MCINTEE UNDERTAKERS 196 Main St. West

Home Phone 1464 Bell Phone8929I

ELIZABETH MCGARTHY

VOICE CULTURE AND PIANO Studio 509 Central Building

Scientific American. MUNN & CO. 36 1 Broadway, New YORK Branch Office, die P St., Washington, D. C.

EUROPEAN CRITICS CLAIM THEY TAKE A BACK SEAT.

She May Do Much to Make Herself Charming in Dress and Manner-Should Not Resort to Artifices to Probably no one who has not virtue of ears small, rosy and shell-ties. studied the work of the women's like.

become powerful.

the most of her position.

Home Phone 5722, Bell Phone 1748 Chase ways of the kitten. They may do and one which may be resorted to drops out. EDWARD J. WARD they become ridiculous when mated ing for a special occasion.

Above all things, however, be exman of fifty, except in the retirement or continents of any sort in the ear. It nor does she put so many hairpins 1108 Main Street East, Rochester, N Y, incurably light-minded, she must and it is impossible to be too carelearn when in public to express her ful of it. frivolity in a staid way, or be in- Never clean with a hairpin or any in a thousand times that she wears have "not a thought but things on causing deafness. For the same the working woman. dignity."

for the handsome ones but re- treme care, extreme tenderness." member that these light tints make If there is any disfigurement of upon the heads of those with whom to anything at all, will probably have a few wrinkles. By cultivating embonpoint she can escape them. But, since slenderness and delicacy of fig-similar to the common frying pan for beauty.

Removed to 1 South St. cor. Court Fortunately, the old-time hair-dye or gutter. The latter leads to a rule it brightens it considerably that largely disappeared among decompartment or chamber near the without hurting her conscience, for Telephone 2248 Res Tel. 1383. dent people. Gray hair is often a end of the handle. In use the meat henna comes under the head of herbs. destrable.

Women who try hard to rub out their wrinkles and color their hair Ales Wines and Liquors sound-rule. Appropriate ness and consistency are great perhaps the greatest-considerations to keep in mind in matters of this kind. Wrinkles and gray hair and certain unmistakable angles, and peculiarities of figure go with advancing years. A sense of offensive artificiality marks any case in which the usual accompaniments of particular times of life are wanting. There are, as it were, snachronisms. The qualities do not "compare," and the artistic eye is shocked.

It is well enough for the woman of fifty to use a certain amount of "cerate" on her face (though it is probably useless and will only make it downy); to be careful when she sleeps, that the heah of her cheek is pulled up, and not down; to take Novel Broiling Pan. "We trest complexions," too, massage and "Physical culture," and As the cooking operation profitment Every hair culturist takes a turn at to overdo it. But she must remember the compartment. A dry condition "One woman had nice bright hair ber that she has reached "a certain of the meat is thus preserved and after we got through with her, but ceal it, it will not.

in trying to hide one's age—unless, compartment from which they se- "We gave her convent food. It perhaps, one's living depends upon cape through an opening. it. In most instances, all such efforts are useless. There are vague. but sure, indications, which, to the observing eye, number your years, O leceive the matter.

be, let us say, to make one's appearathough she were in a vise.

ance a symphony, as it were, of which one's age is the keynote and tempered. If she has plain feat-face makes the skinlook smoother phrase, "grow old gracefully."—Bos- is.

Vegetable Hair.

is made from the dwarf palm which bath. grows in large quantities along the coast of Algeria. A few years ago

They May Add to or Mar the Face of An Otherwise Pretty Woman,

In sacient mythology fauns were known from human beings only by Habroins. Bows and Ornames the fact that they possessed long, pointed. fury ears. Otherwise they looked simply like beautiful Greek boys-yet it is not on record that the boy and the faun were ever confused. Let us not surmise from Our European critics are fond of this that the ears are in any way insaying that American society is dicative of the character; but, York who is busy every day of the dominated entirely by the young rather, let us realize that the Greeks year making natural blondes. So person. This used to be pretty understood the importance of that arduous are her duties and so in denearly true, but it is true no longer. much underrated feature, the ear. mand is her time that she works On the contrary, it may be claimed. Many a face, beautiful otherwise, every hour of the day and a great and unanswerable arguments ad has been spoiled by large, ugly, out- many hours of the night. vanced to prove it, that the woman standing ears; many another face She treats the hair by natural de-thropic societies has any idea of the portant a beautiful ear is in the gen-hairdressers agree with them. Hairextent to which they have increased eral ensemble, and our next step is ping may be necessary to woman, but the capacity and the happiness of the "aural beauty." In the first place they are unquestionably ruining middle-aged woman. One of Wil- the ear must be neither too large the hair, says this hairdresser. liam Morris' most striking lines is nor too small. This may sound "The second source of injury to this:

trite, but many a woman thinks her the hair is found in the ornaments The happy are the masters of the ears beautiful because they are that are stock into it. Great fancy small, whereas they are entirely too combs with wide, wicked teeth are In China, the older a woman be-small for the rest of the features. prodded into the coffure. Immense comes the happier she is. The same The next attribute to be considered bows of ribbon are pinned on, leavthing is gradually becoming true, is the shape. The ideal car is ing an ugly mark upon the scalp. as it ought to be, in this country, shaped like a conchshell, round and "Then plus are thrust into the And when you become happy, you gently tapering at the extremities, hair and there are other trifles such The correction of disfigurements in as wreaths of silvered flowers, The woman of fifty among us shape we will consider later. Last braided ribbons and jetted things. BOTTLES, ALL DRUGGISTS might as well appreciate the fact; of all, but by no means the least im- with their tendency to tear the hair, She is now a chief factor in the portant comes the color of the to say nothing of the nerve rackhigher civilization, and it behooves ears. Pale ears and habitually red ing heavy tiara. SCOTT-HETZLER CHEM. SUPFLY CO. her to seize her scepter and make ears are alike symptoms of nervous disorder, and are alike curable.

for the maiden of seventeen, but after a good massage, if one is dressing and giggling are not for the wo- tremely careful about putting drugs does not twist her hair so tightly, of her own home. Even if she be is one of the most delicate of organs, into it, sufferable. As the Duke of York sharp pointed instrument, as there is a hair ormament. The results are said of himself in the play, she must danger of piercing the drum and obvious. Notice the heavy hair of reason, never box a child's ears or It has been fashionable during take it by the ear. Many a case of treated in a gentle manner. Neglate years for elderly women to wear lifelong deafness has resulted from lected it may be, but its color is delicate pinks, blues and lavenders the ignorance or carelessness of a there. It has not been rasped by these colors, which is all very well follow is, "Extreme cleanliness. ex-less ornaments.

one very conspicuous. You cannot the ear, so noticeable as to cause em- it will agree but all of these things usually bear them, unless you are barrassment and pain to the unhappy must be taken slowly and with medvictim, it is easy to conceel the fault eration. The woman of fifty, if she amounts by the arrangement of the coiffure.

Improved Broiling Pan.

As shown in the illustration it is ure are fashionable, the face must in general outline, except that the hare in this general meagerness—bottom is of conical form and arming to darken I take five cents and the thin face is bound to wrinkle ranged to project upward in the cen-worth of henna and steep it in a by the time the late forties are ter, presenting a central apex or wint of water. When it has boiled reached.

Gray hair comes with wrinkles. slopes to the rim, making a trough moisten her whole hair with it. As a living—but, for others it may be and the latter arranged over the fire.

Novel Broiling Pan.

especially to devote attention to the the liquid drawn from the most flows the complexion when it no longer niceties of thress, being careful not down in the gutter and themes in matches the hair. age"-and, however she may de the broiling action facilitated. Nat- her skin was dull and the bright, plure the fact and determine to con- urally the utensil is tilted from time youthful looking hair made her look to time to cause the juices accumu- like a mumany. So we put her upon There is something contemptible lated in the channel to flow into the a diet.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

woman!—and the most undignified skip about, if necessary, is much eggs, prones and hash were conhing which you can do is to try to taller in appearance than the little spicuous. It was good, plain food, stiff woman who cannot jump about The woman was commanded to est In short, the main effort should to save her life, and must walk as picture food also. Food good of which the details are lost in the ures she need not have an unity distant pulling it down upon the forebeauty and distinction of the position. She must be so suffry in head makes the face look younger. whole. It is the only way in which her expression that she makes those But a woman must have a sice comone may, to use the pleasant old who look at her forget how plain she pleaton also. We tell our patients

Don't be afraid of being too clean which are all complexion foods. or washing away your skin with too "Hair culturists of to-day look frequent use of soap. Pure soap is closely after the health of their pa-One of the most interesting used twice a day on the entire body like illness. If a woman is under though perhaps least known indus- with no other than beneficial effects, the weather her hair will not curl ries of Algeria is the production of The cold bath is stimulating and if she has a fever it comes out; it vegetable hair. This hair or fiber pleasant, but it is not a cleansing she is suffering from a cold it loses this plant was looked upon as a use-papers for women's clubs is claimed is easy to see how dependent the less weed; now it has been found to to be a renumerative occupation for hair is upon the health. contain a most useful fiber and is a bright woman. If the woman largely sought after. The fiber is scheduled to write the paper has an excellent substitute for horse hot the time to do it, or is afraid to Apple sauce is very nice baked, hair and is in great demand among trust her powers, or perhaps cannot To every four apples pared and upholsterers, mattress makers, har-express her thoughts as she would sliced add 1/2 cup of white sugar and ness makers and carriage builders wish, there is still more of a field 1/2 cup of boiling water. Put in a on the continent for the cheaper for writing on the part of the data graphte or earthen dish and cover gathering helper.

THE SECRET OF IT LIES IN

EXECUTE THE MAIR YOUNG.

Tend to Make One's Locks Dark -Convent and Picture Food Good for the Complexion.

There is a hairdresser in New of fifty holds the controlling social only negatively pretty has been given vices so that it grows lighter with-hand in most American communities. a piquant and delicate charm by out losing any of its natural quali-

Scientists say that in a little while clubs and patriotic and philan- It is easy, then, to see how im- there will be no blondes at all, and

"Trouble tightens the scalp and injures the hair. Fear draws the To this end, let her beware of the Tinting the ears is a delicate art, scalp so tight that the hair fairly

> "Among poor women the hair keeps its color much longer than

"She seldom ties it with a string

"No one wash agrees with every hair. In most cases it acts all right, but it turns an occasional woman into a blomde too pronounced

"When a woman's hair is begin-

"Meanwhile I treat the roots to keep the hair from getting darker or from getting gray. There are various ways of treating the roots of the

"One of these ways I call the thimblecure. I have tried it with success all over Europe and America. "The thimble cure requires two thimbles, pure gold or good silver. Into one I put about ten drops of good oil; sweet oil is all right, but castor oil is better. "Parting of the hair I go over it with may finger tips, which are dipped into the ofly thimble. I make ten drops do the whole head, so that the hisir is not only atterward.

"Then I massage it with the thimble. This requires that hair be partial of and that the scalp be tapped. It must be done very gently. "We treat complexions, too is what the nuns give their pupils to make them strong and rosy and pretty.

"It was a general diet in which The little lithe woman who can stewed rhubarb, apple sauce, raw to eat spinach, lettuce and celery,

a tonic, and, if need be, it can be tients, for nothing affects the hair Hile and grows darker; and if she has rheumatism the color pigment fades Collecting and arranging data for entirely and she gets gray, So it

Try Baking Apple Sauce

LINOLEUMS AND OIL GLOTHS CHINA AND GRASS MATTINGS

Triple silver plated. sharp. Always ready pinsply lather and st Each ser contains 12 dedged blacks. A keen t

Each blade is tempered to hard by our secret process it w an average of 20 to 40 velver shaves.

Ank your dealer to show & to you and supported by the property section of withe up for free specially Blues

GILLETTE SALES COMPANY

TIMES BUILDING, TIMES SQUARE

John H. McAnarney

"It is all because the hair is fire, Plate Class, Boller and Elevator Insura Fidulity Bonds for Administrators Controlors, Executors 3 Plumbers and all kinds of Court and Security Bonds and even rather violent shades of thoughtless adult. The best rule to fancy pins and weighted by count. Offices 101 and 102 Ell wanger Berry Bidg. Entrance 39

German American Lumbers

AUG OUR

134 Portland Ave. 888 Clinton A Both Phones, Home 1868, Ball 1946

JOHN M. REDDINGTON Lehigh Valley COA

Brighest, Cleanest, Best.

I saf terturne pr on the chest and is absent from W. B. Form and W. B

They a william item Made in many extendit and prices to fa all there well as all persea. W. B Om Corres says a Comment that begins be -busts haber and rounded into greater ness. On tale at all casts

Eres Form 992