Five Minute Sermon

Jesus Appears to His Disciples.

We must know, says St. Augustine, that God can do many things which we cannot understand. As Jesus while yet mortal could walk on the water without sinking, and as He was able without being seen or touched to pass among those who wished to cast Him from the precipice and to stone Him in the temple so after His glorious resurrection He could pass through closed doors and enter the room without difficulty. All is explained by the power of Christ, true God and true man.

As our senses are the doors of the soul, we infer that when these senses are closed to things of the world Jesus will enter into our souls and say: "Peace be to you." Let us, then, close our eyes in order not to see the vanities of the world, our ears not to hear them spoken of, and our lips in order not to speak useless and evil words, and Jesus will come into our hearts and announce peace to us.

We also can enjoy that peace if, with the grace of God obtained through Christ, we study to keep in peace with God, by avoiding sin; in peace with our neighbor, by loving him with true charity and suffering with patience his defects; and in peace with ourselves, by being contented with our condition in life, and limiting the desires of our heart.

Forty Hours Devotion

The devotion of the "Forty Hours," will be held in the churches of the diocese of Rochester as follows: April 7—Palmyra; East Rush; Waterloo.

AUBURN, N. Y.

The services at the Holy Family Church Sunday were carried out with all the pomp and ceremony of the Roman Catholic ritual. There were three distinct services in the morning and one in the evening.
The elaborate decorations of the chancel and the altars were admired by every one; for giant palms, flowering plants and exceptionally rare cut flowers made brilliant by hundreds of lights, transformed this portion of this already most beautiful church into a very fairlyland of light and beauty. The Easter discourse was delivered by the rector of the church, Rev. John J. Hickey. His subject was "Christ is Risen! Alleluia!" and Father Hickey never preached with more eloquence and power. His words made a deep impression upon all his listeners. The musical program was unusually brilliant and appropriate.

Stop! Don't take imitation celery tea when you ask for Celery King, a medicine of great value. The "tea" are urged upon you because they are bought cheap. Never jeopardize your health in a bad cause. Celery King only costs 25 cents and it never disappoints.

Location and Expansion

The newspapers have already told you the news of what has so soon become necessary here. A store that seemed big enough to answer every requirement at the beginning of this business has in four weeks demonstrated the actual need for more room to adequately cope with the crowds who come this way.

Neither you nor we could have anticipated any such condition. We knew Greater Rochester was large—and growing. We believed that "the largest" retail store in the state—west of New York City—would be large enough for several years at least.

You overwhelmed us at the very beginning—a month of phenomenal business. To your credit let it be said that each successive week has shown a remarkable increase. It is still the busy store—and always will be—if right merchandise—at right prices—will make it so.

Neither will we stint ourselves in making it a store of convenience. For this reason—expansion is the word right now. Within a fortnight the addition to this building on Main Street West will be climbing skyward—and before the snow flies in October we'll have fifty thousand more square feet of floor space for you to wander through.

There will no other retail store—with an equal floor space—between New York and Chicago—and "the largest" retail store in "Greater Rochester" will be still larger.

The transformation of this grand old corner from what it was to what it is and will be, means as much to you as it does to ourselves.

First of all, it places at your elbow a convenient shopping place. The sky-line of a city in no sense determines its center—the business and commercial enterprises contiguous to it settle all that.

Likewise—the center of population and its business relationship.

What a busy little place the town of Columbus, Indiana, would be if the center of population were to determine the business center. Six miles south of Columbus, eighty feet back of the farm barns of Alaska Grant—you have the geographical center of the United States. Mr. Grant says that about five times each year someone drives out to see the stake that marks the spot.

This great white building marks the natural trade center of "Greater Rochester."

If this was not the city's center—the convenient center—the Postoffice would not be within a stone's throw; likewise the City Hall, the County Court House, the Customs Office, the great office buildings, the gigantic trust companies and financial institutions.

They have made it the hub of the wheel.

The wheel itself is to cover a wide range, so far as this store is concerned. It already reaches to every nook and corner of Western New York. The great trading population for many miles around Rochester has come into a home of its own. Such a home—present and prospective—would not have been possible without the interest that has been manifested in it. We shall do our utmost to nurture that interest as the wheel grows, and the hub increases in size, strength and usefulness.

Specialists

While this is a department store in the natural sense of the term, in some things we are most decided specialists—since certain manufacturers have made us so.

For instance:

HANAN & SON'S SHOES

For years hundreds of Roches-terians have tied themselves to this particular brand. That's one of the best arguments in favor of Hanan —each year, the same old customers, as well as many new ones.

The agency of Hanan & Son's Shoes for both men and women, has been transferred to this store.

With the agency has come a broadening of the line—so that every Hanan style may now be had in this city—and at this store.

STETSON HATS

The same Stetson stands for all that's good in Men's headwear.

Nine out of ten men in Philadelphia, they say, wear Stetson hats—a big percentage of them in every other city.

Lighter in weight—more comfort; and always up to date in style Stetson's Hats are here.

YOUNMAN'S HATS

If "Stetson" isn't inside the hat, ten chances to one, you'll find
"Youman's" there.

As near alike in style and quality as two peas in a pod. Naturally, we had to have them both—to serve you as we would like.

Youman's Hats are here in every new block—soft and stiff—as well as their Silk Hats.

HOLBEIN EMBROIDERY

Designs suggested by the work of Dutch artists of the 15th Century.

Embroidered on Russian Linen of very fine texture—antique borders, dragoons, heraldic emblems, figures in Court costume and the like.

This work in the Art Department, 3d floor; Nothing else like it in Rochester, so you should be interested.

Restaurant

Banquets of a hundred to three hundred, are becoming quite a common occurrence in this Restaurant.

Make it seven or eight hundred at a time, if you like, we're thoroughly equipped to serve that many.

Think you these big events would take place here, if our everyday service was not of an appetizing and interesting order?

Orders by Mail

We have organized a mail order force that will serve your wants and wishes as carefully as though you came in the store in person.

Worth trying, don't you think?
Anything you want at any time —a postal card will bring the information to you, or the merchandise.

If what you get isn't just to your liking, the store policy permits you to return it for other merchandise, or your money.
