

SACRED HEART ALUMNAE

Former Pupils Have Reunion

An atmosphere of joy was all about the Sacred Heart Convent, No. 2 Prince Street, on Saturday, for it was the date selected for the fourth annual meeting of the Alumnae Association and women came from far and near to renew associations of girlhood and to pledge anew their loyalty to their Alma Mater.

The attendance was large, about one hundred and sixty being present to participate in an order of events occupying nearly the whole day. Mothers came with their daughters and in one family three generations were represented.

At 10:30 a. m. the superior of the convent, members of the community and the executive committee of the Alumnae Association received the alumnae with cordial greetings, and in a short time the usually quiet halls and corridors resounded with merriment.

At 11 o'clock the present pupils of the school entertained their elder sisters in the study hall, handsomely decorated for the occasion with ferns and palms. The program was opened by a piano overture, by Kunkel, and then one of the lightest girls, Miss Alice O'Reilly, expressed in charming fashion the welcome of the pupils. This was followed by a drama, entitled "Ideals," written by one of the nuns of the convent, which told in poetic language of the search of a young pilgrim after the highest type of womanhood. "Truth" pointed out "Antigone," heroine of strength and self-sacrifice, and "Esther" of admirable traits of character, but unsatisfied the pilgrim sought further and finally found in the Blessed Mother of God all needed for the earthly ideal of womanhood. In the reading of the lines, the posing, costuming and the scenic accessories there was a high order of excellence and the tableau forming the finale of the play was most beautiful in effect. The principals in the cast were: Truth, Miss Frances Mulhern; Pilgrim, Miss Hildogarde Jacobs; King Creon, Miss Margie Klee; Antigone, Miss Helen Fitzpatrick; Ismene, Miss Milda Barnes; Guards, Misses Barry and Siskies; Esther, Miss Alice Reddin.

Between the acts a Japanese chorus was prettily rendered by a number of little girls in costume and after its conclusion the essay, "Follow Thy Star," a brilliant effort, capturing the annual alumnae prize, was read by its writer, Miss Lella Wagner, of New York.

A delicious luncheon was served at small tables in the pupils' recreation hall at 12:30. Each table bore a bouquet of autumn flowers and on the serving table in the center of the room there was a lovely arrangement of anemones. The menu cards, exquisitely decorated in water colors, were from the convent studio.

The formal meeting of the alumnae occurred at 2:30 o'clock, the convent's superior presiding. Miss Adele Langie presented the secretary's report, and Mrs. Richard Curran, the treasurer, gave the financial statement, which showed a satisfactory balance. Plans for the alumnae's future were discussed in an address by the superior, and the proceedings were brought to a close by all present singing the canticle, "Mater Admirabilis."

Benediction in the chapel, enriched since the last meeting of the alumnae by a magnificent statue of the Sacred Heart, and a sermon by the convent's chaplain, Rev. Wm. F. Ryan, brought the day to its close. During the service the choir of nuns and pupils rendered beautiful music.

Among the women from out of town at the convent to the celebration were: Mrs. Andrew Trachenberg, Mrs. John Trachenberg, Mrs. John Lascelles, Miss Frances Riebling and Miss Helen Cullen, of Buffalo; Mrs. Ben Folsom, of California; Mrs. Russell Warren, Pa.; James Cunningham, Mrs. J. Hamilton Egan and Miss Lella Wagner, of New York; Mrs. McCollum, of Lockport; Mrs. Lawrence Griffin, of Medina; the Misses Annie and Elizabeth Burns and Mrs. D. Moore, of Geneva; Mrs. T. J. Gere and Mrs. Wm. Foley, of Syracuse; Mrs. C. L. Carman, of St. Paul; Miss Alice Curtin, of Albion; Mrs. Patrick Hughes, of Toronto; Mrs. Wm. N. McMahon, of Victor; Mrs. Faulkner, of Bath; Mrs. K. FitzPatrick, of Batavia; the Misses Catherine and May Grace, of Syracuse; Miss Rochfort, of Canandaigua; Miss Katherine Rafferty, of Scottsville, and Miss Donnelly, of Victor.

Five Minute Sermon

The Ruler's Daughter.

The dead girl represented a soul recently fallen into mortal sin through frailty, surprise, or the violence of temptation, rather than through malice or depravity of heart, on this account Christ said that she was not dead, but asleep. God ordinarily by His mercy calls souls suddenly, principally by a great remorse, to a sincere repentance and a prompt return to the state of grace and the time of their spiritual death being of short duration, they may be said to be asleep rather than dead.

The lesson we should learn is to have recourse to Jesus Christ in all our needs with a lively faith and with humility, as had the ruler and the infirm woman. We should also admire the great goodness of our Divine Redeemer, Who was so prompt to console those who asked Him; He will do the same for us if we ask Him from our hearts, and, as our Divine Master sent away the musicians from the bed of the dead girl, so we on the occasion of death should seek help for the soul, and not the noise and clamor and the vain pomp of the world.
