The golden jubilee of St. Ignatius' Church, Baltimore, founded by the Jesurits, and of which Rev. John F. Quirk, S. J., is rector, will be celebrated on April 7. Cardinal Gibbons will participate. Bishop Beaven, of Springfield, Ill., will celebrate Pontifical Mass, and Bishop Donahue, of Wheeling, will preach.

Archbishop Blenk, of New Or-leans, will be invested with the pallium on April 24. This year's convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies will be held in Indianapolis, July 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Mrs. Morgan-Morgan, a lady well known in Rome for the past seventeen or eighteen years, passed away the other day. She was a convert, and the wife of a Presbyterian minister_ The Holy Office has issued a decree notifying the Catholics of France that the so-called Archbishop Vilatte is excommunicated, and that he can be reinstated only by the Pope himself, and French Catholics are warned to have no dealings with him. Decrees of excommunication will also be issued against Vilatte's helpers, Fathers Ruelle, Roussin and Duhamai, all three already under censure of the Church for other reasons than the happenings of the moment. In a decision rendered the other day by the New York Court of Appeals the legality of bequests made with proper definiteness for the saying of Masses for the repose of the souls of the dead is upheld. It is the first decision given in this state in which that point is established, Toledo, March 18.—The Leuten retreat for men held last week in St.

Francis de Sales' Church closed Sunday with a remarkable demonstration, when 1,000 men marched in procession from the club rooms of the Knights of Columbus to the church and at the Solemn High Mass received Holy Communion in a body. An Irish peasant girl, a native of Carry gart, County Donegal, Ireland, has presented the Very Rev. Father Donnelly, S. J., for use in the Church of St. Ignatius, Stamford Hill, N. Y., with a magnificent set of vestments worked by her own hands. The robes, which are of beautiful design, took two years to finish.

Dr. Tonis Bodiker, who died in Berlin last month, was the organizer and first president of the Imperial German Insurance Institutions for Workingmen. This gigantic government undertaking was a leap in the dark, says the Messenger, and its success is largely attributable to Bodik er's genius. In recognition of his great services to the nation, the universities of Leipsic, Gottingen and Breslau conferred honorary degrees upon him. Like the present head of the Imperial Insurance Company, Dr. Bodik er was a Catholic.

Under an order by Justice Newburger in the New York Supreme Court the Apostleship of Prayer, of which the Rev. John J. Wynne, S. J., is president, obtained leave to sell its property at 27 and 29 West Sixteenth Street for $100,000. The offices of the Apostleship have been moved from this address to 801 West One Hundred and Eighty-first Street. The papers submitted to Justice Newburger show that the Apost Teship owns, besides the property mamed, other real estate worth $80,000, and cash to the amount of $78,791. Against this there are liabilities and debts aggregating $156,285, of which $97,500 is on bond and mortgage. On April 14 the Rt. Rev. H. P.

North rop, D. D., Bishop of Charleston, S.-C., will dedicate his new cathedral and at the same time celebrate his silver jubilee as bishop. The Cathedral of St. John the Baptist was destroyed by fire in 1861, during the Civil War, by a disastrous fire which swept Charleston. At the same time the bishop's residence, the orpham asylum and other valuable church property were destroyed. The buildings most necessary were rebuilt, and a plain brick chapel was secured for divine services, estailing a heavy debt upon the diocese. At the close of the war Bishop Lynch, then presiding over the diocese, impressed with the superior obligation of paying this debt, devoted the remainder of his life to this great task. He died, however, before his devoted work was accomplished.

Mr. Redmond, who had an audience recently with the Pope, was touched to the heart by the affectionate simplicity of his manners. "I was ashered into his presence," Mr. Redmond told Mr. Stead, who describes the interview in the "Review of Reviews," "through stately cor-ridors and splendid ante chambers, escorted by Papal guards and Papal chamberlains. But all the pomp and glory stopped when we reached the
