The Catholic Journal

Eighteenth Year, No. 46.

Carroll

afore. Look at it!"

O'Don oghue

A Tale of Irish Struggles med fun for them till I kem to be

She drew him' to the inner mornin' we wor out on the ocean.

his face, she smoothed the rumpl- coaxed him to fly the country en-was me near him, but I did at harmless omadhaun, an' they of the Church.

side the prison walls, an' afore ties.

last, an' somehow afther that good luck was on our side. I got Rochester, N. Y., Friday August 16, 1997.

News From

Carlow

Kildare

Longford

Louth

apartment; though poor almost to There wasn't wantin' friends to The Board of Trustees, of May. has been found in the district of iubilee.

Ireland support and to the Press for publicity of their claims.

Westmeath

Died-June 30, James Gillicky Catholic News From Hany Place A rate of inish Struggies med fun for them till I kem to be of 1886 and Recent Times about of favorite among them, by CHRISTINE FABER by CHRISTINE FABER on the ship, they thought me a short illness, fortified by the rites of Very Redemptorists will be Rev. Pat. in America. remarks the rely, Castle collard, sister of Very Redemptorists will be Rev. Pat. in America. remarks the rely of the Church. Number of the second second

A valuable vein of copper ore festively, celebrated its golden but be that Catholician joy its most complete apartment; though poor almost to There wasn't wantin' friends to bareness, it was clean and neat, help us, an', though the hue and nooth College at their meeting on and there had been even some cry was raised, we landed safe in July 2nd, Cardinal Logue presid-attempt at taste in the disposition Ireland, an' we're here for the ing, established a third chair of ton Bridge, of an experimental Very Rev. Father Gordon, S. J., of bows of bright-hued calico on last three days, down at Hurley's, scholastic Philosophy in the Col-character. A lead and silver rector of Stonyhurs College as one of the interest at the next meeting of wor always a good mother, an' 'The masther is for stayin' an' you desarve a betther son than Itakin' his chance agin with the arrival in Athy district on June always maintained that there was wor always a good mother, an' 'The masther is for stayin' an' Availing of Father Rowan's miners, but few of whom are lett, bruch in the bruch in the arrival in Athy district on June always maintained that there was any, but come now till I tell you, rest of the lads, but they've rais-so a meeting took place in the much undiscovered wealth in the The establishment of Carthun-for I'll have to be movin' soon. ''ed the sarch for him. and more-She would have busied herself over, they're scourin' this very Hall to present an address wish. two or three places in the cliffs been sacrilegiously setted by the and parishing Catholic in preparing a meal for him, but part of the country in such a'ing him every success in his new mear Cullenstown, a pretty little French government and velued aperiating from the start in to lave at once. Some of Rowan was for many years at-divided attention; so taking a seat him to lave at once. Some of Rowan was for many years at-where she could look fondly into the boys that'd die to save him taked to Athy district.

Availing the second started ed frills of her cap, and prepared toirely, an' I begged him on me two knees to go. It wasn't one "You know, mother, how heavy bit o' use. So to-night he'll make the of the Castlecomer Branch of me heart was for the masther the trial to see her, an' whin he the United Irish League, held on afther they thransported him." laves her they'll have a boat "I do, my poor boy, I do." ready for him. Do you now, expressing disapproval of the ac. "Welklow was abled in the county beknownst to you or any one, only prepare Miss McCarthy an' Miss Party who had deserted the party ti all, I used to take long walks. The kind-hearted old woman by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: by the say-shore, an' I used to had been weeping silent tears: be was in afar from usall. Be her eyes very vigorously, and beittle the work of the Irish gorra. I couldn't stand it, an' I shook her head. said to Shaun one day, 'I'll go to' 'There's a nower a' sorrour. Nationalist works I wee desided and provide the failed tear the shore the said to Shaun one day, 'I'll go to' 'There's a nower a' sorrour. Nationalist works I wee desided has proved effective.

he was in afar from us all. Be her eyes very vigorously, and belittle the work of the Irish Irish Farty in arty in art was a Chresthen and jist knew even the cottage that shelters Fund. what I was sayin', an' barked; I'them. Father Meagher had just made up my mind from that been in afore me, an' he had Justice Fitzgibbon congratulat at Galway Quarter, Sessions on and adults whom war and private Asta

But I soon found the times there he was evidently in very troubled he took their hearts intoirely, more an interaction into the times there he was evidently in very toubled work hand to the times there he was evidently in very toubled to thought. His mother did not dis the thought and the times the evidently in the times the evidently in the times the evidently in very toubled to thought. His mother did not dis the thought and the times the evidently in the times the evidently in the times the evidently in the times that in the times the evidently in the times the evidently in the times that is a first the times the evidently in the times that is the times the evidently in the times the evidently in the times the evident time times the evident time times the evident times the evident time times the evident times the evident thing that if you'd do it for me, had recovered from its effect. munity from crime. I'd be the happiest man alive" and, probably experts will make

County Council by Constable O' are engaged in the very laudable Halloran, R. I. C., was dismissed work of freeing from slavery made up my mind from that been in afore me, an' he had minute. I moinded how I used made them promise to come at to hear them tell in Mrs. Leary's once to his house. They wor pre-full state of the County at the public house of a part of Ireland parin' to go, for they wor in opening of Longford summer' touched. A quare thought kem into me head, an' I acted on it. I made sthraight for the part they afther a few days I kern to a ishin' village. I tould the people a story about mesel' an' Shaun, an' is decavin' the masther.''' the completely, an' Shaun, what with his thricks an 'his affection, he took their hearts intoirely be build soon found the times thered.''' cently.

Men who were making a fence Died July 2d, at her residence on the side of a hill at Kingsland. Bishop Spakding, of Peorla, in I'd be the happiest man alive"

''An' what is that?'he asked
''An' what is that?'
''An' what is that?''An' what?''An' what?'''An' what?''An' what?''An

