Miss Mayme Fischer died on Thursday evening, April 30th, at her home, 324 Maple St. She leaves her parents, four sisters and one brother. Her funeral was held Monday morning at 8.30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from the church. Rev. E. J. Gefell celebrated Requiem Mass. The church was filled with friends of the young lady and the floral offerings were large and numerous.

HOLY FAMILY.

The funeral of Benjamin Kessler took place from his late residence, corner Kondolf and Childs Sts., Monday morning at 8.30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from the church. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. D. Laurensis, assisted by Rev. J. Gefell as deacon and Rev. A. Ziegler as sub-deacon.

The members of the Holy Family Society are requested to receive Holy Communion Sunday morning at the 8 o'clock Mass in a body.

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

ROYAL
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Not only for rich or fine food or for special times or service. Royal is equally valuable in the preparation of plain, substantial, everyday foods, for all occasions. It makes the food more tasty, nutritious and wholesome.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

The services at the opening of the Forty Hours' devotion last Sunday were solemn and impressive. Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Father Byrnes, Rev. Mr. Griffin being deacon and Rev. Mr. Ganey sub-deacon, all of St. Bernard's Seminary. Father O'Donoghue, master of ceremonies, and Master Geo. Hanlon, assistant master of ceremonies. The procession of many little girls in white, with the Altar and choir boys, added greatly to the solemnity of the occasion.

The high Altar was beautifully decorated with red and white carnations. At 7.45 P. M. Solemn Vespers were sung by Father Krieg of the Cathedral and an earnest sermon on "Frequent Communion" was delivered by Father Keenan, also of the Cathedral. The children's choir sang the Vespers in a creditable manner. There was no sermon Monday or Tuesday evenings, the Rosary was recited and Benediction given each evening. The number approaching the Sacraments during the days was truly edifying. The devotion closed Wednesday at 8 A. M. Many priests from different parts of the diocese assisted in hearing confessions. Our only regret Sunday was the absence of our pastor, Father Kavanaugh, who is ill.

Prayers were requested Sunday for Mr. John Wehle of Gorham St. and Mrs. Winnifred Trainor of Catherine St. Their funerals took place Monday at 10 A. M. at their respective homes on account of the devotion of the Forty Hours being in progress.

In the death of Mrs. Trainor our parish has lost another old and faithful member. Her life was edifying to all who came in contact with her. Two daughters remain to mourn her loss, the loss of a kind and good mother. To them, Misses Mary and Winnifred Trainor we extend our sympathy. Mrs. Trainor's funeral Mass was sung Thursday at 7.30 A. M.

The funeral Mass of Mr. John Wehle was sung Friday morning at 7.30.

Saturday at 7.30 A. M. a Requiem Mass was celebrated for the deceased members of the family of Mr. Michael Donnelly.

The First Communion class will receive Sunday at the 9 o'clock Mass. Confirmation will be administered in this church by our Rt. Rev. Bishop on Sunday, May 31st. A class for adults and for children who are obliged to work was formed last Monday evening in the school house.

May devotions are held each morning during the month after the 7.30 o'clock Mass.

The Rosary Society meeting, which was postponed last Sunday, will take place to-morrow, Sunday, after Vespers.

An adjourned meeting will be held at St. Ann's Home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock to perfect the arrangements for their annual donation day, May 26th. Donations of money or refreshments for that day will be thankfully received by the ladies in charge.

Mr. Frank Connolly and Miss Frances Sullivan of Canajoharie, N. Y., were united in marriage April 22d by Father Bloomer of that city. Mr. Connolly is a young business man of that place and Miss Sullivan was formerly a member of this parish, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sullivan, who for many years were members of this church. We extend congratulations.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Tuohy and family have moved from the parish. St. Augustine's parish are to be congratulated on having them become members of their parish.

ST. BONIFACE.

The Young Ladies' Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at 7.30 o'clock Mass next Sunday.

A proof of the pew diagram for the second quarter will be found in the vestibule of the church next Sunday.

Ground was broken this week for the new school hall to be built for this parish. Judging from the plans it will be a credit to our congregation.

St. Boniface Society will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday evening at the school hall.

Requiem Masses this week were for A. Vogt, M. Winterkorn, Mrs. G. Beyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Siebert, F. Frey, Mrs. S. Pappert and Mrs. M. Stohler.

Mr. Andrew Garay, from Toronto, Can., was here last Sunday visiting his parents and many friends.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wahl for the happy arrival of a little daughter.

HOLY REDEEMER.

The order of Masses have been changed as follows: First Mass at 6 o'clock, High Mass at 9 o'clock and children's Mass at 11 o'clock.

The committee on the erection of a chapel at Sea Breeze held a card party and entertainment Monday evening at Concordia Hall. The affair was a success both socially and financially.

The funeral of John Wehle, who died suddenly Monday evening, was held from this church on Thursday morning at 9.30 o'clock.

Miss Cecil Wehrer of North St. will entertain the Fanchon Club Monday evening when the members will elect officers.

HOLY APOSTLES.

Ladies' Auxiliary, A. G. O. H., No. 4, will hold a masquerade party Monday evening, May 11th, at their hall, corner Lyell Ave. and Child St.

BLESSED SACRAMENT.

May devotions are held on Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Diagram for the April quarter will be distributed Sunday.

The following High Masses of Requiem were offered during the past week: Monday, John Hanaty; Tuesday, Mortimer Leary; Wednesday, Benjamin and Bridget Furlong; Thursday, Mrs. Mary Fletcher, and Friday, Mrs. Josephine Rahn.

A class of 50 children will receive their first Holy Communion one week from Sunday at the 9 o'clock Mass.

The mock trial, held in the hall last Thursday evening, was a great success both from the point of attendance and also because of the enjoyment that was derived from it. A handsome sum was realized for the cause of charity.

An interesting meeting of the Holy Name Society will be held Sunday evening after the lecture. Fifty views of the Philippine Islands will be shown on the screen. All the men of the parish are invited to this meeting.

Canajoharie.

Mrs. Ann Scully died Tuesday at the home of her son, Martin Scully, aged 83 years.

The Rosary ladies are providing window shades for the new rectory, and the Alumnae Association have secured two new book cases for the pastor's books.

Rev. P. Libert of St. Bernard's Seminary will assist with confessions Saturday afternoon and evening and will preach to the Hollanders Sunday morning.

Confirmation will be administered to a large class next Sunday at 3 P. M. Three hundred cards have been sent out to the members of the last three classes requesting information regarding the pledge taken at the time. Most of the answers so far received are exceedingly gratifying.

Upwards of three tons of old paper was sent to Buffalo on Monday, and it is expected that $40 or $50 will be netted from this simple method of making money.

Baptized last Sunday, Jane Elizabeth O'Reilly.

Richard Tyner is the purchaser of the Chronicle printing plant. "Dick" has already opened up business at the old stand. There seems to be also a general desire to see the paper re-established.

The Month's Mind Mass for Joseph Ryan was said Tuesday morning.

The Morgan stone house and farm west of Calvary Cemetery has recently been purchased by a Mr. O'Brien from Brooklyn, who expects to occupy it next April.

AUBURN, N. Y.

The Young Ladies' Society of St. Mary's Church gave a delightful sacred drama in Lyceum Hall on last Sunday night. The sacred drama, "The Last Day of Our Lady," was put on by the members of the society in fine style. The acting of the young ladies in the cast was well done and great praise was given the young ladies for their parts in the play.

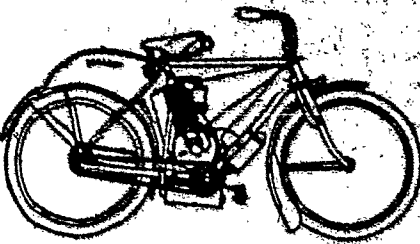

The funeral of the late William Marshall was held from his home on Barber Street on Monday morning, with services at St. Mary's Church. The Requiem Mass was read at the church, after which the burial services were conducted at the grave in St. Joseph Cemetery. The funeral was attended by a large delegation of friends of the deceased.

Auburn Council, Knights of Columbus, gave the first degree to a class of candidates on Thursday night in the Council rooms. After the degree work was over the house committee entertained the members with a social session.

The Council also listened to the report of the hall committee, which was received with great interest by the members.

The Willing Workers' Club of the asylum held another enjoyable party in their rooms on Tuesday afternoon in Woodmen Hall. The parties are being attended by large gatherings of charitable women of the city, and the work that they are doing is the greatest act of charity in the city. It is expected that for the balance of the season that the affairs will be patronized by larger numbers of ladies.

A Third Saved in a Spring

A great many men who have not known heretofore in the clothing line are making acquaintance of Clothing Quarters up on the floor, to their profit these days.

It is no secret that clothing manufacturers had anything but a profitable season. With calculations and returns many have had stock to dispose of at a reduced figure.

We are helping two or three of them get out some of this surplus clothing.

These suits which we are offering are in spring styles—fancy worsteds in browns, modes, green effects, and plain and fancy blue serge. Visible and shadow stripes are among the latest styles. They are divided into three lots:

Men's $10 and $12 spring suits for $8

Men's $15 and $18 spring suits for $12

Men's $20 and $22.50 spring suits for $15
