ST. BRIDGET'S.

The semi-annual diagram will be placed in the vestibule Sunday.

The first Friday devotions took place this week.

An anniversary mass was celebrated Saturday for Mrs. John O'Keefe.

Sunday is communion day for the members of the Rosary Society. The members of this congregation will be pleased to hear that our former pastor, Father O'Connor, is visiting in the city, the guest of his brother, in Champlain Street.

Rev. Arthur O'Connor of Brooklyn, is spending his vacation here, formerly a member of this parish.

We are pleased to announce that Miss Mae Moreland, who has been seriously ill is regaining her health.

Miss Annie Owens and her nieces, the Misses Hoffman, have disposed of their home in this parish and will reside in Shepard St. We trust we may not lose them from this parish.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Connor and little daughter, of Hand St., have returned from a trip to Montreal, Quebec, and St. Anne de Beaupre.

Mrs. Chas. Wandersee of Clinton Avenue N., is visiting relatives in Peoria, Ill.

Branch 27, L. C. B. A., met Friday evening. Congratulations are extended to our Supreme President, Mrs. E. B. McGowan on her re-election and to Mrs. K. J. Dowling on her appointment as Supreme Senator. An account of the convention was given by our delegate, Miss M. Managan.

There is no alcohol in Celery King—a medicine fresh from nature's hand. If you have never taken this great tonic-laxative, ask your friends about it. 25c.
