BISHOP HENDRICKS VISITS ROCHESTER

Greeted by Hundreds of his Friends

Hundreds of persons were at the New York Central station Monday morning to greet Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Hendrick, bishop of Cebu, Philippine Islands, whose arrival had long been expected, and who was welcomed to the city as few clergymen or laymen ever have been. By the time the train pulled in, shortly after 9 o'clock, the trainshed was blocked with people, many of them former parishioners at St. Bridget's Church with clergymen and city officials prominent in the self-elected Reception Committee.

Bishop Hendrick has been absent from his home city for more than four years. His present journey is one of both business and pleasure, it being his intention to present his verbal report to the head of the church in Rome and to visit friends in various cities in this country.

The bishop was met at Buffalo by his brother, Monsignor Joseph Hendrick, of Ovid, and Eugene J. Dwyer, of Rochester, who accompanied him to this city. Bishop Hendrick's two sisters, Kate and Theresa, were awaiting his arrival, and, as upon his return from Rome after he was created a bishop, they kissed him affectionately when he stepped from the train. Nor were they alone in thus expressing the regard in which "Father Tom," as he is still called by those closest to him, is held.

From the station Bishop Hendrick went to the Powers Hotel, where he was seen by several newspaper men. He related interesting incidents of his work in the Philippines, and told of customs and conditions found on the island of Cebu. The bishop is in good health, he says, but the almost unceasing labor of caring for the large diocese of which he has charge has made it necessary for him to seek recreation. He is of the opinion that his journey to this country and Rome will accomplish the desired result. Bishop Hendrick is accompanied by his secretary, Rev. D. S. Rollinson. As this first visit in Rochester was for the day only, Bishop Hendrick paid a visit to Bishop McQuaid and Coadjutor Bishop Hickey, at St. Bernard's Seminary. He talked with the three Filipino students at the seminary who are studying for the priesthood and who will return to the Philippines in two years.

The immediate plans of Bishop Hendrick include a visit to Albany, where he will see the family of the late Bishop Rooker. He will then go to New York and to Washington, and from the national capital to Belmont, N. C., to visit his warm personal friend, Bishop Hald, at St. Mary's Seminary.

Canandaigua. Prayers were offered Sunday for Mrs. Ann Clark, of Brewster, N. Y., Mrs. Ed. Mason, of East Bloomfield, and Timothy Tressey, of Hartford, Conn.

Circulars were distributed Sunday announcing the old church property for sale. The accompanying diagram shows the dimensions of the property, the shape and location of buildings. The old church is 120 feet long and would make a good shop, factory or cold storage plant. The school collection amounts to $60.56.

Pew diagrams will be distributed next Sunday. Sister M. Ursula, of Rochester, spent three days last week visiting the various grades of our school and training the children to test their proficiency in the various branches.

The Masses this week are Thomas Melvin, Monday; Nellie Nolan, Thursday; Martin Hogan, Friday.

The work of laying the floors in the new rectory began on Monday morning. It will require about two months for the completion of the building. Anticipating the absence of a barn on the new premises Father Dougherty disposed of his horse last week to the grocer, C. H. Brocklebank, and will in the future depend on livestock for country calls.

We hope that Bishop Hendrick while in this vicinity will find time to visit Canandaigua where his sister Rev. Mother Aloysius was a teacher for so long a time. His Lordship has not yet seen the church or the window erected to her memory.

The Young Ladies' Sodality, under the direction of Miss Katherine Burns, of Rochester, are preparing "The Chaperon" for the eve of March 17th when the Rev. John B. Sullivan, of Rochester, will also deliver an address on St. Patrick.

The C. M. B. A. and the L. C. B. A. held a recital at Emerald Hall on the 13th inst., to which a number of their friends were invited, and a very enjoyable evening was had by all those who attended. The L. C. B. A. furnished excellent refreshments in the dining room of the hall, and dancing and cards were on the program.

The laughable farce, "Snow Ball," which was to be presented this month by the young people of St. Mary's Church, has been postponed until a later date.

The farcical comedy, "Our Secretary," given by the Dramatic Club of the Confraternity of Mary, of St. Mary's Church, Rochester, under the direction of Miss Katherine Burns, at Emerald Hall on the 20th inst., for the benefit of St. Mary's Church of this village, was a grand success and enjoyed by the large audience. As the play progressed more laughter was caused, and it was one of the best amateur productions ever presented in Emerald Hall. Some of the actors took their parts like professionals - all did well. After the play supper was served in the dining room of the hall, and dancing was enjoyed.

Lima, N. Y.

The four act drama, "Valley Farm," was presented in Brendau Hall, Thursday and Friday evenings, February 20th and 21st, to large and enthusiastic audiences. The cast was as follows: Geo. Cummings, Geo. Elchenger, Wm. Harrington, Patrick Hendricks, Edw. Hogan, Michael Hogan, Bartholomew Hayes, Mary Lockington, Elizabeth McSweeney, Mary Hays, Elizabeth Lockington, Elizabeth Hayes and Ruth O'Connell. All took their parts so well it would be unnecessary to make special mention of any one. The play was presented under the direction of Miss Mary Whalen, who deserves much credit for its success.

Following the play on Friday evening the Young Ladies' Sodality gave a dance for which Valentine's Harp Orchestra furnished the music. Supper was served in the dining room during the evening, and a most enjoyable time was had by the large number in attendance.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanrehan. Miss Ellen O'Connell who has been seriously ill, is slowly recovering.

Auburn, N. Y.

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, held the last of the dancing parties to be given before Lent in their handsome headquarters during this week. She large council chamber was used by the older members and lady friends and wives to play cards on. In the Columbus Annex the younger people took part in the dance that was arranged. The Bishop Orchestra played the dance program and received great applause for their work.

The funeral of the late John Graham was held from his home in this city during the week with services at the Holy Family Church. The burial was made at Syracuse, in Woodlawn cemetery.

The fair for the benefit of the Italians of this city was a great success. The handsome Music Hall was used for five nights to run off the fair and over $2,000 was made by the different churches of the city who helped in making it the success.

The Lenten season will open next week and at each of the masses next Sunday the usual Lenten instructions will be read at each of the masses. The young people of the St. Aloysius gave a delightful musical drama in the Grand Hall on Tuesday night for the benefit of the building fund of the church. The operetta Alvin Gray was used to good advantage by the cast. The play abounded in good wit and many side lines. A handsome sum was realized from the affair. During the acts the children of the school took part in many specialties.

The many friends of Bishop Hendricks will be pleased to have him include Auburn in his visit before returning on his way to Rome. Bishop Hendricks when pastor at Cayuga made many friends in this city.
