WIZARDVILLE BY THE LAKE

Western New York's Beautiful Pleasure City

Venetian Waterways Scenic Railway Terpsichore Hall the World Tours Love's Journey Japanese Village House That Jack Built Hotel Ontario, The Epicure's Mecca The Most Thrilling Spectacle of Modern Times MESSMORE'S

THE FIGHTING FLAMES

Depicting a crowded square in a large city during an exciting conflagration. In its entiresty presenting an exceptionally vivid representation that never fails to elicit cheers from its beholders. The Climax of all Sensational Exhibitions.

Special Stellar Free Features

Exhibition Extraordinary Frank C. Bostock's TRAINED WILD ANIMALS in the Auditorium Daily During the Entire Season

Infant health to The German Vi Recalling memories of "the Fath The Mystifying Builds Thulbe

Glorious Electrical Digitar Ni

'TWILL MAKE YOU LONG TO GO AGAIN

MISS NORTON'S

If it had not been for the diary turned him down. kept by Miss Norton, whose presence | "Friday, June 20.-Cable broke. for a long time was more of an or- Twenty minutes late. Boss says-if nament to "The Pines" than his own, this keeps up he will install a new he insists that he might still be a car system at his own expense. bachelor. He will tell you if you Twenty cents for luncheon. Fifteen can get him to talk-and he is a cents for dipped caramels. Office cative sort of fellow-that for a long bon bought on Wednesday. Cost of while he was in love with Miss Nor-living keeps going up. Walked home ton and didn't have the courage to to save car fare. Glass of ice-cream Miss Norton's fears were the other park with Paul. way around; for she dreaded lest didn't say anything. Suppose I Paul, who was so bashful that he shall have to tell him I am in love wouldn't take his own shadow into with him or else he won't find it out.

great—to encourage him. world some men, more or less big thing doing. Though he might ask oted, whose claim it is that women me. can't think at all. To confound

SHE THOUGHT OUT A WAY. these men with an indisputable ar gument we quote a few lines from

Miss Norton's diam:

-- eunesua) . June 15 .-- Capte proke again. In office fifteen min- Mostly Freedmen Who Settled There utes late. Boss said, with a sarcastic smile, that it's about time that I make allowance for cable and get up fifteen minutes earlier. Consider him too mean for anything! He might learn manners from Paul Paul Whitehead, one of the star Whitehead. Spent 18 cents for lunboarders at that fashionable north cheon, 50 cents for ribbon—the side boarding house, "The Pines," ribbon was a bargain. Must be believes that every unmarried we- more economical with lunch money. man should keep a diary. In his I don't know just what to do with humble opinion it is an aid to matri- the ribbon, but there will come a mony that double discounts the time. Paul not home for dinner: efforts of the shrewdest and most ex- moped all evening. Mr. Dresseer perienced matchmaker ever known asked me out for a row in the park:

singularly reticent and uncommuni- boy 5 cents for taking back the ribsoda, 10 cents. Out for a row in Moonlight. He his confidence, should neglect to ask "Thursday, June 26.—Cable stuck admitted to citizenship in the two her at all. She did all in her power in tunnel. Boss mad. Made six Southern tribes, the Choctaws and -which was as various as it was mistakes in taking dictation. Boss says sarcastically I must get my During those trying days Miss mind off that young man and get it to the secretive pages of which she confided not only every movement of confidence in the confidence of confidence in the confi her uneventful life but also every economical. Twenty cents for candy though that agitated her active mind and sods. Five cents to office boy and every emotion that stirred her to buy ribbon I sent back last week. tender heart. There are in this Out with Paul. Moonlight. No-

> "Monday, July 6 .- Cable-"But why should we longer obsmong the Choctaws and Chickssaws, besitatingly, and would have dis the fire complete its week of trude on the privacy and the The existence of these negroes in this trude on the privacy and the such numbers as in the Creek nation sisted on telling the history of the a girl under a blossoming with trude. we have learned enough from it to and under the circumstances, creates numerous papers in his hands, is and the latest photograph of confound those skeptics who sneer a negro problem of great importance vealing quite as much of the tragedy herself. at the intellectuality of woman and and greater difficulty. who rail at her inability to think profoundly?

At any rate the important point is not so much just what the diary happened to contain as that it happened to be lost. It dropped accidentally one morning out of Miss Norton's purse, fell on the diningroom floor of "The Pines" and Paul Whitehead happened to be its lucky finder. There are those who hint that the whole thing was not so accidental as-well, the cynical are never willing to allow for accidents, anyway, unless they happen to be of the sort that supports their benighted philosophy.—Chicago News.

Enough for Him. Jim:-I hear Bill has quit the allor's life.

Tim:-Yes, the captain got mad the other day and knocked the tar

NEGROES IN INDIAN TERRITORY.

at Close of Civil War. The first impression one gets of Muskogee, the largest and most im- "co-eds" during their college days, im dredful ax-dent, miss last night portant town in the territory, is that later years with an understanding on the New York Central. Not may of a Southern city, with a large megro patience, which few possessed and with the urching voice ringing six shows Muskogee, the largest and most impopulation. The negro predominates, no other exercised, it had been the whites come in next, and the red men are often pointed out as exceptions, one might almost say rarities and esteemed her as his best friend.

And yet legally and technically in Muskogee a large proportion of these lentless foe, the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and who attended the area who attended the columns of the daily as the lentless foe, the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and who attended the area who attended the columns of the daily as the lentless foe, the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and who attended to the daily as the lentless foe the deliverance of the columns of the daily as the lentless foe, the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and who attended the lentless for the daily as the lentless foe the daily as the lentless foe the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and who attended the lentless for the daily as the lentless foe the daily as the flercest and the columns of the daily as the lentless foe the flercest, hardest, in the urchin's voice ringing and the properties and exceptions. negroes and white men are inclians life to subdue, an inherited tasts for fell on the last line. John E law two at the shad are called such; and this is true that which steals away men's brains rance a prominent citizen of Albany City. throughout the Creek and Musk oges and makes them mad, she had instantly killed, wetched the never ending fight from the stord as it is dians by blood, Indians by intermar day to day, never reprotehing him minutes, needless of the currous riage and freedmen, says the Kansas when he succumbed to temptation sympathetic liances of the City Journal. The freedmen are the ever spurring him to renewed at by Halling a passing cab shades of the slaves who were liberated during the fort, helping over many a dangerous driven directly to the office. Civil War, or their descendants. They shoul where none save herself sus was there save a frightened once were admitted to full citizenship in pected danger. the Creek nation and are entitled to important business had kept her confirmed the seal news. share in the distribution of the Lands down town rather late this afternoon to the inner from the quickly por and moneys of the tribe. They can and wishing Lawrence's advice she vote for the tribal offices and are had stopped at his office. On the tribal offices. The at her friend as she entered his same youngster, regarded to the tribal offices. The admitted to citizenship in the two marked in a would-be jocular tone: wrapp, ran straight to the freplace these Southern tribes, the Choctaws and "I was just wishing to see you. I threw in the package and stood with whose bonney is the Chickasaws, but the United States have long wanted to ask you, should clasped hands and tearful even where the holder government proposes to give them anything happen to me to come here watching it burn. Suddenly the blue lark. One school Creeks; somewhat less so among the as I can no one else." Seminoles and practically unknown

The Finding of the Flames . . .

By M. M. Wells.

Jack Lawrence glanced up quick-

Only two pictures, only a sum good by iners dream now ten years agone; its very distance lends it its only enshantment." Ruth Howell and Jack Lawrence, started cityward a protage of her home and though less than kin were more than a ragged newsboy account her kind. Tried comrades in youth, Creek council, consisting of the house tum told her that her business must of kings and the house of warriors. wait. He was busily engaged sort own form.

is in part made up of negroes. Ing papers at his private desk, and with feverish haste. Freedmen, however, have not been after: exchanging greetings, rethe door, not stopping to remove the door, not stopping to remove the door, not stopping to remove the door.

are of the comedy of his own and Jim-Jitsu in France. Visional at that other lives, until he reached the A France teacher of boxing points not guing to have a prackage he had so jealously guarded, out that an art of self-defense apwent the woman's thoughts through was known in Europe in the seven-journele the vista of the years, to a quaint old teenth century. Its principles are exclusive any evening the college town nestled among the New pounded in a work by one Nicholas volvers they would as England hills, recalling a rosy Peters, published at Amsterdam in mine cheeked, rollicking malden under 1674. the blossom-ladened apple bought. chattering merrily with-heigh-holy That was long ago. She, too, has had Matrimonial tickets are supplied her dream—but Jack is another by the Canadian Pacific railway to woman's husband and this another settlers in the Northwest Territory and a very different day he who wish to make a journey in order

"By George! I must leave for New return coupon and the marriage cerly, then almost snatching the pack- York to-night. Just forty minutes to difficult the settler is entitled to free age from the reach of the willte catch the train; help me out; that's transportation for his bride hand, outstretched to grasp it, et a good girl." Ruth's nimble fingers.

claimed hastily, if not rudely: "I'll messenger boys and telephone wires. Afghan soldiers are not admitted not show you that; it is nothing to soon accomplished the work, and be as witnesses in law courts of their you." "What is it, Jack?" a soft voice the pavement in a pouring fain, hid ding one another good-night and

The following morning dawner bright and cold. As Ruth ram gard "Here's your mornin' paper, mile

With the urchin's voice ringing als ah

"No. Thank God!" Then her eys cle of friends, or rence, a prominent cities of Albany, City Marie

She stood as if stunned for many one one or . boy, who knew her well and rapidly home and was soon in her merly in bondage to the government's do it forrself, and do it now!

Wards—the Indians.

Intermarriage between the fullblood for my own protection. Promise start, bent closer and yet closer till what I ask; it is not too much to do the fames nearly licked her face for your old chum. I can trust you and scorched her hair then start on "I promise, Jack," she said un triumphant; expression, watched

"Only a summer's dream." Back proximately equivalent to lin-just quickly changed the subject. to secure a wife. On presenting the