

Women's Oxfords at $2

Women's low shoes to sell at $2 never had such particular attention from us as they have this season. We started out with the idea that in spite of advanced cost of leather and making you should buy just as good an oxford for $2 as you ever found in this Shoe store.

We are willing to pass these up for your decision. There is style, quality and finish in every pair. Women's dull mat kid, blucher oxfords with tip, turned sole, $2 a pair.

Women's gunmetal blucher oxfords with plain toe and Goodyear welt sole, $2 a pair.

Women's glaze kid, short vamp blucher oxfords with patent leather tip, turn sole, ribbon laces $2 a pair.

Women's patent coltskin, blucher oxfords, with dull kid quarter and plain toe, welted sole, $2 a pair.

Women's coltskin blucher oxfords, with plain toe and flexible sole, $2 a pair.

Women's coltskin blucher oxfords, with dull quarter tip, English welted sole, and ribbon laces, $2 a pair.

Women's white canvas oxfords, all styles of heels and toes, light and heavy soles, $1 and $2 a pair.

News from Ireland

Leitrim.
The late Dr. Drummond, the noted author of humorous poems in French-Canadian dialect, was a native of Leitrim. He was the son of an officer in the Royal Irish Constabulary, and was born in 1854.

Limerick.
The Limerick Corporation on April 11 passed a congratulatory resolution to Bishop Orpen on his appointment to the Protestant Bishopric of Limerick. The new Bishop has received congratulations from all classes and creeds in the south of Ireland.

Louth.
Mr. Thomas Maguire, of Drogheda, an esteemed resident, and night watchman in the town for over thirty years, died on April 3.

Mayo.
Thomas Waldron, who was charged at Kilkenny Petty Sessions recently with having caused the death of his father-in-law, John Deignan, was returned for trial to Mayo Assizes.

Meath.
Easter Monday was the forty-eighth birthday of Lord Fingall, who was born in Rome, and is head of the Catholic branch of the famous old house of Plunkett. The earldom of Fingall is of Charles I.'s creation. Lord Fingall also enjoys the barony of Killeen, which dates from 1403, and gives a courtesy title to his heir. Lord Fingall's seat in County Meath is said to be the oldest inhabited house in Ireland, if not in the British Isles.

Five Minute Sermon

The Testimony of the Holy Ghost
Christ promised that the Holy Ghost would give testimony of His divine mission, and of the truth of His doctrine. The promise was fulfilled. The world has acknowledged Jesus to be the only-begotten Word clothed with our flesh; it has recognized Him to be the Messiah foretold by the prophets and foreshadowed in the law; it was convinced of the holiness of His doctrine, by which truths not known before were taught, and precepts inculcated worthy of the God Who taught them and worthy of man, who was called to put them in practice with the help of divine grace.

The apostles were the first to know Him and to be intimately associated with Him; they were, therefore, witnesses of all He did and said. But, although they were constantly with Him, spoke with Him, saw all His actions, they did not always understand His words nor know the object of His actions. But after having received the Holy Ghost they remembered and understood all they had seen and heard during the three years of Christ's public life, and from all this they gathered the materials to teach the nations, to explain the truth, and to establish the discipline of that Church of which they were to be the founders throughout the world. They would preach to the nations the divinity of Christ and the truths of faith; they would say: We have heard with our own ears and seen with our own eyes all the things which we announce to you; and thus they would give testimony of Christ.

In a certain sense these words were also intended for us. We also bear witness to Jesus, by leading a life according to His holy law; we also, by sincerely professing the faith and by observing the laws of the gospel, may expect, as St. Paul says, to be persecuted; must be encouraged by the hope of our eternal reward in heaven.

Manager Donoghue Importing Co.

Mr. Charles O. Toohy has accepted the position as manager of the Donoghue Importing Company, to succeed Mr. Wm. Donoghue, deceased. The Donoghue Importing Co. has been established many years and has a clientage covering the entire Western New York and throughout many states of the union. As importers and purveyors of pure wines and liquors this old house has a most enviable reputation and is considered thoroughly reliable and trustworthy wherever known. Mr. Toohy is well and favorably known in Rochester and has hosts of friends who will be glad to know that he has accepted so important a position and feel sure that his qualifications are such as to give entire satisfaction not alone to the public but to render thorough and efficient services to the Donoghue Importing Co., of which he assumes charge to-day. The usual high standard of quality and variety will be maintained and the many patrons of the company may rest assured that no effort will be spared to provide the best at all times, combined with thorough and efficient service.

BY REV. FATHER PONTUR.

How a Young Woman of His Parish Was Cured of Consumption by Father John's Medicine
Writing from Lafargaville, N. Y., Rev. Fr. Joseph Pontur, of St. Joseph's parish, said: "One of my parishioners, almost despondent of ever getting cured, given up by the doctors as a consumptive, upon my firm advice, is using Father John's Medicine and since has been constantly improving to the great joy of her parents and friends."
Again, four months later, Rev. Fr. Pontur writes: "The young woman referred to in my former letter, who was given up by all the doctors as a consumptive, continues to improve wonderfully by using Father John's Medicine."
NOTE—If your druggist does not have it, send $1 for a large bottle, express prepaid, to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass.
Father John's Medicine is for sale by The Bryan Drug House, 93 W. Main St., Rochester, N. Y.
