ST. BONIFACE.

Requiem Mass was said last Thursday for Mr. Adolf Ritz.

Last Monday evening the drawing took place in the parish hall for three watches and a beautiful doll, for which numbers were sold by the school children. The following were the lucky winners: Gold watch (donated by Father Rauber) won by Mrs. F. Frank 684 South Ave.; doll (donated by Mrs. M. Biedenbach), won by L. W. Graves, 277 Brown St.; lady's watch (donated by Father Rauber) won by Jos. Schenk, 7 Weider St.; gent's silver watch (donated by Geo. Klee), won by Margaret Ruby, 309 Meigs St. The total receipt for these articles was about $300, which is a very good amount.

The lawn social, which was given last week, was a grand success in every way. Every booth was well patronized from first to last. Those in charge seemed very enthusiastic in their efforts to make the festival a grand affair. The net receipt will amount to about $1,200, which is a very good showing indeed.

Father Rauber wishes to express his appreciation to all who attended this lawn festival. He particularly wishes to thank all those who worked so faithfully in their respective places to make it as great a success as it showed to be. The net proceeds for the drawing and lawn festival will amount to about $1,500, which will go towards a new school hall.

AUBURN, N. Y.

The annual outing of Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, will be held next Thursday at Koenig's Point on Owasco Lake. The committee having the affair in charge report great progress in their work. The first boat will leave Lakeside Park at 9:30 and every hour afterwards boats will go to the Point. During the forenoon games will be played as usual. At noon time the luncheon will be ready for the Knights. During the afternoon the regular game of ball between the married men and the single men will be pulled off. The score for the game last year was in doubt on account of the score book being stolen. The game this year promises to beat that of any other year. The shore dinner will be served at 5 o'clock, in which Caterer Wylie will spread himself. Tickets for the day's outing can be had of the committee for the small sum of $1.00.

The Italians of the city held their celebration on Thursday with special services at St. Mary's Church. A Solemn High Mass was read by the priest in attendance at the celebration. An Italian priest from out of the city delivered the sermon of the day. A procession in which hundreds of men took part marched through to the church. In the afternoon and evening the celebration was held in Koenig's Hall in Washington Street.

Sunday will be a day of unusual interest to the congregation of St. Mary's Church when the patron feast day of the church will be celebrated.

A beautiful bronze statue is to be placed in the niche that is located over the middle door of the church. Rev. James F. Winters of Ithaca will deliver the sermon of the day. A Solemn High Mass will be read at 11 o'clock. Solemn Vespers will also be read during the afternoon.

The funeral of the late Agnes Kelly was held from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelly, on Tuesday morning, with funeral services at St. Mary's Church. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the deceased. The funeral Mass was read by priests of the church, who also conducted the burial services at the grave.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. The bearers were friends of the deceased. Burial was made in St. Joseph Cemetery.

The parochial schools of the city will reopen for the fall term the first Tuesday in September.

Canandaigua.

Prayer was offered Sunday for Mrs. Fred Classey of Chicago, James Dannahoe of Geneva, Mrs. Michael McIntyre, Donegal and Mrs. Patrick McPhillips.

The rectory subscription for August, taken last Sunday, amounts to $410.

Donald Francis Cornell and Katherine Elizabeth Boyle were baptized last Sunday.

John W. Welch of Canandaigua and Lauretta Scott of Oswego were called last Sunday.

The sad death of Mrs. Patrick McPhillips occurred last week. She was a most devoted wife and mother and the congregation suffers a severe loss in the death of so faithful and worthy a member.

When we visit St. Mary's of Auburn our attention is called to the bronze statue of the Blessed Virgin which occupies a similar position to the marble statue in front of our church, and which is to be dedicated next Sunday.

Anniversary High Mass of Requiem Wednesday morning for John Scully.
